

B H S CHEERLEADERS NAMED

The roof-raising Bailey High School cheerleaders were led by ANN BROCK who served as chief cheerleader. PHYLLIS MANNING helped to lead the cheerleaders by acting as assistant chief. MARY LIB GLOVER, ABBIE ORMOND, LOIS ANN BAILEY, BRENDA LAMM, HELEN FRANCIS, and CAROLYN HIGH made up the remainder of the bouncing BHS squad.

New Cheerleaders are elected each year by a committee consisting of high school faculty members, ball players, and outstanding students. The cheerleaders are elected on the basis of attractiveness, neatness, personality, and coordination.

These girls sport bright uniforms of green and gold--green sweaters with green and gold pleated skirts. Their uniforms are accented by green and gold tassels made of crepe paper which are used in many of the BHS cheers.

N. C. A. MEMBERS

The BHS cheerleaders are members of the National Cheerleader Association. Through this organization they receive a newsletter, "THE MEGAPHONE," which includes cheers used in all parts of the United States. Very helpful and interesting facts concerning the duties of a good cheerleader are also included in "The Megaphone." Miss Ruth Turnage is their sponsor. The cheerleaders say she is their BIG BOSS. MISS TURNAGE guides her cheerleaders throughout the ball season, giving them helpful suggestions and friendly

"THANKS GRADEMOTHERS"

The seniors will never be able to express in words the closeness that each of us feel to our dear grademothers. Each grademother had made our four years of high school seem a little more enjoyable.

They have entertained us at many dinners and parties during our high school days. Not only do we want to thank them for the entertainment, but also for being so kind and willing to help in any situation that we faced.

We shall always remember MRS. CARL MITCHELL, MRS. ELTON MANNING, MRS. EDWARD COZART, and MRS. EVERETT LAMM as the best grademothers that any class could possibly have.

FRESHMEN FROLICS

We will never forget the time that they gave us our first wiener roast. We went by activity bus to the park in Wilson for the occasion. We were accompanied by the grademothers, MRS. LASSITER, MR. and MRS. WIDGEON, and SUSAN and MARTHA JO BROCK. I'll always remember how we looked as we climbed the monkey bars and persuaded the boys to push us in the swings. After a delicious meal, we boarded the bus, rode up town, and attended a movie.

SOPHOMORE SOCIALS

When we finally became sophomores, our grademothers decided that we were a little too old for such things as wiener roasts and picnics so they entertained us at a SAINT criticism.

The cheerleaders enjoy a night out for dinner each time one has a birthday.

PATRICK'S DAY PARTY and DANCE. This party was held in the school cafeteria. It was quite amazing to see how four women could transform our lunchroom into a ballroom. They must have had a little help from Saint Patrick himself. There was so much food that I think a few students felt themselves turning a little green as the party gradually ended.

On February 13, '60 which was during our junior year our same grademothers entertained us at a barbecue dinner in the dining room of the Spring Hope Grill. Hardly anyone was able to finish the pecan pie that the grademothers so kindly prepared for our dessert. This was a memorable occasion for all of us.

SENIOR SPECIAL

The highlight of our senior year was when we were entertained at a dinner party in the home of Mrs. Ed Cozart on December 15. Much work had to be done for such a festive occasion. Since it was during the Christmas Season, the Cozart home was decorated throughout in the traditional red and green. There was much Christmas spirit as we were seated four to a table for a wonderful meal by soft music and candle light.

After we had eaten, we gathered in the basement for dancing and games.

As we prepare to leave high school and go our separate ways, we will always remember the happy times that only our grademothers could have made possible.
