

Goldsboro Hi News

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Volume XXIV

GOLDSBORO, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1951

Number 9

Three Plays Will Enter Drama Festival

(By Frank McInnis)

A major triumph was staged last April the first in Chapel Hill when the Goldmasquers took the stage to thoroughly shatter that harsh Saturday night audience with the acclaimed prize hit, "Trail Of Tears".

The triumph will be won again. That is the determination of this year's drama group when it journeys to the hill April fourth to once more enter the exciting Carolina Drama Festival.

This will mark the very first year the Goldmasquers have entered three productions in the tough and unrelentless competition. They are: Dr. Elizabeth Welch's successor to "Trail Of Tears" entitled "Sweet, Will Be The Flower". The play will be given its official world premier presentation here on March 31. Also to be presented both here and at the festival are "The Fisherman" and the Junior Goldmasquers operetta, "Down In The Valley".

"Sweet, Will Be The Flower" is a symphonic drama with its setting on the windy Panhandle and is under the direction of Mr. Clifton Britton. A large cast will feature the following in prime roles: Lucille Williams, Bobby Martin, Jewel Best, James Tyndall, Peggy Hawkins, Robert Nelson, Peggy Hill, Gurney Collins, Marilyn Best, K. D. Pyatt, Betty Jinnette, Charlie Norwood, Hilda Toler, Edward Bizzell, Cecil West, Ronnie Rose, and Samuel Johnson.

The chorus enacting the wind from the Panhandle will include: Nancy Parker, Jane Langston, Barbara Davis, Ann McKenzie, Emily

(Continued on Page Eight)

Sally Edgerton Is Delegate To Azalea Festival

Sally Edgerton will attend the Azalea Festival at Wilmington on arch 30 and 31.

She was elected by votes of the student body to represent the Wayne County high schools and will participate in the parade and other events. She will also be the county attendant to a princess in the queen's court.

Each year the Festival committee appoints one high school to select the person to attend the festival.

Some of the requirements are personality and attractiveness. They must be between the ages of 16 and 18.

The juniors and seniors had the privilege of nominating the candidates from their classes and they were then voted on by the four classes.

Hi News Receives Two Rating

Your Hi News received a rating of a two at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention held at Columbia University in New York City March 8, 9, and 10.

The Hi News received the same rating last year. The paper is graded on the make-up and the contents of the paper.

Eight Students Attend NHS Meet In Salisbury

Boyden High School, Salisbury, North Carolina, was host to the 1951 National Honor Society Convention which was held March 16-17. The G.H.S. delegation included Jimmy Frazier, Bobby Noble, Steve Dail, Lillian Haynes, Bobby Anderson, Nancy Parker, Mela Royall, Joyce Pate and Miss J. C. Ipock, Adviser.

The opening session of the meeting began Friday morning at 10:00 with the tapping of new members into the Salisbury chapter of the N.H.S. Then the regular session followed with Vice-President Dick Gregory of Rocky Mount presiding in the absence of Luther Barnhardt, president, who was competing in Angier B. Duke regional contest. This session included business, a devotional and welcome. The afternoon session included "The Valiant", a play presented by the Masque and Wig of Boyden High School. Open forum discussion groups were formed, and Nancy Parker of G.H.S. led the group on Methods Used to Encourage High Scholarship. In the evening an informal dinner was held in the Catawba College dining hall, followed by recreation in Boyden High School Gymnasium. The closing session Saturday morning included a devotional and message, "On Getting Wisdom", delivered by Rev. R. A. Ellis of the First Baptist Church, Salisbury. The election of officers followed and then the adjournment of the convention.

F. H. A. County Rally Is Today

FHA groups in all Wayne schools will hold a county rally March 28, at Eureka.

The Goldsboro chapter will be in charge of the program. They plan to have a tableau and the theme will be "Americanism and Brotherhood."

A narrator will read as girls will appear as representatives of different countries.

The four basic ideas will be, freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of the press and freedom from want.

D.E. Club Plans To Order Pins

Sponsoring a movie on parliamentary procedure was the main topic of discussion at a recent meeting of the D. E. Club.

The club also discussed ordering pins signifying the D.E. work.

G.H.S. has been represented in the state D.E. Paper, "Trade 'n Print", by many stories written by members of the local group. In the January '51 issue the local club had seven articles.

Other bits of information from this club are: Mary Culbreth, D.E. student, is now working in Weil's gift department; Miss Frances Bayne, advisor for the club, plans to travel to Florida during the Easter holidays.

Thompson And Frazier Selected By Students As Most Representative Of Senior Class

JIMMY FRAZIER

SARA THOMPSON

Sara Thompson and Jimmy Frazier have been selected by Goldsboro High School students as the ones they deem most representative in the Senior Class, according to results of Hi News sponsored elections the past week.

Traditionally sponsored by the Hi News, the contest is undertaken each spring with nominations being made by members of the senior class. After nominations have been completed, the entire student body is given the opportunity to vote for one girl and one boy. The object of the election is to select, in the minds of the students, just whom they consider as the boy and girl who are ideal as far as representation in school functions is concerned.

An original list of 18 boys and 10 girls was narrowed down to the final two by a series of voting periods.

The boys nominated on the original ballot were: Kenneth Allen, Bobby Anderson, William Bell, Bud Davis, Carlyle Edmundson, Irving Ennis, Jimmy Frazier, Harold Kadis, George Langston, Red Lewis, Bobby Noble, Caleb Maddox, Ronald Percise, K. D. Pyatt, David Reaves, Bill Sills, Conrad Spencer, and Bobby Watson.

Girl Nominees

The girls nominated were: Nan Barnes, Betty Gainey, June Handley, Martha Kornegay, Callie McArthur, Jerry Price, Mary Lou Raper, Dawson Thompson, Sara Thompson, and Ann Smith.

There was a re-vote between Martha Kornegay and Sara Thompson, and Bobby Watson and Jimmy Frazier.

Sara Thompson

Sara began her representation in her sophomore year when she became a cheerleader. She was also manager of the Hi News Shop that year.

As a junior, she was assistant head cheerleader, manager of the Hi News Shop again, plus being ticket chairman for the Hallowe'en dance, sponsored by the junior class, and was taken into the Quill and Scroll.

This year, Sara is editor of the Hi News, Head cheerleader, Assistant Senior Editor of the Gohisca, and a member of the National Honor Society. She was also one of the members of the cast of "Best Foot Forward".

Jimmy Frazier

Jimmy started his high school career as treasurer of his freshman class. He also played junior football. As a sophomore he was a Goldmasquer. That year he played in "I Killed Twenty Thousand Men" and worked backstage on several plays.

He is a member of the French Club and Varsity Club. He was tapped into the National Honor Society during his junior year.

This year Jimmy serves as S.A. President. He was also a member of the football team, and again this year is a member of the Goldmasquers.

Sale Of Lilies Highlights Drive

The crippled children's drive started last Wednesday in Goldsboro. For the first time the Community Service Committee is sponsoring the drive in the city which will continue until Friday of this week.

Over 3,000 letters have been sent out containing seals.

Highlighting the drive, Easter lilies were sold downtown Saturday by students. This committee is headed by Irving Ennis.

Cheerleader Selection Plans Are Discussed

(By Bruce A. Humphries)

Three plans of selecting G.H.S. cheerleaders for the 1951-52 school year were submitted to the student body at an assembly held on March 14. Caleb Maddox, Bobby Jean Thompson, and Sara Thompson presented these plans to the student body. These plans were similar in that they all stated that tryouts should be held before elections.

Caleb Maddox's plan stated that all wishing to be cheerleaders try out before the student body, after learning four yells from the present head. Ten of these would be chosen by secret ballot and those chosen would elect a head cheerleader among them. He would appoint his assistant.

The second plan, submitted by Bobby Jean Thompson, was as follows: Tryouts would be held before the present cheering squad, faculty, and outsiders. Eliminations would be held and the squad would elect their own head and co-head. Freshmen would not be eligible for this squad. This would compose the varsity squad. A Jayvee squad would be elected from the freshman and sophomore classes. This squad would be elected in the same way.

Sara Thompson, head of the 1950-51 cheering squad, presented the third plan. Tryouts would be held for all interested in being on the squad. Then tryouts would be held before the present cheering squad, S.A. President, football co-captains, principal, etc., and Mr. Linwood Harrell, former head cheerleader at Wake Forest. Three boys and three girls from each class would be chosen to be voted upon by the S.A.

Questions were asked after each plan and new proposals were made.

In the past, cheerleaders and head cheerleaders have been elected, with omission of tryouts.

The second meeting concerning the election of cheerleaders was held Wednesday, March 21.

A plan which had six points that had been voted on by the council was brought before the student body. One of the points of the submitted plan stated that the ten cheerleaders would consist of five boys and five girls. However, the point was brought out that if only five boys tried out for cheerleader, they would be picked regardless of whether they were good or not. Much discussion was held on having an all-girl squad.

During this meeting a special council was called to vote on whether the clause in the six-point plan calling for five boys on the squad would be removed. In this meeting, only a discussion was held and nothing was voted on. Time ran out and another was to be held to vote on the matter.

Band Concert To Be Presented

The first Band Patrons concert, which was to have been on March 23, has been postponed until April 6. This concert will be held in the Goldsboro High School auditorium under the direction of the conductor, John Thompson.

A varied program of good music will be given by the band. Among these will be "Play A Simple Melody" by Irving Berlin, "Garland's Grand Entree" by K. L. King, "Moods Americana" by eGrald Humel, "Trombone King" by K. L. King, and "Independia" by R. B. Hall.

Preceding the high school band, several numbers will be presented by the William Street School Concert Band, which is under the direction of David Weil, a high school freshman.

The concert will be sponsored by the Band Patron's Club which was formed to help create interest in the band and raise money for uniforms and instruments.

Sophomores Give Easter Program

"The Way of the Cross" was the theme carried out this year in the traditional Easter program presented last Thursday by the Sophomore Class.

Easter songs were sung by Susan Campbell, singing two solos and Nancy Combs, Ruth Shiver, and Susan Campbell singing a trio.

Betty Jinnette, Kitty Brown, Donald Montague, Nancetta Hudson, and Jewel Best read poems and talked on the subject of Easter.

A group of sophomores formed three crosses on the stage. The large center cross symbolized the cross of Jesus and the two smaller ones on each side, the two thieves. This group joined in the song service by singing "Halleluia". They wore white robes and carried candles which formed lighted crosses when the curtains closed.