William Bell, Ashton Griffin, Billy Ruffin, Jimmy Frazier and Sonny Godwin did their bit toward making visitors in town feel welcome when the Lions' parade was staged, as is evidenced in this photo. Just what Sonny's topic of discussion was is not known, but from the looks of things, he is really enjoying himself. William Bell's thoughts are probably on the game that was played that night against Wilmington, but who knows? (Staff photo by Ellis and Roberts)

Durham 51, G.H.S. 41

For the second year in a row, Harold Sykes, a reserve forward for the Durham Bulldogs, found the baskets at William Street Gym to his liking and led the visiting Bull City boys to their second win in two years over the Quakes. The score of the game, played January 20, was 51-41.

Sykes, who is normally a second string forward, replaced Center Hal Bowden soon after the game started and immediately went to work running up a total of 19 points — eleven of them free throws. His 19 tallies put him completely ahead of both Harry Lloyd and Sam Nichols who have been the offensive leaders for the Bulldogs thus far this season. Lloyd scored 11 points and the better known member of the squad, Nichols, scored 10.

Louis Hallow got 17 points to lead the Quakes, who outscored the Bulldogs from the floor 17-12, but their work from the free throw line could not come close to that of the visitors who hit on 27 of 36 attempts from the gratis line.

Smith; Secretary, Christine Bartlett; Treasurer, Jim Alley; Junior Class Representative, Callie McArthur; Library Representative, Hilda Westbrook.

Miss Shepherd: President, Jack Bedford; Vice President, Arnould Stanton; Secretary, Pearl Happer; Treasurer, David Gainey; Junior Class Representative, Joyce Pate; S. A. Representative, R. L. Gully.

Valentine's Day

By Faye Parnell

It is St. Valentine's day,
So beware of Cupid's dart,
If a lass or lad comes your way,
And tries to steal your heart.
It is St. Valentine's day,
A day for lovers to share,
For paper hearts to say,
What you wouldn't dare.
It is St. Valentine's day,
A day that is yours and mine,
To show someone you care for him
By sending a valentine.
