Seniors Farewell Gift To GHS To Be Piano

A small, modernistically styled, spinet-type Wurlitzer piano is the farewell gift which the Senior Class will present to the school on Commencement Night.

The Seniors contributed one hundred dollars toward the piano, and Mr. Gaddy paid the balance—$106—from the school's general fund.

For the Seniors to leave a gift to the school is a tradition of many years' standing. Among senior gifts of the past few years are: six chairs for the stage, left by the Class of '37; one hundred dollars as first payment on the school bus...

Four More Days In GHS!

Four more days! Four more days of high school. Sadly roaming around the halls getting ready for the grand finale, '42 Seniors are beginning to realize for the first time what GHS really is.

No more shall we hear the bell dismiss the class and go into the hall discussing yesterday's happenings with our best friends. We'll miss that sea of friendly faces swirling about us, the eternal crowd around the water fountains...

No more shall we have the opportunity to go into the auditorium for one of those ever-surprising assembly programs. The thrill of singing the high school song with the whole student body will be lost to us. And how shall we ever get used to not knowing every member of the athletic teams we cheer?

But what we'll miss most is something that is indescribable. It's in the atmosphere. It might be that smile that somebody—we don't even know his name—gave us coming down the hall the other day. Or maybe it's that close teacher-student feeling...

Four more days of high school pleasures. Then—well, we don't know exactly what then. The only thing that is certain is that our hearts will always hold a place for GHS.

17 Seniors Enact Typical Class Reunion As Main Feature of Class Day, May 22

A class reunion thirteen years after graduation was the scene of the Class Day skit given last Friday morning, when seventeen seniors enacted a typical informal social gathering.

The reunion was held in the office of broker Bob Powell. Through the natural conversation of old classmates, the history was reviewed. Mary Lou Austin, historian, read from the history, when the class members couldn't remember the small things. The classmates laughed at their own silliness after the "Last Will and Testament" was read by the testator, Carolyn Hollingsworth...

Committee Chairmen Approved By Council

Appointing the Board of Elections and the 16 SA standing committee chairmen for 1942-1943 has been one of the first jobs completed by the new SA President George Rivenbark in preparing for next fall's work. The Council approved the Board and the committee chairmen at the last meeting of the Council for the year, May 19.

The Board of Elections is headed by Hilda Liles with Justyne Barbour, Jack Cobb, A. W. Griffin, and Pete McDowell.

The standing committee chairmen are: Ellis Blann, athletic; Billy Robinson, building and grounds; Pauline Jones, bulletin board; Jean Branch, calendar and also SA parliamentarian; Vann Lancaster, cheering; Elizabeth Stanley, free lunch fund; George Futrell, library; Mary Elizabeth Hart, lost and found; Elizabeth Jeffreys, lunch hour; Harriette Lawson, movie; Lyda Winslow, reception; Ralph Bland, social; James Whitley, stage and property; Betty Weil, defense board; Elizabeth Hardison, nominating.

Mrs. W. J. White is adviser to the SA Council.

Juniors Sang Farewell Song

The Juniors sang a farewell song to the Seniors, which was followed by the Seniors singing a special Class Day song, written to the tune of "The Shrine of St. Cecilia", with words by Edwin Lee.

The Seniors were given a half holiday. It has been a custom in GHS for the Seniors to have a class picnic. However this year, due to the shortage of gas and tires, a picnic was not planned. That night the Seniors were the guests of Mr. Rensburg at the Paramount Theatre.

Those taking part in the skit were: Bob Powell, Bob Kemp, Dickie Weatherly, J. D. Pike, Charles O'Steen, Billy Charlton, Gray Whitford, Frank Kannan, Helen Bissette, Lois Smith, Mary Emma

AROUND ABOUT

The Junior Class has bought a one-hundred-dollar bond which will be given to the school to be used as a scholarship fund to aid some worthy GHS graduate to continue his education.

Miss Sara Falkener's fourth period dramatics class gave an assembly program May 13, that included original monologs and a one-act play.

Miss Miriam Koch's home economics classes have made attractive costumes as a part of their comprehensive exam.

Miss Rita Dubois' home economics classes will entertain their parents and teachers at a tea on June 2 in the foods laboratory as a part of their practical exam.

Miss Cora Beam, representing the division of preventive medicine of the State Board of Health in Raleigh, gave an audiometer test to GHS students during the week of May 18-22.
