

Goldsboro Hi News

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Volume XXII

Thursday, April 21, 1949, Goldsboro, N. C.

Number 9

"The Swan" Planned For The Senior Class

"The Swan," by Ferene Molnor is to be the senior class play.

The play will be presented on the 6th and 7th of May.

Karl Albert is to play the part of Dr. Nicholas Age. Others in the cast are: George, Harold Kadis; Arsene, George Langston; Princess, Beatrice, LaNelle Edwards; Alexander, Patsy Donnell; Father Hyacinth, Kenneth Allen; Symphorsia, Anna Lee Pennington; Price Albert, Lewis Bryan; Colonel Wunderlick, Bill Elliott; Count Lutzon, Dick Griswold; Ceaser, Thurston Garris; Maid, Anne Lee; Prince Maria Dominicia, Berrette Daughtry; Countess Erdly, Louise Lewis; First Lackey, Jimmy Purser; Second Lackey, Kenneth Fulghum; First Hussar, Jack Rose; First Lady-in-waiting, Annette Edgerton; Second Lady-in-waiting, Audrey Garris.

Mr. Clifton Britton will direct the play and Miss Nancy McCaulley will assist with the dances.

Bob Bale Is GHS Speaker

Students of Goldsboro High School were privileged to hear Bob Bale, who was conducting a course on personal development in the city, speak to them Friday, April 1.

After being introduced by Troy Pate, S. A. President, he gave the three essentials for speaking. That is, use your teeth, tongue, and lips for correct pronunciation.

Using the following students as examples, he emphasized the necessity of voice projection.

They were Mary Alice Rose, Shirley Wiggins, Jake Mitchell and Betty Jean Culbreth, from the freshman class and Bobby Klutz from the senior class. He saved the last three minutes for questions from the floor.

Orchestra Plays For VFW Group

Johnny Thompson and his orchestra have a contract with the Veterans of Foreign Wars to play for a dance each Saturday night at Seymour Johnson Field.

The orchestra played for the V. F. W. opening March 27, with a one half hour broadcast over WGBR that night.

They played recently at a dance for the Moose Lodge. They will play in LaGrange after Easter.

High School Band Plays At Festival

To the tune of the St. Louis Blues the Goldsboro High school band marched in the annual azalea festival parade in Wilmington, April 2.

The two mile long parade was a great display of floats, bands, marching units, clowns, and other groups. There was an estimated 100,000 spectators. Other bands in the parade were Raleigh, Whiteville, E. M. I., the American Legion band, Elizabeth City, Wilmington High, State College, the Shrine Club band, and the Eighty Second Airborne Division band.

This parade is held each year to celebrate the opening of the many beautiful azalea gardens.

The band will participate in the annual Farmer's Day Parade in Tarboro, May 11.

They played for the opening of the Wells store and will play for a Women's club convention in the near future.

Albert Elected State N.H.S. President

Karl Albert, GHS junior, is the president of the North Carolina National Honor Society. He was elected at the recent state conference in Lenoir.

Thirteen delegates from here attended. They were: Ashton Griffin, Karl Albert, Dana James Gulley, Patsy Donnell, Ethel Parks, Peggy Ann Britt, Troy Pate, Victor Herring, Shirley Haynes, Bill Winslow, Peggy Ann West, Ed Mitchell, and Betty Denmark. Miss Janie C. Ipock, adviser, accompanied the group.

Bill Winslow is the past vice-president. The other officers of the convention were Bill Pector, Rocky Mount, president; Judy Hall, Charlotte, secretary; and Mary Lib Smith, Lenoir, treasurer.

The opening session, on April 8, consisted of the tapping of new members into the Lenoir chapter of the NHS. A regular business meeting followed immediately. That afternoon, the Lenoir High Masquers presented "Let's Make Up," by Ester Olson; Mr. E. McCall, chairman of the Board of School Directors of Lenoir High School, spoke; and the outstanding Lenoir High School Band gave a concert. Open forum discussions were held also. An informal dinner concluded the day's activities.

The closing session Saturday morning was highlighted by the election of officers. It was announced that the conference would meet in Concord next year.

Last year, Goldsboro High School was host to the convention.

Tom Price Serves As DE Delegate

Tom Price will be one of the National delegates from North Carolina to the third annual national meetings of the D. E. Clubs. This convention will be held in Topeka, Kansas, April 25-27.

Tom has been asked to give the report of activities of the clubs of North Carolina at this meeting. North Carolina plans to run for a national office.

Goldsboro, for the past three years has been fortunate to have one of the North Carolina national delegates. Each year the Goldsboro national delegate has been elected to a national office, Frank Gates, as national secretary in '47 and Charles Acker as national vice president in '48.

Career Day Draws Several Visitors Here

Career Day, an annual event, starting last year, was observed Wednesday, March 30th at G.H.S.

Purpose of career day is to acquaint every student with the different vocations for a life's work. Troy Pate, president of the Student Association, opened the day's program, extending a welcome to all outside visitors to this event.

The mixed glee club of Goldsboro High School, under the direction of Mr. John Thompson, sang two musical selections.

Speaking in place of Mrs. Fred Harrell, Patsy Donnell and Florence Bowden, G.H.S. students, spoke on "What Goldsboro has to offer."

Immediately following that, Mr. Roy Armstrong, from the University of North Carolina, stressed in his speech, "The Importance of College."

Following the talk by Mr. Armstrong, the Harmony Four, composed of Jack Borden, Skippy Culotty, Bobby Frederick, and Jimmy Shumate, entertained the group by singing "Golden Slippers," and "Coney Island Baby."

The topic of Dr. J. K. Long's speech was, "Who should Go To College?" Dr. Long is from Eastern Carolina Teachers' College.

The Goldsboro High School song closed the morning session.

After a brief recess, the Freshman and Sophomore classes returned to the auditorium to hear a speech "Marriage and Family Relations," by Mr. Lester Pearl. During this assembly, the Juniors and Seniors had lunch period. Following this assembly, the Juniors and Seniors attended an assembly of the same nature

Continued On Page 2

N. C. Symphony Proves Popular

Goldsboro provided the largest attendance of any city in the state of comparable size for the recent performance of the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Benjamin Swalin. This is the fourth annual tour of the group.

Soloist was Miss Nelle Burt Wright, pianist.

The program consisted of: Hungarian March from "Damnation of Faust," by Berlioz; Symphony No. I, Opus 39 ("Spring"); Claire De Lune, by Debussy; and Roumanian Rhapsody No. I.

Miss Wright's selection was Concerto No. II for the Piano and Orchestra, Opus 22, by Saint-Saens.

Several encores were given to an appreciative audience.

A children's concert was given for the grammar grade students in the afternoon.

Sophomores Plan Tuscarora Visit

Camp Tuscarora will be the scene of the Sophomore social which is to be held May 6.

The social will be in the form of a picnic-wiener roast with dancing and swimming.

Students will leave for the camp at 3:30 o'clock and return at 9:00. The camp mess hall will be used for dancing after the wiener roast.

Expences will be paid by contributions from each student in the amount of thirty-five cents.

Transportation will be furnished by cars and the school bus.

Goldsboro High Furnishes Two State DE Officers

Scouts Visit State College

The Scouts of troop 17, under the leadership of Phil Schornfeld, went recently to State College to get certain badges on swimming.

Five boys got swimming merit badges and three got their first class rank in swimming. The others were learning to swim.

Those that attended were Sam Gettsinger, Bill Porterfield W. B. Crumpler, Clyde Brown, Jimmy Pageant, Bill Denmark, Harry Thornton and Paul Powell from William St. school; Pete Evans and Pat Howell from St. Marys school, and Sonny Jarmon from GHS.

Seniors Visit E. C. College

Members of the Senior class visited East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville on Thursday, April 14. The purpose of the trip was to better acquaint high school seniors with a college in action.

The usual classwork and other activities of the college were in operation and several special features were prepared for the information and entertainment of the seniors.

The program consisted of the following: A band concert, music by the college choir, a one-act play "Sparkin," a baseball game—E. C. T. C. vs. Elon College, open house in the various departments, a motion picture and a tea dance. A barbecue lunch was furnished for fifty cents.

GHS Students See Joan Of Arc Here

The students of Goldsboro High School saw the movie, "Joan of Arc," at the Paramount theater, nine o'clock Tuesday morning, April 12. The tickets were purchased at school at a reduced rate and the students were excused from classes until twelve o'clock.

The money was collected in the English classes. The students were given special privileges to attend the movie because it pertains to studies in English and history classes.

SPONSORS MOVIE

The D. E. students of G.H.S. will sponsor a movie for the student body Thursday, April 21 at 10:30 a.m. to raise money to send a delegate to the national D. E. meeting. The name of the picture is not known.

Billy Mozingo and Mary Carol Joyner were elected State D. E. Club officers at the state meeting held in Greensboro April 8 and 9.

Billy was named to serve as Associate State President while Mary Carol was elected as state secretary. (A senior is elected for president to finish the school year. A junior is elected to take over the next year. Billy is a Junior.)

Attending the state convention from Goldsboro were: Bobby Bell, Billy Adams, Gene Anderson, Billy Mozingo, Jean McLawhorn and Mary Carol Joyner. One unofficial delegate was Veronica Bradshaw. Miss Frances Bayne, coordinator, also attended the meeting.

Goldsboro, because it has the largest DE program in the state, had six official delegates.

The Goldsboro club was asked to have charge of the first luncheon on Friday, April 8. Billy Mozingo was toast-master for the occasion.

The girls roomed in dormitories on the campus at Woman's College, and the boys stayed in tourist homes near the campus.

There were approximately 250 people attending the meeting. The sessions were well planned, consisting of committee reports and discussion groups

Spanish Club Holds A Party

A Spanish party was given at Camille Farfour's home Friday night April 8th. The party (Español fiesta) was given by the second year Spanish students in honor of the first year students.

The climax of the party came when each person had a chance to break the pinato, which was filled with candy.

Alvin Joyner was in charge of the program.

The boys wore loud shirts and pants, and the girls dressed in brightly colored dresses, skirts and bouses.

Student Council Draws Delegates

Three delegates Jimmy Ellis, Peggy Malpass and Lillian Haynes with Miss Elizabeth Grant, faculty advisor went as delegates from G. H. S. to the Eastern District Meeting of the North Carolina Student Council Congress in Wilmington, April the first and second.

The students attended sessions in the New Hanover High School and also attended the parade of the Azalea Festival. The highlight of the trip was a wiener roast at Wrightsville Beach.