Clifton Britton Makes Address At Chapel Hill

This year Mr. Clifton J. Britton, head of the radio arts, spoke at the annual state directors meeting in Chapel Hill on October 18th.

He talked on the subject "The Value of Regional Drama Festivals."

Other speakers on the program included Miss Grace Robbins of Wilmington, Mr. Cy Edson of Rocky Mount and Miss Elizabeth Welch, of Salem College, Winston-Salem.

This is the second time in the past three years that Mr. Britton has been invited to speak at the directors' meeting. The first time he was on the program with Betty Smith, author of "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," and the late A. T. West, director of the Duke Players at Duke University.

What Would You Do With an OKAPI?

By Bill Taylor

What would you do with an OKAPI, was a question asked a number of GHS students. Here are the answers.

Eleanor Brown—I'd eat it.
Tootsie Crocker—Get rid of it.
John Thompson—Throw it in the fire.

Ed Strickland—I ain't saying.
Mary Ann Ward—Give it to D. J.

D. C. Rouse—Cook it some more.

Henry Modlin—Live in it.
Fred Tyndall—I'd sell it.

Jimmy Thomas—I'd sit on it.
Metz Bizzell—Kill it.

Henry Edwards—Carry it home and feed it to my dog.

Mr. Twiford—Ask Rev. Thatcher to work it for me.

Eunice Bizell—Give it to Erline.
An Okapi is in the family of the giraffe.

Disc Hits

by Lou York

Now for some of the latest records, and some that aren't so new.

All of you love-sick people take note: Vaughan Monroe has made a beautiful recording of "You Do." (Remember, the song Betty Grable made popular in her latest picture, "Mother Wore Tights.")

If you like the nice, dreamy sort of song, listen to "And the Angels Sing," by Ziggy Elman. I'm sure you'll like it.

Some of the older tunes that are coming back on the hit parade are, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," by Ray Noble, "Deep Purple," by Larry Clinton, and "There'll Be Some Changes Made," by Peggy Lee.

Another record that I'm sure you'll be crazy about is "You're Breaking In a New Heart," sung by the Murphy Sisters.

For the hep cats of GHS here are some songs dedicated to you. "Sho' Had a Wonderful Time Last Night" and "Arabian Boogie," and don't forget "Snatch It, and Grab It."

That's about all there is for this time, song lovers, but I'll see ya' next month!

School Lunches Get Potatoes

More than 9,000 bushels of North Carolina-grown sweet potatoes, purchased by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under its mandatory price-supporting program, are being distributed to school lunchrooms and welfare institutions within the State, Jay P. Davis, of the State Department of Agriculture, has reported.

Davis said that the potatoes were being purchased in the Currituck-Camden area and that 19 and one-half carloads had been distributed to points within the State. He said the State Department of Agriculture has requested eight additional carloads, which probably will be shipped within the next few days.

He said a large part of the sweet potatoes already distributed to lunchrooms and institutions will be sorted for use in the next few weeks, and urged lunchroom sponsors and institutional officials to plan the canning of part of their allocations for later use, wherever food preservation facilities are available, as the type of potato being purchased is not adapted to storage.
