Sub-Freshman Week was observed last week, April 9-17. The purpose of the week is to acquaint the eight grades with the fundamentals of high school life. The reception committee is in charge of the program throughout the week.

On Monday the S.A. Council met in the William Street School auditorium. Handbooks were distributed at that time.

Tuesday, the eighth grades visited the high school. The day's programs included campaign speeches by the candidates for S.A. offices and a General Science show. A tour of the industrial arts class, radio workshop, and the porthole was taken. The students also saw a fashion show by the Home Economics classes.

During the afternoon they heard speeches in heads of the various activities in G.H.S. These included: athletics, Coach Norris Jeffrey; Hi News, Sara Thompson; Latin club, Sherry Noble; FHA, Pearlina Ennis; Marshall, Martha Kornegay; and the cheering squad, Sara Thompson.

They also saw "Today Is Tomorrow" presented by the Goldmasquers, and following the play they were entertained at a tea in the cafeteria.

Wednesday, a concert by the G.H.S. band was given at William Street School.

Monday, April 16, a concert by the Mixed Glee Club of G.H.S. was given at William Street School also.

Today representatives of clubs and activities spoke to the students and tests on the handbooks were given.

Sally Edgerton Represents G.H.S. At Azalea Show

Beauty queens and the big parade highlighted the azalea festival at Wilmington, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 30 and 31 and April 1.

Sally Edgerton, a junior at G.H.S. was an attendant to the princess, who was chosen from New Hanover High, and her court of one girl from each of the surrounding counties.

Margaret Sheridan, queen of the azalea festival, rode on one of the beautiful floats preceding by her court.

The G.H.S. band occupied the thirty-sixth place in the parade. They stood out with Saint Louis Blues, Piano Roll Blues and Black Jack.

A few of the other bands participating were Elizabeth City, The Marine Band, Whiteville and Dunn, New Hanover High in Wilmington and Wilmington Junior High.

The parade was approximately 29 blocks long and lasted approximately two hours.

Old House Takes Leave Of School

(By Marilyn Best)

A strange house sprang up out of the ground over night out in back of G.H.S. last week. This strange house was sitting nicely out in front of the new gym and before we knew it, it had changed its location. How this house got here we do not know but it's very puzzling you see, because where it was located used to be the baseball diamond. The old shabby house looked so lonesome sitting out there all alone.

After scouting around a little bit we discovered the real reason it was there. It seems as if the men working on the new gym needed the space the poor old house occupies. So they politely put it on rollers and moved it over on the baseball diamond for a short time.

Campbell College Paper Does Feature On Percise

Donald Coy Percise, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Percise of Goldsboro, was recently honored by his fellow students in the following feature story in the Campbell College semi-monthly paper, "Creek Pebbles".

"When you see 'Peg' around, you're looking at a smiling chap with a joke and a laugh for everybody. 'Peg', whose real name is Donald Coy Percise, was born near Dudley on August 7, 1932. He has a twin brother, Ronald. Don has brown eyes and hair, stands 5' 10", and weighs 179.

"Peg" attended Goldsboro High School where he performed in all three major sports, playing one year of varsity basketball and two years of varsity baseball, rotating between the positions of catcher, first baseman, and pitcher. While playing football for the 'Earthquakes' he was given honorable mention on the all-star Eastern N. C. team. His athletic efforts rewarded him as he was elected to the varsity club and served as vice-president for one year.

"He was very active in school affairs. He was sports editor of the school annual, manager of the school printing shop, and also stage manager of 'Goldmasquers' whose presentation of 'Trail of Tears' won state championship honors. He was a member of the student council for three years and served as social chairman of his class for two years.

"The most exciting moments of his high school career were when he kicked two of three after-touchdown placement kicks to give Goldsboro a 20-19 win over powerful Henderson. Also he pitched a 7-4 win over Wilmington for her only conference loss of the season.

"Here are several pin-pointers about him. For recreation, 'Peg' enjoys all sports (natch), including fishing. His favorite meal consists of roasting corn, peas, pie, and potatoes topped off with plenty of iced tea—even in winter time. His pet peeve is silly women. Perry Como and Jo Stafford rate high on his movie star list; blue is his favorite color. Being a business student, he informs me that accounting is his favorite subject. The most unforgettable person he has met since coming to Campbell is none other than 'Boston Blackie'. 'The most admirable quality a person can have is a good personality,' he says. His favorite pastime is riding with that favorite 'gal' in a Chevrolet convertible.

"When asked what he thought of the present world situation, he summed it up this way: 'I don't see why people have to fight, because arguments can always be settled.'

"His ambition is to become a successful businessman, marry and settle down with his family in a peaceful America."

Five Champions Selected From Ping Pong Race

The annual ping pong tournament sponsored by the Wayne Recreation Council and the Wayne Boys Club came to a close last week when five of the champions were decided.

Bobby Noble, senior of G.H.S. and member of the high school tennis team, won the right to represent Goldsboro in the 18 and under class at the state tournament at High Point April 21.

In a three-way play-off in the finals Noble defeated Billy West 2-0 and beat David Gainey 2-1 for the championship.

This makes the third year that Noble has played in the state play-offs, entering two times as a junior contender and a third time he teamed with Charlie Norwood to win the state doubles championship in 1948.

Bobby Green won over Bobby Kadis and Tommy Waters in the junior division. Green will represent Goldsboro in the junior division at the state finals in High Point also.

Due to lack of entries there was no qualified tournament. Shirley Shrago was declared local champion by virtue of a win over Mildred Price.

Over 50 people participated in the tournament.
