

AS WE WUZ

The students pictured in the last issue of the paper were Jimmy Shumate and Sonny Gainey.

As this is the last Hi News of the year, we'll have to tell you who the pictured students are—Donald Pike and Evelyn Barbee.

N. C. Symphony Orchestra Is Heard In City

The North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Benjamin Swalin, presented a concert in the GHS auditorium recently.

The program included: Overture to "The Thievish Maggie" written by Rossini; Symphony No. VII in A Major, Opus 92 by Beethoven; Fantasy on "Greensleeves" by Williams; Scherzo, from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Strauss; "Hoe-Down," from the ballet Rodeo by Copland; Two Dances from the ballet, Gayne by Khachaturian. The encore was "Begin the Beguine" by Cole Porter.

pital, introduced her to the assembly.

Mrs. Harrell said, "I chose nursing as a career because I like people and like to be around them and help them." A student nurse has duties in the operating room, children's ward, maternity ward, and other branches of the hospital. Nursing is a challenging profession. Upon graduation from the school of nursing a position is easily secured. There is a great shortage of nurses. One thousand more nurses are needed in September for North Carolina nursing schools.

The counselor of N. C. School of Nursing, Miss Helen E. Peeler, told of the opportunities the nursing profession offers to girls and boys.

Polly Edgerton, vice president of the SA, was in charge of the assembly.

Seniors.

The question: What will you say when you walk across the stage and receive your diploma?

The Inquiring Reporter—"It's been a long, long time!"

Charles Acker—"The time has come."

Joe Bazemore—"A-men."

Charles Westbrook—"This is it!"

Marilyn Tolochko—"Thank you."

Jo Ann Flowers—"It's about time."

Miller Eason—"It was a long struggle, but I finally made it."

Christine Byrd—"Ah—At last!"

"Lou" York—"Hallelujah!!"
