

Cafeteria Scene Of Court Of Honor

Fifteen members of Bailey's Troop 12 of the Boy Scouts of America received awards at a Court of Honor earlier this month in the school cafeteria.

Scoutmaster Willis Finch extended the welcome. Special guests, members of the Bailey Lions Club, sponsors of the troop, were recognized.

The opening ceremony consisted of the troop's saying the Scout Oath and the congregation's pledging allegiance to the flag and singing "America".

Participating in the candle lighting ceremony were Hardy Prather, Eastern North Carolina Scout Executive, and the patrol leaders.

AWARDS

Hardy Prather, Don Glisson, and Ben Neville, Eastern North Carolina Scout Executives, presented the awards:

Tenderfoot: Grady Haskins, Jimmy Bruce Wells, John Tuck, Jr., and Bob Johnson.

Second Class: Johnnie Boykin, James McKeel, Harold Patterson, and Gerald Tapp.

First Class: Buddy Bailey, Mitchell Bisette, Bill Boykin, Dick Finch, and Jimmy Finch.

Merit Badges: Buddy Bailey, Dick Finch, Jimmy Finch, James McKeel, Harold Patterson, and Johnny Hagwood.

For their program, the Scouts presented a mock prize fight and a demonstration of scoutcraft.

Following the program, refreshments, purchased from the Scouts' funds, were served by the Scouts' mothers.

BIOLOGY CLASSES WORK WITH FIVE SPECIMANS

Five plants and animals, brought from home, are serving for study and experimental purposes by the biology students, under the supervision of W. G. Edwards, science instructor.

Watching the reaction of animals when placed on a vitamin or mineral free diet will be one course of action taken after the arrival of the animals. Grafting buds and limbs from one plant to the other will be another experiment observed by the students.

"The students may bring any living thing, keeping in mind that they will be responsible for fixing a place for their plant or animal to stay as well as provide food for their animals," Edwards emphasized.

"What will happen to our plants and animals over the week-ends?" were the

FTA Discusses College Choice

At their February meeting, seven members of the L. S. Inscoe Future Teachers Club had a round table discussion on "Which College Is Best."

Any college having a wide variety of courses suitable to one's vocation and income was decided as a good college.

Material obtained from the special college section in the high school library was displayed.

Miss Idalia Oglesby acted as moderator for the group.

cries of some students. Edwards solved this problem by agreeing to do the feeding and watering over the week-ends.

He further stated that he preferred wild plants and young trees to green house or potted plants.
