

ONE MORE WEEK!

Only one more week of school! Only one more week till vacation really starts. Only one more week till a lot of us head for the beaches or mountains or camps.

Of course everyone is eager for a vacation, but as we think back over the year, we realize it's been a good year. We've not only accomplished a lot and brought recognition to the school, but we've had a lot of fun, too.

The seniors, perhaps, are thinking back more thoughtfully over the year, because this time they won't be returning at the end of the summer. This time they'll start college or jobs. So, for the seniors especially, we'd like to say just how grand a year it has been. We'll miss being back with you, but in our hearts the class of '48 will always be with you!

-M. T.

SUMMER IS TIME FOR....

You know how it is. All year you plan to "get something done," but you never seem to have enough time during the week-ends and nobody likes to catch up on things during Christmas or Thanksgiving vacations. Result: you keep putting it off.

Summer vacation is a wonderful time to catch up on everything and get in a lot extra if you use your time right. For instance, you have a lot of letters to write, your desk could use a general cleaning out, there are a million and one things you have been putting off. Summer is the time to do them.

Summer is a good time to think about your vocational choice for the future. If you have already decided, well and good. Then the thing to do is to study and get all the experience you can along that line. Some students get summer jobs—to either gain experience in the field they plan to enter, or just general experience in working. You can make your summer vacation pay.

-D. P.

CONGRATULATIONS BAND!

No doubt you have heard of the new Zenith Cobra tone arm that has been placed in the WGBR studio for clearer hearing enjoyment. If you have tuned in lately, you

Goldsboro Hi News

Published eight times a year by the journalism class of Goldsboro High School, Goldsboro, N. C., Members of the International Quill and Scroll Society and Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Volume XXI

Number 6

EDITORIAL STAFF

- Editor - Marilyn Tolochko
Sports editors - Ed Strickland and Gene Roberts, Jr.
Feature editors - Henry Edwards and Lou York
Exchange editors - Dana James Gulley and Betty Barbee
Alumni editors - Bill Taylor and Virginia Keen
Hi Lights editors - Mary Ann Ward and Barbara Russell
Photographer - Albert Pate
Reporters - Gene Anderson, Graham Best, Doris Page, Faye Parnell, James Rountree

BUSINESS STAFF

- Business manager - John Thompson
Circulation managers - Ruth Forehand and Elton Warrick
Advertising manager - Bill Winslow
Assistant advertising managers - Howard Caudill and Christine Byrd
Manager Hi News shop - Ed Strickland
Adviser - Eugene L. Roberts

Entered as second-class matter October 26, 1931, at the postoffice at Goldsboro, N. C., under the act of March 3, 1879.

couldn't help but know.

Well, you know that Goldsboro High School now has an excellent swing band under the direction of Mr. John Thompson.

Members of the band have worked hard to become the best, and another step has been taken. They have recently purchased a Stromberg-Carlson Public Address System. It was secured from the proceeds of the minstrel which was given recently. The system was used for the first time at the Junior-Senior and the Varsity Dance and it proved successful.

Mr. Thompson and the members of the swing band are to be congratulated for their rapid improvement and we feel sure that they will continue to make progress until they are on top.

-H. C.

Sally's Ears

Unfortunately, this column will have gone to press before the Varsity Dance, but I have not forgotten the Junior-Senior. I've heard that at several different places there was excitement. About twenty people went out to Camp Tuscarora; Woodland Lake had a crowd; D. J. Rose had a group at his pond; and I even heard some say they went to Dudley Beach. Everyone said he had fun that night.

Say, remember when Kenneth F. was dating Ann H. ever so often? Well, it's leaked out that way back there Kenneth gave Ann his ring. The other day she returned the ring and now I'll give you one guess who has it. Yep! Libby Lou is in there and I don't blame her; after all, there aren't many girls who wouldn't want to go with K. F., so I've heard.

Carolyn M., aren't you kinda falling for Sonny G.? What's happened to Greene? Oh well, guess it's your problem, but may I say, you look mighty cute with either boy as well as alone. Pardon me!

"He's Too Fat For Me!" Is that what I heard Lib S. say? You did have fun, didn't you, Lib? (You and Little Willie).

Ashton G. seems to be losing his fond feeling for Emma Jean, or I've missed my guess. Aren't I a "devil," Ashton? So Sorry.

Pete J. seems to have formed an affection for Ruth S. I think you two would make a fine couple, but at the present I believe things are one-sided. Maybe the summer will show more light.

Charles D. is still holding his own. By that I mean, he makes everyone believe he likes one girl and he really likes another. Anyway, he and Ethel P. sure are seen together a lot. Who will it be next??

Well, Herman V. has gone crazy over Betty B., they tell me. And to look at the other side of the old affair, I hear that Sam L. and Marjorie W. are pitching a little woo. What was that, "Choo-Choo, Jr."?

I hate to stop, but the paper's small and room is limited, so—

I've really enjoyed slinging your dirt, And I'm terribly sorry if it was you that I hurt,

So now with my ears all battered and blue,

I give you my final and cordial, "Adieu." -Henry Edwards

THIS ONE STOPPED HIM

A certain inspector, noted for his fault-finding propensities, was inspecting a newly completed portion of a trans-continental highway. He grumbled at everything. The crown was not high enough, the shoulder too steep, the ditches not deep enough, and so on. The foreman bore it all patiently. Then he straightened up to his full height, and looking the inspector in the eye, asked: How is she for length?

-The Keen Keener, Demotte, Ind.

CLASS DISMISSED!

Prof: You boys of today want too much money. Why, do you know what I was getting when I got married?

Voice from rear: No, and I'll bet you didn't either. -Yellow Jacket

WE HONOR

Mary Ann Ward

Fred Tyndall

That quiet, hard-working senior, whose mannerisms have earned her the nickname of "Angel," is Mary Ann Ward, our girl honoree for this issue.

Mary Ann was born in Goldsboro on December 8, 1930.

She started her extra-curricular activities early, when she served as vice president of the freshman class and homeroom president her first year in high school. The next year she was SA Council representative for her room.

As a junior, Mary Ann served as a member of the Junior-Senior refreshment committee, was a member of the Goldmasquers and accordingly worked on lighting for "Our Town" and "Bethlehem Road," and had a walk-on part in "Heaven Can Wait." This year she has continued her good work by being a marshal, a member of the board of elections, assistant editor of the GOHISCA, Hi Lights editor of the HI NEWS, and being tapped into the National Honor Society. She also worked on properties for the senior play, "The Land Is Bright."

Along the lighter side of things, Mary Ann has her favorites, too. Her favorite food is ice cream (did we say food?), and her favorite song, "Those Wedding Bells Are Breaking Up That Old Gang of Mine." She also likes the color blue.

In the fall, Mary Ann plans to attend Woman's College and major in home economics. Here's hoping her college career will be as successful as her high school one has been!

BIRTHDAYS

Well, this is the last time you'll see this column this year. Happy birthday to those of you born during this vacation month.

- Phyllis Thayer 1
Cecil Brown 2
Frank Lane 2
Lewis Jarmon 3
Susie Coward 3
Libby Lou Stuart 5
Ed Vinson 5
Adell Grice 6
Alvin Joyner 6
Billy Millard 6
Jimmy Longest 7
Hilda Westbrook 9
Becky James 10
Sam Roberts 10
Alice Wiggins 10
Bill Wooten 10
D. C. Rouse 12
Jack Scott 12
Jo Ann Flowers 13
John Kleinert 15
Charles Brown 16

Fred Arthur Tyndall was born March 15, 1930 in Roxboro, N. C. After living in several different towns, he moved to Goldsboro when he was three years old.

Fred has been very active in high school work and activities. As a sophomore he took part in the annual Easter program. The next year he was on the Junior-Senior decoration committee, and chairman of the athletic committee.

This year, he has been a marshal and a member of the Varsity Club. He has won recognition for himself in basketball by playing junior basketball his freshman and sophomore years, and varsity basketball his junior and senior years.

Fred has his favorites, too, which definitely include banana pudding. His favorite actress and actor are Maria Montez and Spencer Tracy.

After graduation next week, Fred plans to attend the University of North Carolina. We wish you luck, Fred!

Table listing names and numbers: Howard Caudill 16, Bill Dameron 16, Billy Daughtry 16, Marion Goodwin 16, James Raper 16, Louise Lewis 17, Geraldine Price 17, Joe Collins 20, Dana James Gulley 20, Gracie Batten 21, Maizie Jeanette 21, Iver Strickland 21, Carolyn Sutton 22, Irving Ennis 24, James Seay 24, Nancy Underwood 24, Kenneth Fulghum 26, Bo Kannan 26, Frances Potter 27, James Parker 29, Madeline Epps 30, Lois Johnson 30, Jewel Parker 31

Baseball Team Breaks 3-Game Losing Streak

Goldsboro High's nine broke a 3-game losing streak by defeating the Wilmington Wildcats 7-6 in Legion Park at Wilmington.

The Quakes were sparked by Catcher Charlie Westbrook, who slapped out two singles and a triple and drove in 4 runs, out of 5 trips at bat.

Raleigh Caps Win

The Raleigh Caps defeated the GHS Quakes 10 to 2 at the Municipal Stadium.