Rev. Charles Bray Assembly Speaker

"Remember thy creator in the days of thy youth," was the theme used by Evangelist Charles Bray as he spoke at the SA devotion Friday, April 4.

Mr. Bray was accompanied by Rev. Frank Johnson, pastor of the Hopewell Baptist Church, where Mr. Bray was then holding a revival. He is now speaking each night through April 20 at the Johnson Homes Community Church.

The speaker said that there is now a socialized gospel in America but the need is for a true and divine gospel of Christ. He said that youth can be a wonderful thing or either it can be a tragedy and that it is up to the youth to decide which it will be.

Mr. Bray is from Reidsville and is a graduate of Bob Jones University.

N.H.S. Members Attend Meeting

Members of the National Honor Society attended a convention held in Asheville, April 3-5.

Mela Royall, Jasine Hart and Carolyn Harwell were the official delegates.

Sally Edgerton lead a discussion group.

Other members attending were Pat Marshall, Karl-Heinz Wittke, arranged by Noble Cain; and "Noby Knows the Trouble I've Seen," also a spiritual. They re-ceived an excellent rating.

Emily Newman and Craven Malpass received superior rat-ing. Emily sang "In the Woods" by Beitz; Craven song, "Go Down Moses."

The Boys Quartet received a rating of good.

The Glee Club was competing against towns with class "A" schools. Among them were Ra-leigh, Durham, and Greensboro.

Some of the schools that re-ceived superior rating sang class "B" music while our Glee Club sang all class "A" music.

It is the first time in the his-tory of GHS that the music de-partment has won any awards. The music department is ex-pecting a large enrollment for the next years of '52 and '53.

The meeting was March 12.
