

Seven Named to Honor Society Here

Tramp Features Class Day Program for Local Graduates

Seven members of the Junior Class were tapped into membership of the Charles E. Aycock chapter of the National Honor Society of Goldsboro High School at an impressive ceremony on Thursday of last week.

Those received into membership were: Davis Byrd, Polly Edgerton, Erlene Griffin, Lillian Overman, Donald Pike, John Thompson, and Marilyn Tolochko. This was the second tapping of the school year, seven Seniors having been received into membership in January.

To be named to the organization one must be in the upper third of his class scholastically, and must display leadership, must be of high character, and must have been of outstanding service in the school. The faculty votes students into membership.

Ruth Caudill read a scroll, giving the qualities and aims of the organizations; and then she called upon Annette Edgerton to represent character; Peggy Ann Robinson, leadership; Jerry Worrell, scholarship and Mary Gray Hollowell, service.

Miss Janie Ipoek, adviser to the group, presented the sealed names to President Martha Winslow of the Society, who in turn gave them to present members who went into the audience in quest of the new members.

Secretary Daron Ward read the minutes of the last meeting, requirements for membership, list of members for the past five tappings. Principal C. W. Twiford administered the pledge of allegiance and Mr. E. L. Roberts of the faculty pronounced the benediction.

Spanish Club Gets Started For Students

Marilyn Tolochko, rising senior, heads a Spanish club formed recently by some of the members of the two first year Spanish classes of GHS.

Officers to serve with Marilyn Tolochko, president, are: Mary Olive Grady, vice president; Jane Parker, secretary; Archie Hamill, treasurer. Chairmen of several committees have also been named, and they are: Janie Bartlette and Lillian Overman, program committee; Eleanor Brown and Erlene Griffin, social activities committee; Fred Tyndall, advertising committee; Eloise Balkum and Polly Edgerton, music committee; Eunice Bizzell, special studies committee.

The purpose of the club is to promote a greater interest in the Spanish language, and to understand more fully the customs of the Spanish-speaking countries.

Although officers have been elected and a constitution drawn up, the organization will not begin functioning until the next school year.

103 Seniors Get Diplomas Tonight

Tonight, 103 members of the Senior Class will receive their diplomas. They are as follows: Wallace Allen, David Anderson, Robert Andrews, Oscar Bagley, Jackie Barfield, Donald Barnes, Sarah Sue Bartlette, Dan Bernstein, Gertrude Blow, Joyce Boykin, John Braswell, Catherine Bridgers, Jane Brown, Rufus Brown, E. B. Butts, Ruth Caudill, Ned Champion, Eunice Coley, Annie Ruth Crumpler, Edna Davis, Gordon Davis, John Davis, Paula Davis, William Roy Davis, Jr., John Duke.

Paul Edmundson, Charles Ellis, Jim Evans, George Farfour, Hazel Fields, John Fields, Mary Elizabeth Fisher, Leonard Fulghum, Barbara

Gainey, Jarvis Garris, Frank Gates, Jayne Grant, Edwina Hallman, Sally Hood, Maurice Hamm, Johnnie Hinton, Sally Hood, Herbert Howell, William Smith Howell, Jack Hauser, Joyce James, Mary Ann Jeffreys, Irene Jeffreys, Dora Lee Jinnette, Constance Johnson, R. W. Jordan, Marilyn Johnson, Margaret Jones, Graham Justice, Donald King, Elizabeth Ann Kornegay, Curtis Lancaster, Ida Lewis Langston, Carolyn Lassiter, Claudine Lewis, Frank Lisenby, Bobby Malpass, Donald Meyers, Virginia McFarland, Sadie McCarter, Bett McLawhorn, Clifton Noble, Jewel Orton, Easter Rose Parker, Mary Frances Paschall, Adolph Peggy Ann Pierce, Mildred Pitt-Pate, Marjorie Pate, Sarah Jane Pate, Lois Pearce, Margie Perry, man, Lincord Plyer, Nance Potts, Chesley Price. Russell Radford, Elwood Reeves, Edward Reeves, John Renn, Leah Lloyd Rigsbee, Catherine Robinson, Ruth Rosser. Eva Mae Sauls, Gaynelle Sauls, Mamie Ruth Savage, Julia Scott, Jane Shaver, Susan Smith, William Earl Smith, Dorothy Spears, Durwood Stafford, F. W. Stanley. Daron Ward, Reba Wester, Shirley White, Jean Wiggins, Charles Wiggins, Frances Wiggs, Martha Winslow, Harold Worrell.

New Officers of Student Association

Pictured above are the SA officers for the next year at GHS. Left to right they are: Janie Bartlette, corresponding secretary; Billy Winslow, treasurer; Lillian Overman, recording secretary; Donald Pike, president; Polly Edgerton, vice-president, and Herman Vinson, head cheerleader.

New SA Officers Planning for Work

New Officers Take Oaths In Assembly

New SA officers were administered the oath of office in a recent assembly.

The outgoing officers made speeches thanking the student body for their cooperation during the past year, and the incoming officers made talks accepting their responsibility.

Bobby Malpass, outgoing head cheerleader, handed his letter over to Herman Vinson, the incoming head cheerleader. John Thompson turned his treasury books over to Billy Winslow. Susan Smith presented her books to Lillian Overman, new recording secretary. Jayne Grant gave her books to Janie Bartlette, corresponding secretary.

Carlton Fredericks made a welcoming talk to Polly Edgerton, incoming vice president. Herbert Howell made a farewell speech to the students and wished them luck with the SA for the coming year. Donald Pike, the new president, told the students he would try to make the SA grow.

Seniors Enjoy Picnic Outing

The annual senior picnic was held on May 28th at Camp Tuscarora.

The picnic was held following the Class Day Exercises. Almost all the senior class attended this outing. The class was transported out to Camp Tuscarora by individual cars and the school bus. Barbecue and carbonated drinks were served.

Elizabeth Ann Kornegay and Leonard Fulghum were in charge of the senior picnic.

Donald Pike, rising Senior, automatically elected SA President during the recent election. Janie Bartlette was also automatically elected to the office of corresponding secretary, and Billy Winslow, treasurer. Lillian Overman defeated Evelyn Barbee for the office of recording secretary; Eunice Bizzell, candidate for head cheerleader, was defeated by Herman Vinson.

No revote was required since no more than two people were running for the same office.

The Board of Elections headed by Leah Lloyd Rigsbee, and composed of Marilyn Tolochko, Laura Lynch, Bryan Sutton, Martha Ann Rose, and Jimmy Ellis, was in charge of the elections. Miss Carolyn Langston and Miss Ruby Rosser are advisors to the committee.

Students Make Paper Tour

Sixteen members of the Journalism class and two other students recently made a trip to Zebulon, Wake Forest, and Raleigh.

The purpose of the trip was to enable the students to see the printers of the Hi News at work at their shop in Zebulon.

After leaving Zebulon, the students journeyed to Wake Forest, and toured the campus there. Then they went to Raleigh and were taken on a complete tour through the News and Observer plant and offices.

The students who went on the trip were: Edna Davis, Charles Ellis, Pinky Gainey, Herbert Howell, Connie Johnson, Donald King, Margie Perry, Nance Potts, Albert Pate, Leah Lloyd Rigsbee, Jane Shaver, Susan Smith, William Smith, F. W. Stanley, Marilyn Tolochko, Billy Winslow, and Martha Winslow.

Mr. E. L. Roberts, advisor to the Hi News, accompanied the group and drove the school bus.

Varsity Sweetheart Is Named

Ida Lewis Langston has been named as the 1947 Varsity Club Sweetheart.

Announcement of her selection was made between the scenes of the last act of "The Visitor" on May 24.

Ida Lewis went immediately to the lobby where she was escorted to the stage by two members of the Varsity Club, William Smith and Adolph Pate.

Clifton Noble, Varsity Club president, read the section of the Varsity Club constitution which gives the qualifications for Sweetheart. He then presented Ida Lewis with the blue and white regalia bearing the words "Varsity Sweetheart," and declared her the 1947 Varsity Club Sweetheart.

The Sweetheart reigns over the Varsity Dance and all other athletic events.

The qualifications are: She must be a Senior; she must possess beauty, poise, personality, and intelligence.

Varsity Sweethearts in the past have been: Sally Lee, '44; Marnie Cheever, '45; Gaynelle Sauls, '46; and Ida Lewis Langston, '47.

Subfreshman Week Held

Subfreshman Week in GHS was observed the week of April 28-May 2.

On Monday the eighth graders visited the high school and made an extensive tour of the building and grounds.

Tuesday morning SA Council was held on the William St. School stage with the sub-freshmen as an audience.

The glee club gave a program for the sub-freshmen on Wednesday and on Thursday student leaders gave talks about the various clubs and organizations in high school. A test on the handbook ended the week's activities on Friday.

Sub-freshman Week is an annual affair sponsored by the SA reception committee. The purpose of the week is to better acquaint sub-freshmen with high school life. Catherine Robinson is chairman of the committee.

Junior-Senior Dance Is Gala Event

At the annual Junior-Senior dance held Friday evening, May 9, the gym was decorated as a plantation home, with moss hanging from the top of the building, ivy and roses covering the walls, and two dogwood trees in front of the home.

Opening the reception was a program covering the period of time from pioneer days to the present. Music from each of the periods was sung by a group of boys, and "Kipling's Recessional" brought the program to an end.

Those in the program having speaking parts were Davis Byrd, Erlene Griffin, Leslie Britt, Eunice Bizzell, Anna Frank Strosnider, and Archie Hamill. Harvey Barwick and Lillian Pate sang a duet, and a number of sophomore and freshman students participated in the pantomime.

Refreshments were served after the program. Then a figure was formed by the officers of the junior and senior classes, the chairmen of the junior-senior committees, and their dates. Students in the figure were: Jack Hauser, senior class president, and Ida Lewis Langston; Gaynelle Sauls, senior vice-president, and Ned Champion; Gerty Blow, senior secretary, and Harvey Barwick; Jewel Orton, senior cheerleader, and Gerald Massengill; Charlie Wiggs, senior cheerleader, and Jewel Orton; Miller Eason, junior class president, and Erlene Griffin, junior vice-president; Ruth Edgerton, junior secretary, and William Smith treasurer, and Billy Howell; Peggy Littleton, junior cheerleader, and Carlton Frederick; Paul Savage, junior cheerleader, and Jo Jackson; Barbara Hood, chairman of Junior-Senior dance committee, and Joe Bazemore; Charlie Crone, chairman of Junior-Senior decoration committee, and Mary Olive Grady; Lillian Overman, chairman of Junior-Senior refreshment committee, and Chubby Bridgers; Eunice Bizzell, chairman of Junior Week, and Leslie Britt.

Howell; Polly Edgerton, junior

The Junior-Senior was a card dance, with every third dance a break dance.

A receiving line composed of the officers of the two classes and their dates greeted the guests as they entered the dance.

The dance was held at the William Street School gymnasium.

Byrd, Caudill, Roberts Head Upper Classes

Seniors In Royal Essay Contest

Members of the senior class have recently finished their informal essays which are entered in the contest for the Royal Essay Award. The winner will be announced tonight.

The topic was "A Glimpse Into the Future." The essays were not to exceed two thousand words.

The Royal Essay prize of ten dollars has been given for years by G. C. Royal to the senior boy or girl, who in the opinion of the selected local judges, writes the best informal essay.

The purpose of the award is to stimulate creative writing among seniors, and the writing of these essays has become a definite part of Senior English work.

Rev. Bradshaw Preaches the Finals Sermon

Rev. Robert W. Bradshaw, Pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, of Greenville, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates on Sunday evening in the high school auditorium.

"Unnecessary Things in Life" was Mr. Bradshaw's theme. Following the usual custom, most Goldsboro churches suspended their regular evening services so their members could attend the exercises.

At the graduation exercises tonight 108 students will receive diplomas.

"Let Peace Reign" is the topic of the allegory to be presented by the seniors in the graduation finals. Chairman of the school board W. A. Dees will present diplomas and Hugh Waldrop, member of the school board, will make awards for scholarship.

Davis Byrd, Howard Caudill and Gene Roberts, Jr., were elected to lead the rising senior, junior, and sophomore classes, respectively, in the recent class elections.

Serving the senior class as officers next year will be: Davis Byrd, president; Eleanor Brown, vice president; Evelyn Barbee, secretary; Billy Howell, treasurer; and Louise York and Bill Taylor, cheerleaders.

Howard Caudill, president; Jerry Sandford, vice president; Bennette Daughtry, secretary; Kenneth Fulghum, treasurer and Bessie Culbreth and Max Epstein, cheerleaders, are the officers of the rising junior class.

Leading the sophomores will be: Gene Roberts, Jr., president; Kenneth Allen, vice president; Alline Robbins, secretary; Bud Wallace, treasurer; and Julia Manly and Jimmy Thomas, cheerleaders.

The schedule for the elections was as follows: Monday, May 5, through Friday, May 9, nominations by petitions; Monday, May 12, and Tuesday, May 13, registration; Thursday, May 15, campaign speeches; and Friday, May 16, vote. Revotes were held the following week.

Those running for office were: rising seniors: president Davis Byrd, Erlene Griffin, John Thompson and D. J. Rose; vice president, Mary Olive Grady, William Heeden and Eleanor Brown; secretary, Evelyn Barbee and Joyce Dowlin; treasurer, Billy Howell, Marilyn Tolochko, Betty Bedford, and Martha Neely; Cheerleader, (girl) Louise York, Bo Kannon, Mimi Weil, and Carolyn Lancaster. Bill Taylor was automatically elected as the boy cheerleader since he had no opposition; rising juniors: president, Rudolph Alexander, Dick Griswold, Ruby Forehand, Howard Caudill; vice president, Jerry Sandford, automatically elected due to no opposition; secretary, Dana James Gulley and Bennette Daughtry; treasurer, Alice Wiggins and Kenneth Fulghum; cheerleader, (girl), Bessie Culbreth, Doreen Denise, Helen Lupton, and Margie Wilson, (boy), Max Epstein and Jack Rose; rising sophomores: president, Doris Ann Hall, Florence Bowden, Marie Savage, and Gene Roberts, Jr.; vice president, Edward Mitchell and Kenneth Allen; secretary, Janice Whaley and Alline Rollins; treasurer, Bud Wallace, Minnie Ruth Forehand, and Betty Barbee; cheerleader, (girl) Martha Ann Rose, Janet Cooke, Julia Manly, Jane Bostic, and Ann Hood, (boy) Bobby Darden, Elton Warrick, and Jimmy Thomas.

The Board of Elections handled (Continued on Page 6)

Graduates Give Bench

A maple bench for the office will be the class of '47's gift to the high school. A committee headed by Ida Lewis Langston and composed of Paul Edmundson, Bobby Malpass, Ruth Caudill, and Elizabeth Ann Kornegay made the choice of the gift which was recent class meeting.