Joyce Jones, William Ginn Named Most Representative

Win In Race Of 21 In 1952 Hi News Contest

Joyce Jones and William Ginn have been named the most representative girl and boy in the student body, according to balloting last week under the sponsorship of the Hi News.

Betty and William defeated Sally Edgerton and Carl Kassell in a run-off primary after the elimination of 19 candidates in the first primary.

The Nominees

Those nominated for the race were Phyllis Banks, Nancy Bridgers, Betty Daugherty, Sally Edgerton, Peggy Hawkins, Joyce Jones, Jane Langston, Nancy Parker, Mela Royall, Emily Warwick, Susan Gibson, William Ginn, Jimmy Cavanaugh, Carl Kassell, Bobby Martin, Charles Norwood, Billy Rouse, and Charlie Strider for the boys.

Joyce has served as president of the Girls' athletic association, a cheerleader for the past two years, and as the vote shows is a favorite among the students.

Student Leader

Ginn played both junior and varsity football, played basketball during his freshman year, played varsity basketball during his junior year. He is president of the junior class this year and was recently tapped into the Varsity Club, and is a member of the National Honor Society.

For a number of years the Hi News has sponsored the election of the most representative students in order that the student body as a whole might express its preference of those considered outstanding as all around fine students.

Shirley Shrago Gets NCCSCC Honor

Shirley Shrago was elected president of the Eastern District of the North Carolina student council congress, at a recent meeting held in Rocky Mount on March 21.

Shirley, a junior in GHS, succeeded Billy Cooper from Rocky Mount.

Her main duty will be the carrying out of the next year's student congress. It will be held in Goldsboro next spring and our next year's SA president will serve as treasurer and Miss Grant will act as advisor.

Delegates attending the meeting were Billy Gibson, Styron Harris, Shirley Shrago, and Barbara Bridges. Miss Grant accompanied them.

Mormon Chorus Gives Program

Classical, popular, spiritual, and religious songs were featured by the Utah Centennial Chorus representing the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in a program for the student association on April 7.

The ten men and their director sang numbers which were well received by the audience. They sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," "The Blue Fly," "Down At the Station," "The Mosquito Song," and many others.

Also their director in a tenor voice sang several solos—one was "The Lord's Prayer."

In addition a quartet sang the selection which was "Kentucky Babe."

One member of the chorus, who is their accompanist, played a classical selection on the piano.

The chorus sang an encore "Younger Than Springtime" from the Broadway production of South Pacific.

Pate Heads Student Association In '52-'53; Ginn, Hudson, Hatton, Porterfield Winners

Snyder Pate Wins Over Montague In Annual SA Contest

Snyder Pate will serve as president of the Student Association of Goldsboro high school during next school year, he having been elected to that office the past week during SA elections.

Elected to serve with him are Fred Ginn, vice-president; Nancetta Hudson, recording secretary; Betty Hatton, corresponding secretary, and Bill Porterfield, treasurer.

In winning the election Pate nosed out over Donald Montague, who had been nominated by petition. Pate was the nominee of the SA nominating committee.

Ginn Defeats Kadis

For vice-president, Ginn, nominated by petition, defeated Bobby Kadis, who was named by the nominating committee.

Nancetta Hudson had no opposition for the office of recording secretary. She was the choice of the committee.

In the race for treasurer, Porterfield, the nominee by the committee, had as his opponent Tommy Johnson, who trailed Porterfield by only nine votes in the final count, that being the closest race in any of the offices.

Pate is chairman of the building and grounds committee, treasurer of the junior class, assistant chief marshal for next year, member of the national honor society, and a Goldmasquer.

Nominees Are Leaders

Ginn was president of the subcommittee and of the freshman class, is parliamentarian of the sophomore class, is SA representative of his room, and in sports he has played both junior basketball and football.

Nancetta is a member of the Goldmasquers, is in charge of the scrapbook for the Chapel Hill trip this year, member of the National Honor society, and is considered a hard worker for any worthwhile event.

Betty is state secretary of FHA, she was varsity queen in Swansboro before coming to GHS, and has been active in student life here.

Porterfield is considered a strong student and a supporter of all school activities.

Two Girls Named To Attend Meet

Sherry Moble and Martha Wallace were chosen to attend Girls' State at Greensboro, according to recent announcement. The girls will be sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary.

They will visit the college during the week of June 13-19. At the college they will observe the student government meetings. They will also spend a day in Raleigh, where they will visit the capitol and other places of historical interest.

The girls were chosen on the basis of being physically and mentally alert, honest, and dependable. They must also be a member of the junior class and in the upper 1-3 of their class.

Around 250 girls, representatives from various North Carolina high schools, will attend the meeting.

Banquets, and swimming will be among the many activities that will take place during the week.

Jake Mitchell Gets Scholarship To Bob Jones

Jake Mitchell, GHS senior, was notified this week that he has received a work-loan scholarship to Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C. Scholarship is valued at $225.00.

Jake plans to study for the missionary ministry. After his graduation he plans to go to the South American missionary field.

While in high school Jake has been an active member of his class. He is treasurer of the Spanish club, assistant feature editor of the Hi News, chairman of the bulletin board committee, co-art editor of the '52 Gohisca, or the junior-senior decoration committee, cafeteria committee, a member of the Goldmasquers for three years, and he has held several homeroom offices. Jake is vice-president of the Johnson Homes youth organization.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell of Johnson Homes.

Goldmasquers Observe 10th Anniversary April 19

Goldsboro high school Goldmasquers are calling back their graduates to celebrate their tenth birthday and hold the first public award session in their ten-year history.

This will be Saturday evening, April 19, when three one-act plays will be shown.

When the group first organized in 1942 there was a verbal agreement that if the organization lasted ten years all members would make an effort to return to celebrate the occasion.

This year the Goldmasquers will become 10 years old. Starting in 1942 with 26 interested members, today over 1,300 students have passed through the department. Without any social functions, this group has worked hard to make their school one of the best in the country for the study of dramatic and radio arts. Today all its members can stand and look at their achievement.

All Invited for Occasion

The Goldmasquers invite all Goldsboro to join in this celebration with them. For many, who have worked to build what is known as "The South's Outstanding Theatre for Youth" this is a great event.

Presentation of the three one-act plays to be shown at the Carolina Drama Festival will follow the presentation of the awards. The cast for Thornton Wiler's, "The Long Christmas Dinner" is: Nancy Parker, Ronnie Rose, Peggy Hawkins, Steve Dail, Carl Kassell, Nancetta Hudson, Jewel Best, Betty Jinnette, Charles Faust, Betty Ann Cooke, William Ginn, Jo Ann Williams, Irma Best, Mary Ruth Montague, Shir-

Seniors Visit ECC For A Day

Twenty seniors along with three chaperones spent the day at East Carolina College a week ago.

First on the entertainment program for the students was a musical program by the college choir and band. Following this was the welcome by the president, Dr. Messick.

The students saw the first and last scenes of the current musical comedy at the college, "Good News," after which lunch was served on the picnic grounds.

Last on the program to complete the day was a ball game, tea-dance and a tour of the grounds and buildings.
