Judy Adams

Judy Adams, Bobby Klutz Named Most Representative

Judy Adams and Bobby "Cotton" Klutz have been named the most representative boy and girl in Goldsboro High School by the students of all classes.

Staff of the Hi News each year sponsors a balloting for the most representative — those whom the students of the school believe personify the ideal spirit of the school.

The most representative come from the Senior class and are nominated by the Seniors, although members of the four classes elect after the nominations are made.

Nominated in the race this year were: Bennette Daughtery, Joyce Bagley, Alice Wiggins, Anne Lee, Ethel Parks, Shirley Haynes, girls; and Troy Pate, Bill Winslow, Victor Herring, Jerry Sanford, Kenneth Fulghum and Jimmy Purser.

Judy was elected on first ballot, but in the race for the winner for the honor among boys there was a revote between Klutz and Jerry Sanford.

Girl Representative

Judy has done outstanding work since her freshman year when she began working in dramatics, appearing in "Ramona." In the following year she played in "Heaven Can Wait" and "The Finger of God." Also during that year she served as class secretary and chairman of the bulletin board committee. Judy continued doing outstanding work as a Junior when the Goldmasquers elected her as secretary. She appeared in three

Goldmasquer productions during her Junior year: "Nothing But the Truth," "Brief Candle," "The Shepherd's Song," and two radio shows, "The Key" and "The Test."

As a Senior Judy is serving as secretary of the Student Association and on the scrap book committee. She was in the play "The Willow and I," and three radio shows, "The Well-Remembered Voice," "The Comeback," and "J. Smith and Wife." On the annual staff she is co-art editor. Outside of school activities Judy has a radio program of her own, "The Children's Hour," and "Judy's Art hop," at her home where she does sign painting and illustrations.

The Boy Representative

Cotton began doing outstanding work during his freshman year by serving as president of his class and appearing in the play "Ramona." He has played varsity football for four years and basketball for three years. As a Junior he served as treasurer of the Varsity Club, becoming president of the club this year. He also holds the office of treasurer of the SA this year. Last year he was co-captain of the football team. For five years he has served as a counsellor at Camp Tuscarora, Boy Scout camp of this area, where he has been in charge of athletics; and this year he is in charge of the Senior Boy Scouts.

On several occasions Cotton has made speeches concerning school activities and Varsity Club news.

Jimmy Ellis Heads The SA; Albert Defeated In Race

Jimmy Ellis will serve as president of the Student Association as the result of a recent election in which he defeated Karl Albert for the honor.

Elected to serve with him are Elton Warrick, vice-president; Peggy Ann Britt, recording secretary; Ruth Forehand, corresponding secretary; Jimmy Shumate, treasurer; and Jimmy Thomas, head cheerleader.

The candidates nominated by the SA nominating committee were Karl Albert, president; Charles Norwood, vice-president; Florence Bowden, corresponding secretary; Peggy Ann Britt, recording secretary; Eddie Mitchell, treasurer; and Jimmy Thomas, head cheerleader.

Peggy Ann Britt, who had no opposition for the office, and Jimmy Thomas were the only two officers elected following their nomination by the committee. Others were nominated by petition, the rule requiring that an aspirant to an office must have a petition signed by at least 30 people.

In addition to those nominated by the committee, and the others elected, as named above, the following candidates were also in the race: Martha Kornegay, and Stuart Jones, for vice-president—Martha was in a runoff primary with Elton Warrick for the office—and David Gainey, for head cheerleader.

This year Ellis was vice-president of the SA and planned the assembly programs. He has also also a native member of the Varsity Club, by virtue of the fact that he was manager of the football and baseball teams last year, and manager of all the three major sport teams this year.

Jimmy has also served as sports writer for the teams and as sports editor for the Hi News. Next year Jimmy will serve as a marshal along with his other honors.

Goldmasquers Donate Lobby Furniture

New furniture for the auditorium lobby has been purchased by the Goldmasquers.

The pieces are: two lounge chairs, two barrel-back chairs, a sofa, two end tables, and a coffee table. The furniture is upholstered with Duran plastic.

The furniture previously used in the lobby was presented to the Home Economics Department. Eight pieces were given which consisted of four chairs, a couch, two end tables, and a coffee table. It is maple with upholstery and the department plans to repair and recover it.

The health room has been refurnished and all groups may hold meetings there.

Varsity Club Dance To Be On May 28th

At a recent Varsity Club meeting, it was decided that the annual Varsity Club dance will be held May 28, at the American Legion building at Seymour Johnson Field. The dance will be from 8 to 12.

The dance, which is the highlight of the school year, and is the only formal dance of the year, is sponsored by the Varsity Club. For the first time this year it will not be held in the William St. Gym. The spacious and beautiful former Officers Club has been acquired for the occasion this year.

It was also voted that the Varsity Club members will all wear white dinner jackets and maroon bow ties. The dinner jackets are to signify the club members and all other boys attending the dance are asked by the club not to wear them.

Anyone wearing a dinner jacket who is not a member will not be admitted to the dance.

New Members In Spanish Club

New members of the Spanish Club are: Joe Hallow, Charlie Hinnant, Howard Sasser, Bobby Wiggs, and Robert Wiggs.

They were voted in at a recent meeting of the organization.

Class Officers Are Nominated By Committees

Eddie Mitchell, junior; Keith Goodson, sophomore; and Bobby Martin, freshman, have been chosen by the nominating committee to run for the presidencies of the rising Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes.

The other juniors seeking offices for their senior year are: Janet Cooke, vice-president; Betty Barbee, secretary; Charlie Hinnant, treasurer; and Junior Hollow and Lib Smith, cheerleaders.

Rising junior candidates are: Lib Johnson, vice-president; Betty Lou Adams, secretary; Jimmy McDaniel, treasurer; and Frances Malpass and Bill Sills, cheerleaders.

Chosen to run with Bobby Martin are: Morris Gurley, vice-president; Shirley Hadden, secretary; Billy Rouse, treasurer; and Jane Langston and Ray Hollowell, cheerleaders.

The nominating committees are composed of this year's class officers and the class councils.

Two New Members In French Club

Jimmy Shumate and Merle Best were recently elected into "Le Cercle Francais," the Goldsboro High School French Club, at the monthly meeting.

The program included a short story written by Guy de Maupassant, which was read by Manie Bernstein. Some songs were sung in French. Included were "Frere Jacques" and "Alouette."
