

Meet The Seniors - - - - - BY PEGGY BRASWELL

(In order to acquaint the Bugle readers with the seniors of 1957, this paper is beginning a column about the class that will appear in the succeeding issues. Various aspects of the personalities and activities of the 42 members will be reviewed.

For the opening column, general statistics of the class are presented. Editor)

PAIRS

One of the characteristics of this class is the number of pairs found in it. There is a set of twins, BETTY SUE and BILLY BOYKIN; a pair of brothers, JAMES and DALE WELLS; a brother and sister pair, MARY ELIZABETH and MARION WARREN.

Along this same line there are the inseparable groups. Noticeable ones are RAY BRANTLEY, NUMA FINCH, and RICHARD PRIVETTE: RAY PEELE and A. W. PITTS: CARROL BOTTOMS and DALE WELLS; KEITH GLOVER and BARBARA BOYKIN; SONJA MANNING, JO ELLEN FINCH, PEGGY BRASWELL, and YVONNE MEACOMES.

MARRIED STUDENTS

Among the graduates of '57 there are four married girls: KEITH GLOVER, FAYE JORDAN, ELAINE MANNING, and BOBBIE LAMM.

Although many seniors rate high scholastically, the names most likely appearing on the honor roll each grading period are LOUISE WELLS, MARY ELLA GLOVER, PEGGY BRASWELL, LANE FARMER, KEITH GLOVER.

The six class officers--- JAMES WELLS, CHARLES WILLIAMS, MARY ELLA GLOVER, SONJA MANNING, DALE WELLS, and BARBARA BOYKIN--are among the 15 class members serving as officers in FFA, FHA, and FTA. The others are CARROL BOTTOMS, PEGGY BRASWELL, JO ELLEN FINCH, LANE FARMER, KEITH GLOVER, LOUISE WELLS, BOBBIE LOU BATTS, and YVONNE MEACOMES.

Transportation records show that one senior commutes from Wilson, eleven live in Bailey, and thirty travel to and from school by bus.

BUGLE STAFF MEMBERS

Eleven of the twenty-one Bugle staff members are seniors.

Commercial subjects seem to appeal to a large number of the seniors. Twenty-eight are majoring in these subjects.
