Goldsboro Hi News

Published twelve times a year by the Journalism class of Goldsboro High School, Goldsboro, N. C., Members of the International Quill and Scroll Society and Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Friday, May 19, 1950

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor
Make-up Editor	Gene Robert
Feature Editors	Doris Page and Adaline Van
Alumni Editors
	Edna Mitchel
Sports Editors	Jimmy Ellis and
	Julian Hil
Exchange Editors
	Norma Frick
Photographers	Jimmy Ellis and
	Gene Robert

BUSINESS STAFF

Business Manager Betty Barbe
Advertising Managers Elton Warrick and Sara Cobl
Circulation Managers Ruth Edmundson
and Peggy Malpas
Hi News Shop Sara Thompson
Ruth Edmundson, Doris Page
Norma Frick
Eugene L. Roberts Adviser
Entered as second-class matter October 26
1931, at the postoffice at Goldsboro, N. C.
under the act of March 3, 1879.

HOW ABOUT THE LOCKERS?

About July 1st, no doubt someone will be searching the house over for some article which hasn't been seen around since June 8th.

Then it might possibly occur to him that he just happened to have left it in his locker out at school when the last minute rush out of the building began.

Now is the time to clean out your locker. Throw away the things you aren't going to need and take home those you want to keep. That way there will be no loss of the things you wanted but just forgot to take home.

LAST WEEKS OF A SENIOR

For seniors the next three weeks are the ones which they will remember all their lives. With the memories of the Junior-Senior dance, Class Day, Baccalaureate Sermon, and finally Graduation night, each member of the senior class will go his own way, some will go to college to acquire more knowledge which will help them in their life's work, while others will begin working immediately after graduation.

The seniors have worked twelve years for their diplomas and come Graduation night, good luck and wishes will follow every senior as he walks across the stage and on through life.

A FEW SHORT DAYS

Pretty soon we'll be able to count on our fingers the number of days more we have to go to school this year-and we won't have to count the same finger twice.

If you are completely failing a course, there is little you can do about it now. But if you're not one of the hopeless ones, if you are just one of the students who are on the borderline, there is a chance for you if you will buckle down and get to work right now.

You'd be amazed at how much you could bring up your grade with this last quarter, if you're willing to try.

Bowden and Ellis-Exchange Column (Continued from page 1)

tive career in her freshman year in G.H.S. by serving on the Devotional Committee of the S.A. She stepped up into the chairmanship her sophomore year and also assumed the duties of class editor for the 1948 Gohisca.

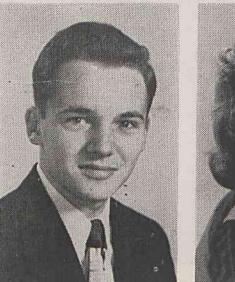

She also started a promising career in the Goldmasquers her second year in G.H.S. and has climbed the ranks until she now represents that group as a business manager. During the year of 1948-1949, she was secretary of the group.

Her acting lists such plays as "The Shepherd's Song," "The Tavern," "The Willow and I," "The Return of the Vagabond," and "John Loves Mary", while her radio talents have best been shown with the directing job she did with "Uncle Jim," the Sunday morning show which the Goldmasquers had during '48 and '49.

Florence's scholastic standing in the class qualified her for both National Honor Society and a Marshal's position this year and work in S.A. Council this year has consisted of the chairmanship of the Foreign Schools committee.

She is also one of ten G.H.S.

WE HONOR

Bob Mitchell

Since the beginning of last fall when he first moved to Goldsboro, no one has made quite the name for himself as our honoree for this issue-Robert Allen Mitchell.

He seems to have fitted right in with things at high school and besides the good name he has made for himself, he has made friends with everyone.

At school Bob has been very active. He was appointed S. A. Devotional chairman, was made business manager of the Gohisca, has been homeroom president, is in the men's chorus, was in charge of the senior stunt night, and was winner of the peace essay contest. He is also chairman of Sr. Class Day program. Active Goldmasquer

In the Goldmasquers, Bob has been a hard worker. He played in the production, "Ramshackle Inn", has been on Slate Notes twice, directed two radio shows, and has been in a radio show.

He has also played Varsity baseball and was on the intramural basketball team.

Bob has done quite a lot of work in his church. He is Commission chairman of the Presbyterian League and is active in Sunday school work.

Before he moved here he lived in Frankfurt, Ky., and he appears to have been just as hard a worker there. He was taken into the National Honor Society there, and he moved his membership to Goldsboro. He was president of the Student Association, governor of the Kentucky-Tennessee Key Club International, Kentucky state champion in extemporaneous speaking, and president of the debating club.

Bob was born in Pittsburg, Pa., on March 28, 1933 and shortly afterwards moved to Kentucky. Likes Sports

His favorite sport is basketball and along the line of food he likes anything his mother cooks, especially steak and French fries. When it comes to movie stars his favorite actor is Donald Duck; but since he saw "Gus", the mouse in Cinderella, he things it would be a hard decision between the two. There is one thing that he IS sure of, though, and that is girls are his hobby. Bob plans to go to Davidson College next year and after college he is considering being a preacher.

She might be described as having blonde hair, brown eyes, and a sweet disposition, as being helpful and charming; or most likely the girl who is never seen without Donald.

Any one of these would certainly be fitting for our girl honoree this issue, Peggy Jean Mal-pass. Having been born in Goldsboro, she has lived here all of her 18 years.

She was a cheerleader her first year here. Since that time she has been Circulation Manager for the Hi News, a make-up editor for the Gohisca. She has served as a member of the Bulletin Boards, Reception and Devotional committees. She was chairman of the Reception committee one year and a member the other year. She is also a member of the Glee Club and Latin Club. Peggy was a dele-gate to the N.C.S.C.C. District Convention in Wilmington, served on Jr.-Sr. Program committee and she was chairman of the Proclamation committee during her Junior Week. She worked on the Properties committee for "The Willow and I", and has served various other class committees. Peggy takes an active part in the M.Y.F.

Any time you need a job done, whether it be large or small, you can count on Peggy.

As for food she likes fried chicken and cocoanut pie.

June Allyson and Donald Percise rank highest as far as movie stars are concerned. Peggy likes, along with other things, Sociology and "Because". As she has no special dislikes in life we predict she'll make someone a mighty fine wife (wonder who).

She's especially interested in any kind of sports and being that her better half is quite an athletic. Her real ambition is to become a housewife, has met with obstacles at the present so till then she's planning to attend E.C.T.C.

You have made a good start,

One Hour To Live: What Would You Do?

What in life means most to you? Or what would you do with only one hour to live Below as some of the answers received from various students recently.

1. G. F. Seymour-Same thing I've always done!

2. Leslie Elton-Spend it with Adaline.

3. Libby Lou Stuart - Worry about what I'd do with it.

4. Jimmy Shumate-Go out on the Mount Olive highway and get an "orange; crush".

5. Ronald Percise-Borrow $5. 6. Pat Marshall-Take a trip with the baseball team.

7. Coach Jeffrey-Get an asbestos suit.

8. Fred Shelby—Learn to fly.
9. Pot Smith—Go get up Miss

Mixon's homework. 10. Ann Smith-Uh!! That's a good question.

11. Ashton Griffin-Don't know -takes 3 hours to get to Greensboro.

12. Walter Culbreth-Get married.

13. Johnnie Manley - Start looking for a short cut to Ger-attention.)

fective.)

tive.)

neighbor's pencil. (Take it, you fool.)

neighbor's paper during a test. (Have it passed to you.)

stairs. (Sliding down the bannister is more fun.)

period. (Take the whole day off.) 8. Thou shalt not copy anoth-er's homework. (Make them copy

9. Thou shalt not run in the hall. (Skating would be quicker.) 10. Thou shalt not drive thy teachers to their graves. (For goodness' sake, let the undertak-

-Borrowed from The

Faye Parnell and Norma Frick

1. Thou shalt not whisper in school. (Shouting attracts more

2. Thou shalt not throw spitin school. (Bricks are more ef-

3. Thou shalt not wear caps in

4. Thou shalt not borro wthy

5. Thou shalt not look on thy it for you.)

er do it.)

SCHOOL COMMANDMENTS:

balls, erasers, and other objects

school. (Hats are more attrac-

6. Thou shalt not run down the

7. Thou shalt not skip a class

many and find James. 14. Lib Smith—Look for a mole:

15. Clara Hollowell-Stap A. K'ing.

16.-Mop Langston - Find a bowlegged woman.

17. Jane Langston - Find a bowlegged man.

18. Lelia Ruth E .- Watch time go by.

19. Metz Bizzell-Take a good hot bath.

20. Peggy Malpass - Have a wedding with Donald a bridegroom.

21. Bobby Watson-Take out more insurance.

22. Janet Cook-Take one last look at the Opera Shoppe.

23. Margie Rose-Send in a false alarm.

24. Ann Lee-Look for a Hill. 25. Barbara Anderson-Wouldn't do to put it on paper!

26. Bud Wallace-Spend five dollars in an easy way.

27. Merle Best-I don't know. 28. Miss Grant-Just sit and be scared.

29. Florence Bowden-Have as much fun as I could.

30. Ed Vinson-Talk to Miss Grant.

Lexhipep, written by Gladys Comer.

Mr. Robert Williams: Where's your pencil, Dean?

Dean B.: Ain't got one. Mr. W.: Don't say 'ain't'! Listen, "I haven't a pencil, you haven't a pencil, they haven't a pencil." Dean B .: Where's all the pencils? * * *

If people never make mistakes why do they have rubber mats under spittoons?

"ALWAYS"

"I'll be loving you" Peggy Malpass and Donald Percise. "With a love that's true" Margie Jennette and Ralph Hinnant. "When the things you plan need a helping hand, I will understand" Emily Warrick and Her-man Vinson. "Days may not be fair 'Always', that's when I'll be there" Sara Thompson and Jimmy Thomas. "Not for just an hour, not for just a day, not for just a year, but 'Always'."

Seniors to be listed in the 1949-1950 High School register, a Who's Who of American high school students.

Jimmy Ellis

During the four years he has been in G.H.S., Jimmy has served as a member of the Board of Elections, Flag Committee, S.A. Council, the Hi News staff and as a manager for each of the three major sports in the high school.

After posts on committees his first two years, Jimmy was elected to serve as S.A. vice president his junior year and as S.A. president his final year. The post of S.A. president automatically brought him the positon of treasurer of the North Carolina Student Council Congress under the rules of the NCSCC.

Unable to participate in athletics because of such slight stature, Jimmy has worked with each of the sports in G.H.S., both as a manager and a sportswriter, and became a member of the Varsity Club during his sophomore year. He served as corresponding secretary of the Varsity Club his junior year in When I asked Bob how he addition to his managerial and journalistic duties. His publicity of the Earthquake squads for the past three years has appeared in papers all over North Carolina as well as filling the sports pages of the Hi News, which he has served as Sports Editor for two years.

Jimmy's work in dramatics consists of parts in "The Flute and The Vine," the Goldmasquers 1947 State Contest show, and "The Willow and I". Radio productions in which he has appeared are "Legend of Dust", and "Slate Notes."

He is also listed in the high school register.

Peggy! Continue on as in the past and all the doors to success are bound to open for you in the future.

liked living in North Carolina he said that he really liked it but that he thought he had a little tar on his heels and blue grass stain on his pants.

"Vagabond" Given

The Goldmasquers in collaboration with the Junior Class presented George M. Cohan's "The Return of the Vagabond" May 6 and 8. This was a sequel to "The Tavern" which was given last year. Jimmy Shumate starred as the Vagabond. Some of the people who played in "The Tavern" returned to play the same characters in its sequel, "The Return of the Vagabond."

The profits of the play were split fifty-fifty between the Junior Class and the Goldmasquers. The Juniors are putting on the Junior-Senior with their profits.