TANK TALK

A Raleigh High School swimming outfit will seek retaliation of a recent GHS defeat when the two teams splash in the Frank Thompson Gym in Raleigh tomorrow.

According to very close calculation on the part of some swimming enthusiasts, GHS is expected to repeat its victory over the Raleigh swimmers.

The GHS tank team got off to a very commendable start this season as they captured a 46-29 victory over State College's "B" team in the Frank Thompson Gym, February 5.

Three high school marks were flattened by the GHS swimmers. Britt sliced .6 second off the state mark of 1:17.9 in the 100-yard backstroke, Captain Casey bettered the state 100-yard breaststroke by swimming in the time of 1:20.2 minutes as compared to 1:22.8 and the 150-yard medley relay composed of Britt, Captain Casey and Dawson took 4.2 seconds off the present time of 1:42.8.

GHS proved to be the superior in her Raleigh meet, February 13, splashing up a pleasing 45-21 score.

Besides the spectacular performances of the GHS boys, Finch, of Raleigh, moved into the water lights as he clocked a 47-yard dash in 24.6 seconds. If Finch had been in a 50-yard dash he would probably have bettered the state time of 27 seconds for this event.

Ernest Crone, seventh grader and the present state diving champion, has been ranked seventh of his kind in the nation by the All-American Swimming Guide. Having received national recognition Ernest is expected to go much further with his diving talents. Nevertheless, he's GHS' for four more years.

After the Tarboro Tigresses coasted to a 31-18 win over the local girls, the GHS boys won handily 28-20, to give the GHS basketball team an even break in the doubleheader played here February 2.

The GHS Earthquakes suffered a basketball eruption from the Smithfield boys by a score of 43-23, while the Lady Quakes poured hot lava on the Smithfield girls, whipping them 21-13, in the William Street Gymnasium, February 12.

The Lady Quakes of GHS won a thrilling 12-9 victory from the Wilson lassies, while the boys lost a heart breaking 28-25 decision in the William Street Gymnasium, February 9.

The GHS boy basketballers accepted a 27-11 whipping from the Kinston quint, while the GHS lassies were walloped 17-7 on the opponents' court, February 5.

GHS Takes On Kinston In Basket Doubleheader Here at 7:30 Tonight

Both GHS Teams Seek Retaliation of Recent Defeats

The GHS boy basketballers and Lady Quakes will clash with their arch-enemies, the Kinston teams, tonight at 7:30 in the William Street Gymnasium.

The boys will try to avenge a 27-11 defeat handed them by the Kinston quint on the latter's ice-slick floor. The probable starting lineup will be: Pate and Hollowell forwards, Hagan and McDowell guards and Lawrence center.

The local sextet was also whipped in Kinston and they also will be out to get revenge for their 17-7 walloping. The team will be without the services of Rachel Sutton, regular forward, who has recently been ill.

The starting lineup will come from: Forwards—Adams, Shaver, Waters, A. Johnson and N. Johnson. Guards—Edmundson, Wooten, Satterfield, Flowers, Elks, and Slocumb.

The GHS teams will close their season Tuesday night when they mix with the Mount Olive courtsters in Mount Olive.

ROCKY MOUNT OVERWHELMS GHS BOYS TWICE, 24-14, 24-11

Rocky Mount's fast moving Class A court team whipped the GHS quint 24-14 at the William Street Gym February 19, and made it two straight by handing them their second straight loss 24-11 in Rocky Mount February 23.

In the February 19 game, the visitors took an early lead and by a 10 point margin played consistently to win. GHS was without the service of Hagan in this game.

In the February 23 game, Rocky Mount again ruled the court, led by A. Felton who scored six points. Hollowell and McDowell with five each, led Goldsboro. These defeats brought the boys standings to Won 6, Lost 8.

In order to get a 500 per cent for the year, the Quakes must win their last two games.

The GHS basketballers made a nice showing in Tarboro, as the local sextet tied 10-10 and the Quakes eked out an 8-7 win, February 16.

The GHS basketball teams suffered two defeats January 29, as the boys took a 27-11 defeat from Wilson, there, and the Lady Quakes were edged out 16-13 in New Bern.

Oh, These Sportsmen

By RIDLEY WHITAKER

I don't want to deceive you bowling fans, so when you see those big scores up in the bowling alley by Whitaker don't think it's me. It's my brother.

I believe Coach Weil is finally getting into condition. I saw him run around the track about 10 times a few days ago. That's a good sign.

Jabie stars again. He's about the best bowler in the "Alley Cats" league. He is up on the score board as bowling 125, which gives him the title of champion of GHS.

Ah, tennis season is right around the corner, so you would-be stars had better start practice soon. Coach Manaffy says that as soon as the weather settles, practice will start.

Dick Daughtry and Walker Barr are certainly giving each other stiff competition. Barr has been able to nose out Daughtry in the 100-yard dash, but with a little more practice, Dick should be able to run an even closer race.

Speaking of spectators, I don't think I have ever seen any more attentive ones than our own teams when their opposite sex is playing a game. If the girls on the visitors' team are pretty the boys are very attentive, while if the visiting boys are handsome the girls are MOST attentive. In science, unlike forces attract. I guess it applies in this case too.
