

JUNIORS REACH MAGAZINE SALES QUOTA

The Junior Class was very successful in their magazine sale this year. They set their quota at $1600 and sold well over this amount. This contest is sponsored each year by the Curtiss Publishing Company.

Money netted will be used by the class for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

MARY ELIZABETH GLOVER was high salesman with a grand total of $194. She received a $25 sales certificate. Running her a close race was MAXINE LILES, who sold $180 worth of subscriptions. Maxine received as her prize tickets to the Dixie Classics. Third place went to NANCY BRANNON. Nancy also received Dixie Classic tickets.

SALESMANSHIP CERTIFICATES

Many other Juniors received salesmanship awards. For selling $30 or more the following students received salesman certificates:

Mary Elizabeth Glover, Maxine Liles, Nancy Brannon, and Gerald Finch received pins for selling $100 worth of subscriptions.

As a reward for hard work and good salesmanship all students selling over $30 were honored with a barbecue supper at Parkers Barbecue in Wilson.

JUNIORS SELECT MASCOTS AND CLASSRINGS

February 21 was a very important date on the junior class calendar. They met with Mr. Lee Blackwell, representative from L. G. Balfour Company to select their classrings.

The juniors selected the standard Bailey School ring, which bears the green hornet insignia and the North Carolina state seal. They had a choice of the various stones.

Another very important step was taken by the juniors when they selected their mascots. They chose cute little Janet Strickland and handsome young Jeff Harris.

Janet, who is four years old, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Strickland of Middlesex, North Carolina. Jeff, who lives in Williamston, North Carolina, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Harris.

JUNIORS SELL DRINKS

This year, as usual, the juniors were in charge of the concession stand at the ballgames. They sold nabs, peanuts, and homemade candy with the drinks.

W. G. Edwards, co-sponsor, supervised the selling at the games. The money that they made will defray expenses of the JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET.

Those taking part in the selling were Robert Matthews, Johnny Dew, Virginia Perry, Joyce Barnes, Jane Patterson, Marvin Deans, David Winstead, Billy Carroll, Melvie Jean Tant, Ashley Folsom, Esther Williams, Shirley Jordan, and Ann Skinner.

JUNIORS ELECT OFFICERS

Thirty-six students make up the Junior Class. Leading the class as officers are President, MAXINE LILES; Vice-President, MARY ELIZABETH GLOVER; Secretary, NANCY BRANNON; Treasurers, LINDA BRANTLEY and ELIZABETH LAMM; and Historian, LINDA BRANTLEY. Class sponsors are Mr. William B. Widgeon and Mr. William G. Edwards.

The Juniors chose blue and white as their class colors. "Conduct and courtesy lead to honor" was selected as class motto.

Serving as grademothers are Mrs. Jack Finch, Mrs. M. B. Glover, Mrs. Charlie Brannon, Mrs. Kermit Brantley, and Mrs. Mary Privette.

BASEBALL TEAM PICKED

The Bailey baseball team has a 2 and 1 record this year, which is fine this early in the season. Coach Widgeon's team consists mostly of lettermen at each position and he says, "If our pitching staff continues to hold up as well as it has, we should do okay." He also says that although the team is not hitting for a high average, the hits have come when we needed them.

Members of the team are: Russell Lamm, Toney High, James McKeel, R. S. Harrison, Dock Horton, Kenneth Bissette, Donnie Patterson, Grady Haskins, Gerald Boykin, Marvin Deans, Spencer Lewis, Callie Bissette, Danny Eatmon, James Ferrell, John Tuck, Larry Finch, James Deans and Ashley Folsom.
