

Goldsboro Hi News

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Volume XXI

Goldsboro, N. C., Friday, June 4, 1948.

Number 8

Commencement Plans Include An Allegory

Twelve Students Nominated For Quill And Scroll

Twelve students have been recommended for membership in the Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for high school journalists.

Those recommended from the HI NEWS staff were: Christine Byrd, assistant advertising manager; Dana James Gulley, co-exchange editor; Ed Strickland, co-sports editor; John Thompson, business manager; Billy Winslow, advertising manager; Mary Ann Ward, co-Hi Lights editor. Mary Ann was also recommended by the advisors of the annual.

Those recommended from the annual staff were Erlene Griffin, editor-in-chief; Polly Edgerton, class editor; Eunice Bizzell, senior assistant; Davis Byrd, business manager; Janie Bartlette, co-advertising manager; Anna Frank Strosnider, co-advertising manager.

HI NEWS editor Marilyn Tolochko is already a member of the society, having been selected last year.

Requirements for membership in the society are: (1) candidates may be elected from newspaper, yearbook, magazine or handbook staffs; (2) they must be a junior, senior, or post-graduate; (3) they must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing at the time of their election; (4) they must have done superior work in writing, editing, or business management; (5) they must be recommended by the school principal or publication advisor; (6) they must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the society.

Acker Is Named President Of DE

Charles Acker was elected president of the Distributive Education Club of North Carolina for the coming year at the state meeting held at Greensboro recently.

The DE Club has had an outstanding year. Shortly after Christmas preparations were made to give a skit entitled "North Carolina Speaks" at the national convention in St. Louis. The skit was also given at the state convention and later to the students of Goldsboro High School.

Miss Frances Bayne, advisor and originator of the DE club, has helped the students to make it what it is today. They will strive throughout the coming years to continue to make the DE Club of GHS a club to be proud of.

La Nelle Edwards Leads French Club

La Nelle Edwards has been elected to head the French Club of GHS, Le Cercle Francais, for the year 48-49.

Those who will serve with her

The commencement program for GHS will be held Friday night, June 11, in the high school auditorium. An allegory will be featured.

The processional will open the program, and will be followed by an invocation by Rabbi J. G. Tolochko of Kinston. The high school band will render three songs, after which the Goldmasquers will present "The Summons of Sarel." The glee club will then sing two songs.

Mr. Arnold B. Edgerton will be in charge of the presentation of awards. The awards will be in this order: Goldmasquers' awards of merit, Royall Essay prize, Quill and Scroll, Policemen's Citizenship prize, Borden Scholarship, Weil's scholastic prize.

Dr. D. J. Rose will present the diplomas.

Davis Byrd, president of the senior class, will present the senior gift. The seniors will sing their class song, after which Dr. William Howard Carter of the Tabernacle Church will pronounce the benediction.

Participating in the allegory given by the Goldmasquers are: Joyce Dowlin, the Clay; Polly Edgerton, the Spirit; Mary Olive Grady, the Graduate; Anna Frank Strosnider, Sarel, the Angel of Death; Marilyn Tolochko, the Suicide; Janie Bartlette, the Old, Old Woman; Evelyn Barbee, the Young Mother; Ruth Edgerton, the Guardian Angel; George Langston, the Blind Child. It is directed by Mr. Clifton Britton.

Paschall Wins Home Ec. Prize

Betty Lou Paschall was awarded first prize of $7.50 in the recent fashion review by the home economics department.

Other prize winners were: Joyce Carter, second prize of $5.00; Nona Gray Best, third prize of $3.50; Joy Creech, fourth prize of $3.00; and Bobby Jean Thompson, fifth prize of $2.00.

Other students participating in the review were Nan Barnes, Virginia Bedford, Marilyn Best, Sarah Brown, Jane Buie, Julia May Cotton, Ruth Davis, Anna Bell Grantham, Lina Haddock, Lillian Haynes, Frances Hollowell, Jean Klutz, Coletta Lahr, Louise Odom, Irene Stroud, Eleanor Norris, Anne Acker, Betty Lou Adams, Gladys Costin, Gloria Howell, Jackie DuBois, Annie Clara Savage, Sara Thompson, Hilda Toler, Veryl Trueblood, Mary Lou Cogdell, Frances Fulghum, Mildred Radford, Catherine Strickland, Mary Sykes, Margaret Weigand, Virginia Carter, Jean Daughtry, Jean Lashley, and Thelma Norris.

The girls modeled street length dresses and blouses and skirts.

Judges were Mrs. Edward Bizzell, former home demonstration agent; and Miss Ann Johnson, home demonstration agent.

are: first vice-president, Carolyn Loftin; second vice-president, Mike Pate; secretary, Shirley Haynes, and treasurer, Marion Goodwin.

All of them were unanimously elected.

Senior Class Officers

Above are the senior class officers for 1948-49. Front row, Bill Elliott, president; and Betty Hollowell, secretary; second row, Anne Lee and Greene Hollowell, cheerleaders; top row, Kenneth Fulghum, vice president; and Jimmy Purser, treasurer.

Elliot, Borden, Houser And Norwood Elected Class Heads

Varsity Club Dance Draws A Large Crowd

Members of the GHS Varsity Club held their annual dance in the William Street Gymnasium on Saturday night, May 29.

At this event Anna Frank Strosnider, the Varsity Sweetheart, was crowned.

The gym was decorated with crepe paper streamers with a large revolving ball in the middle. At one end of the gymnasium a picture of a football player was projected.

Participating in the figure were: Erlene Griffin and Miller Eason, La Verne Tew and Myron Ennis, Marjorie Wilson and Sam Lynch, Yvonne Schweistris and John Thompson, Dorothy Crawford and Bob Klutz, Eleanor Brown and Ed Bass, Laura Lynch and Lovelace Bell, Doreen Denise and Bennie Bennett, Virginia Brogden and Doster Brock, Marilyn Tolochko and Charles Crone, Joyce Bagley and John Culloty, Frances Malpass and Jimmy Ellis, Sybil Parrish and Bobby Frederick, Josephine Jackson and Carlton Frederick, Patsy Donnell and Dick Griswold, Evelyn Barbee and Archie Hamil, Elizabeth Smith and William Heeden, Janet Cook and David Johnson, Eunice Bizzell and Bobby McLamb, Jerry Worrell and W. D. McRoy, Anna Lee Pennington and Troy Pate, Jane Parker and Donald Pike, Shirley Wiggins and Hugh Pope, Betty Beacham and Tom Price, Sara Hunt and K. D. Pyatt, La Nelle Edwards and D. C. Rouse, Mimi Weil and Billy Ruffin, Betty Warrick and Howard Sasser, Joyce Best and J. D. Sasser, Faye Branch and Elbert Sills, Anne Smith and Hugh Shine, Lillian Pate and Billy Thompson, Arden Newbould and Fred Tyndall, Betty Bedford and Herman Vinson, Barbara Russell and Bud Wallace, Ruth Forehand

Bill Elliott, senior; Jack Borden, junior; Jack Houser, sophomore; and Charles Norwood, freshman, have been elected to lead the four classes in GHS next year.

Those serving with them will be: Senior class: vice-president, Kenneth Fulghum; secretary, Betty Hollowell; treasurer, Jimmy Purser; cheerleaders, Anne Lee and Greene Hollowell.

Junior class: vice-president, Barbara Anderson; secretary, Peggy Pittman; treasurer, Jimmy Shumate; cheerleaders, Barbara Harrell and Walter Culbreth.

Sophomore class: vice-president, June Handley; secretary, Edith Long; treasurer, Annie Clara Savage; and cheerleaders, Sara Thompson and David Gainey.

Freshman class: vice-president, Jessine Hart; secretary, Barbara Pittman; treasurer, Betty Daugherty; cheerleaders, Nancy Bridgers and Willard Carlisle.

The candidates for the various offices on the first ballot were as follows. The first named were nominated by the nominating committee; the others, by petitions.

Seniors

Senior class—president: Bill Elliott, Isaac Braxton, Lewis Bryan, and Patsy Donnell; vice-president, Shirley Haynes, Kenneth Fulghum, Mike Pate, and Reginald Griffin; secretary, Betty Hollowell, Dorothy Crawford and Mary Rachel Johnson; treasurer, Jimmy Purser (automatically elected); girl cheerleader, Jerry Worrell, Kitty Keller, Anne Lee, and Emma Jean Williams; boy cheerleader, Alvin Joyner and Greene Hollowell.

Juniors

Junior class—president: Jack Borden and Eddie Mitchell; vice-president: Elton Warrick, Barbara (See OFFICERS on Page 6)

and Elton Warrick, Barbara Anderson and Kenneth Waters, Evelyn Brown and Billy Webb, Peggy Jones and Jack Wilson, Anne Lee and Billy Winslow, Anna Frank Strosnider, Varsity Sweetheart, and Charlie Westbrook.

Borden Family Establishes A Scholarship

The children of the late Frank K. Borden have set up the Borden Memorial Scholarship Fund in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Borden.

The amount of the scholarship is not stated as the sum may vary from year to year, due to the fact that the income for the scholarship is derived from investments.

This year the scholarship will come to someone at GHS. Although the scholarship is to be permanent, no announcement has been made as to the schools to be included in the future.

This fund is to open the way for some girl or boy who desires to continue his education and are unable to do so because of lack of money.

The first winner will be selected from this year's senior class.

Class Day Held In GHS All Day

Class Day is being observed in Goldsboro High School today.

The seniors are in charge of the activities.

An allegiance program, which the four classes are participating in, will be held this morning. This new type of program is taking the place of the usual Class Day exercises in the auditorium. Everyone will wear white for these exercises.

After the allegiance program, a picnic is planned at Camp Tuscarora for all seniors. Everyone is bringing a box lunch, and drinks are being furnished by the class.

The class day program will be concluded by the entire class attending a movie as the guests of the Paramount Theatre.

Ruth Forehand Is FHA Official

Ruth Forehand was named county reporter of the FHA at the county executive board meeting at Brogden.

Five members and the advisor of the Future Homemakers of America Club of Goldsboro attended the meeting. They were Joyce Bagley, Peggy Ann Britt, Ruth Forehand, Frances Fulghum, Bobby Jean Thompson, and Mrs. Ruth Shine.

The county rally of the FHA was held at the Cliffs Friday, May 21. It was a picnic supper. A number of Goldsboro girls attended the meeting.

Freshman Class Crowns Royalty

Nancy Hamil and Ed Bass were crowned Queen and King of the freshman class at their recent social.

The social was held in the William Street Gymnasium, and was attended by about seventy-five members of the class A floor show in the form of a radio program was given.

Refreshments consisted of punch, cookies, and sandwiches.