DURWOOD WIGGINS

LOUIS EDWARD MARRINER

Durwood Franklin Wiggins, a well-known participant in sports in GHS started his sports career by playing baseball with the Wayne County boys' club.

In Durwood's sophomore year he played junior football and varsity baseball. In his junior year he played left guard on the varsity football team in which he showed up very well. He is now playing first base on the baseball team and he is co-captain.

Durwood is a member of the varsity club.

Durwood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wiggins of 504 East Ash street. He has brown eyes, black hair, and weighs 165 pounds. He was born in Goldsboro, in 1933.

After graduation he plans to attend the University of North Carolina to study pharmacy.

On July 4, 1935, was born one of our sportraits this issue.

Louis started his sports career by playing three years of baseball and two years of basketball for the Wayne county boys' club.

Louis, a junior, started his sports career in GHS in his sophomore year by playing junior football. At the start of his junior year Louis was a regular on Coach Norris Jeffery's squad and because of his fine playing he was sent up to the varsity squad and there he remained for the rest of the season.

When basketball rolled around he played for his homeroom in the intramural league. Now he is a pitcher on Coach Clyde White-ner's baseball team.

Besides sports Louis is a very active member of the Goldmasquers and at the present time he is serving as house manager.

Louis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Marriner, 1305 East Elm Street, has a 5' 11" frame with green eyes, brown crewcut hair, and big feet.

His favorite pastimes are eating, sleeping, girls and sports.

Louis is yet undecided about his college choice but sportraits wishes him the best of luck.
