

Linda Manning, High Salesman In Contest

Having sold $240.07 worth of magazine subscriptions, Linda Manning was high salesman during the annual magazine sales sponsored by the Curtis Publishing Company.

The sales of the entire junior class amounted to $1,354.78. However, only $485.67 was put into the junior class treasure as their proportional share of the total amount.

A table radio was the prize received by high salesman, Linda. Sandra Stott, second high salesman, received a camera for her prize; and third place winner, Robert Lee, was awarded a microscope.

Certificates of achievement for selling $30 or more were awarded to Donald Bass, Barbara Carroll, Penny Dew, Peggy Eatmon, Marjorie Hinton, Robert Lee, Linda Manning, Linda Stallings, Sandra Stott, Lynda Strickland, Mary Edna Vick, and Janet Weaver.

Miss Edith Farmer's home room received a red velvet monkey as a mascot for being the high room in the contest.

JUNIORS ELECT OFFICERS

Chosen to serve as the junior class officers for the 1958-59 school year are Janet Weaver, president; Linda Manning, vice-president; Barbara Carroll, secretary; and Eddie Joe Pitts, treasurer.

"To the man who himself strives earnestly, God also lends a helping hand" is the motto of the class.

JRS. VISIT DOAK'S COTTAGE

A trip to Mr. Charles Doak's Cottage on Neuse River near Raleigh was the prize awarded the Junior Class for topping the Middlesex Junior Class Magazine sales. Mr. Doak is the Curtis Publishing Company representative to our school.

During May the Juniors will be guests for a Saturday afternoon filled with fun, dancing, swimming, and singing, climaxed with a picnic supper.

Junior class colors are pink and silver.

JUNIORS SELECT CLASS RINGS AND MASCOTS

March 3 was circled as an important date on the junior class calendar. They had an appointment with Lee H. Blackwell, representative for L. G. Balfour Co., to select their class rings.

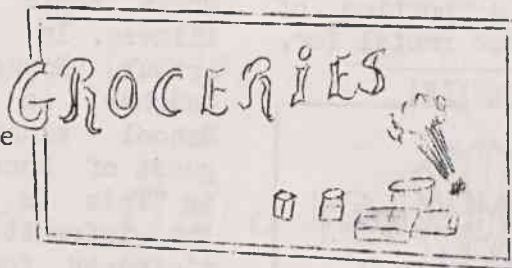

The class selected the standard school ring bearing the green hornet and dogwood seals with a choice of blue or red stones.

Rings will be delivered in September.

Miss Debbie Stallings, sister of Linda Stallings, and Jody Ordess, cousin of Fred Lamm were selected as mascots for the class of 1960.
