

Goldsboro Hi News

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Volume XXIII

GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1950

Number 12

The architect's drawing of G.H.S.'s new gymnasium. Buildings and other obstacles have been cleared away and actual construction work is to begin almost immediately upon the closing of school. At the right of the gym an opening has been left for the addition of four more classrooms which will connect the high school to the gym. (News-Argus photo and engraving.)

Eighteen Are Named To Quill And Scroll

Eighteen new members will be taken into the Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society of High School Journalists. They will be presented Quill and Scroll pins tonight at Commencement exercises.

Four members of the Hi News Staff who are receiving this award are: Sara Thompson, Alumni Editor and Hi News Manager; Gene Roberts, who during his Sophomore year was Sports Editor and during his Senior year was photographer and Make-Up Editor; Adaline Vann, Co-Feature Editor; and Norma Frick, Exchange Editor; Peggy Malpass, who was recommended by the Annual staff, served as Circulation Manager on the Hi News.

Those receiving this honor for outstanding work on the Annual staff of the 1950 Gohisca are: Florence Bowden, Peggy Ann Britt, Sara Hunt, Donald Percise, Peggy Pittman, Janice Whaley, Jerry Price, Bob Mitchell, Jack Borden, Libby Lou Stuart, Lib Smith and Alyene Rollins.

The requirements for membership in the Quill and Scroll are: Must be a junior or senior, in the upper third of the class and doing outstanding work on any publication.

Class Day Skit Scores Big Hit

Senior Class Day exercises opened Thursday morning, May 25, with a humorous skit prophesying the future of many seniors.

The student body stood as the members of the senior class took their places. The honored class sang its class song after which the other three classes sang songs of farewell to the seniors. In return the seniors offered a song of farewell to the student body.

The skit centered around the sights the son of a "backwoods" family sees when he goes to town. Seniors were seen as they were predicted to be in the future. Elton Warrick played the son, and Janet Cooke and Kenneth Allen were ma and pa.

A "wisdom corner" was featured in which each senior had an opportunity to express his sentiments a sto graduation and the future.

The class day exercise was prepared and directed by Bob Mitchell and Jimmy Ellis.

Davis Leads Varsity

At a meeting held May 30th the Varsity Club elected the following officers: President, Bud Davis; vice president, Bobby Frederick; recording secretary, Caleb Mattox; corresponding secretary, Bobby Noble; treasurer, Ed Vinson; parliamentarian, Ronald Percise.

The Varsity Club also appointed K. D. Pyatt and Morris Gurley as co-chairman of a committee in charge of the programs and concessions for the football games during the coming year.

Five Annual Awards To Be Presented Tonight

During commencement exercises this evening, five annual awards of the high school will be presented to the students selected by their classmates and teachers who have achieved the honors to be given them.

Martha Ann Rose Is "Miss Bright Leaf" Of Goldsboro

Martha Ann Rose, G.H.S. senior, was named "Miss Bright Leaf" of Goldsboro, a title conferred on her to celebrate the pre-world premiere opening of the movie, "Bright Leaf," the plot of which was supposed to have taken place in the heart of "tobacco land."

Martha won by a default of the candidate, Mary Lou Raper, also of G.H.S., who was disqualified because of age limit.

The contest committee, which was sponsored by the Retail Merchants Bureau and the North Carolina Theatres, Inc., awarded her a prize of 100 dollars, and entered her in the state-wide contest held in Raleigh.

While at Raleigh she sat on a throne on the Goldsboro float, and was entertained by Movie Actress Patricia Neal and Actor Donald Crisp.

Leads "James Drive"

The going-away drive for James the Janitor came to an end with a grand total of $69.29. Mrs. Britt's homeroom led over the individual rooms with $10.63.

Reacting to a story published in the last issue of your Hi News the students rallied to collect the money for James.

James ends his twenty-year term of service during the summer and has to retire under the compulsory retirement plan. The money will be presented to him at the Coke party in the park after school today.

The money contributed to James by the homerooms is listed as follows:

Britt, $10.63; Ipock, $5.26; Britton, $4.15; Blysak, $3.70; Grant, $2.99; Rudisill, $2.72; Sheppard, $2.61; Roberts, $2.49; Doak, $2.45; Spicer, $1.59; Jeffrey, $1.57; Mixon, $1.49; McKeel, $1.06; Simpson, .87; Shine, .50; Jones, .22; S. A. Council, $25.00.

Five Annual Awards To Be Presented Tonight

The Borden Award of $600.00 will be presented a student for the second time. Last year the recipient was Ethel Parks, the preceding year, Helen Nelson.

The Royal Essay Award for $10.00 will be awarded for the 30th consecutive year. This is given to the student with the best senior essay.

Last year Dana James Gulley and Robert Fleming received the honor of being the girl and boy with the highest average above 90. They were each presented the Weil Scholarship Award of $20.00.

Bennett Daughtry was the winner of the $60.00 National Honor Society award last year. This is the second year the award will be given. This year the amount will be $100.00.

The Policeman's Citizenship Award of $25.00 was given last year to Cotton Klutz, and will again be presented tonight.

Gohisca Comes

The annual theme was carried out as a train, the seniors were in the home stretch, the Juniors were "pouring on the steam", the sophomores are "beginning to see the light," the freshmen stumbling along.

The conductors were Chief Editor, Ashton Griffin; Assistant Chief Editor, Florence Bowden; and Business Manager Bob Mitchell.

120 Seniors Make Big Break Tonight

Approximately 120 seniors will receive diplomas tonight at graduation exercises beginning at 8:30.

The G.H.S. Band will entertain the audience with a number of selections before opening of the graduation ceremonies. Rev. D. W. Charleton will deliver the invocation following the processional.

A chorale drama "Unto Us the Living" will be presented by members of the senior class. This will be under the direction of Mr. Clifton Britton and will feature Karl Albert, Ashton Griffin, James Raper, Florene Bowden, Ellis Nelson, and Dillon Barfield. A large number of students will appear in the chorus.

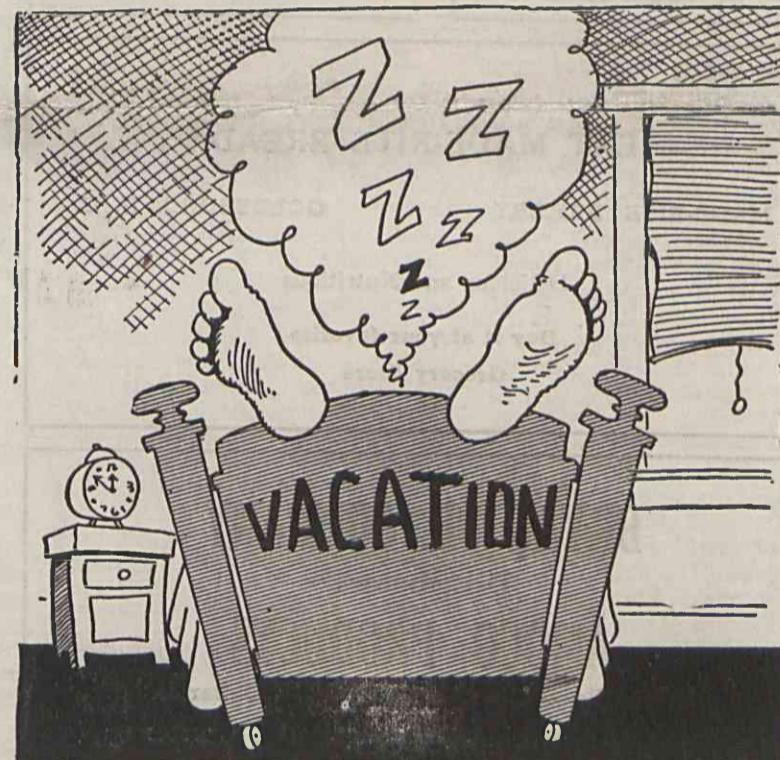

Following the drama, the G. H. S. Glee Club will render a few numbers. J. B. Burruss will make the presentation of awards. Mrs. T. B. Dameron will deliver the diplomas. Janet Cooke, senior class vice president, will present the annual senior gift to the school. This will be accepted by Principal C. W. Twiford.

Preceding the benediction, the senior class will sing its class song "Lavender and White."

Goodbye Party

The last S.A. social event of the year will be held today, when the social committee will give a "Coke" party, in the park.

Everyone is invited to attend.

D. O. and Home Ec 3 Added To Curriculum

Two new courses are being offered in G.H.S. for the '50-'51 school term.

They are Diversified Occupations and Home Economics 3.

D.O. will be a study of hand works. It will be taught by Mr. Woodrow Barden. One-hour class period will be devoted each day to the study of related information on various occupations.

Early in the afternoon, those taking D.O. will report to the job to which they have been assigned. They will be placed in positions by Mr. Barden. Salaries will be paid them during the training period. This course will be open to all boys 16 years of age. It is hoped that many of them will be placed in occupations during their high school years in which they may continue to prosper after graduation.

Home Ec 3, which was not taught here this last year, is again being offered. This is a course in advanced home economics. Mrs. Clarinda Britt, who has taught Home Ec for many years in G.H.S. will be replaced in this subject by a new member of the faculty. This course will be open to only Junior and Senior girls.

Band Plays For Nearby Cities

The G.H.S. Band attended "Hospitality Day" held in Tarboro May 17.

On May 18 they were invited to the annual Shriners Convention held in Rocky Mount.

The parade in Rocky Mount was one of the largest ever held there. The Goldsboro band occupied the number 72 spot in the parade, which featured 81 bands.