

News shorts

VICA competes

On April 3, 1981, the VICA Club competed in various contests with different county schools at Northern Nash High School.

Senior High won two second place trophies for the club business procedure and the display contest. Participants and winner in the club procedure were Barry Rehm, Rowland Waters, Beverly Roach, Lucille Adams, Jocial Parker, Rick Barrett and Patty Barrientos. In the display contest the winners were Bobby Leggins, Bill Newton, Cherie Batt and Mark Gentry.

Presentation on criminal law

Guest speaker Attorney Susan Van Dyke Jackson, made a presentation on "criminal law" during second period on March 31st in the auditorium. This served as a supplement to the criminal justice chapter in American Government.

Art show

Art teacher, Karen Riggs had a one woman art show which began on April 13 at Peoples Bank. The show will run for two weeks. Her show consists of pencil drawings. Miss Riggs has been working on these drawings for about a year.

Students to visit Spain

Miss Carol Taylor and Mrs. Jane Parvin are preparing for their trip to Spain on April 17. Two sophomores Jane Gill and Tracy Rea, will be going with them. "I'm very excited because we'll be going to places that I haven't seen before up along the Mediterranean Coast," said Mrs. Parvin.

FHA HERO

Representatives of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter attended the 1981 Leadership meeting of the North Carolina Association of FHA/HERO along with over 4,000 members and advisers from across the State. "We Are Family" was the theme of the 1981 meeting which was held at the Raleigh Civic Center on March 28.

Attending the convention were 35 student delegates and two advisers. The rally was an all-day event consisting of speaker, Dr. William Purkey, Professor of Education at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The FHA/HERO mother-daughter banquet and fashion show will be coming up in April.

Teacher visits

The master teacher-internship, a project conducted by the department of Occupational Education at North Carolina State University, allowed Mrs. Judy Clark to come here for two days to observe Ms. Shirley Bullock's classes.

Mrs. Clark, a first year Vance Senior High School teacher, learned new teaching techniques and gained knowledge concerning different types of presenting material to her classes from her experiences in Ms. Bullock's classroom.

"I really enjoyed this opportunity," Mrs. Clark said. "I was very impressed with the student body here."

Typing contest

Senior Becky Bullock and sophomore Paula Varnett, first year typing students, and sophomore Trevor Turnage and senior Karen Zeiger, second year typing students, competed in the 30th annual Typewriting contest at East Carolina University in Greenville on Wednesday, March 25.

Twenty students competed in math contests at East Carolina University and Atlantic Christian College. The participating students are front row: Mary Hoskins, Brent Bunn, Paige Harrington, Jenifer Odom, Hilary Cooper, Ed Brown and Anna Carmody. Second row: Jochen Stober, Hyrong Park, Price Cherry, Brent Bunn, Robert Whitaker, Ted Reese and David Hurchella. Back row: Eric Kron, Scott Cooper, Eddie Bowman, Terri Bryant, Susan Dresser, Kerri Kolehma.

Students compute in math contest

By KATHY MILLS

Local math teams placed second in the annual math contest held at East Carolina University and placed fifth out of 27 schools in the regional math contest held at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson.

The team of seniors Terri Bryant, Price Cherry, Mary Hoskins, Hyrong Park and Ted Reese; juniors Anna Carmody, David Hurchella, Robert Whitaker, Brent Bunn, Patrick Kirkland and Ed Brown; sophomores Eddie Bowman, Paige Harrington, Eric Kron, Jennifer Odom and Hilary Cooper competed at East Carolina University.

In this contest Ted placed first and Hyrong placed fourth among the individual winners in the comprehensive division. The team placed second overall in the comprehensive division. In the Algebra II division, the team won second place, and Ed was third among individual winners. In the Geometry division, Paige placed fourth among the individual winners.

The team of seniors Susan Dresser, Scott Cooper, Kerri Kolehma, Jochen Stober and junior Steve Hicks competed at the contest held at Atlantic Christian College.

In placing fifth out of 27 participating schools at Atlantic Christian they were only two points off the winning scores.

Sophs elected at convention

By MIKE BARNHILL

Two local students were elected to office at the 1981 Eastern District Convention of the North Carolina Association of Student Councils.

Sophomore Chuck Robbins was elected special representative. If the present eastern district president should resign, Chuck will take her place as president.

Sophomore Jeannette Everette was elected district five chairperson, taking the place of former district five chairperson, senior Terri Bryant.

Terri served as division five chairperson last year, and at the convention this year, she headed up a district five workshop.

Others who attended the convention include Student Representative Assembly President Dale Gray, seniors Angela Pittman, Barbara Williams, Susan West and advisers Mrs. Sue Hayworth and Mrs. Kathrine Lucas.

The convention was held March 28 and 29. The convention's theme was "Student Leaders: Designers of Tomorrow."

There were workshops relating to student involvement, birth control, teen pregnancy and drug abuse.

"The majority of the sessions were very informative, and the overall atmosphere was very friendly," Dale said.

"Our students were really involved," Mrs. Hayworth said. "Mrs. Lucas and I were very proud of them."

108-A South Boddie St., P. O. Drawer 628
Nashville, N. C. 27856

OFFICE PHONE 442-7156 POST OFFICE BOX 2221

COMMERCIAL BUILDERS, INC.

DEVELOPMENT - CONSTRUCTION - MANAGEMENT

MIKE BARNHILL ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. 27801

COLONEL SANDERS' RECIPE

Kentucky Fried Chicken®

2 Rocky Mount Locations

Hwy. 301 & 64 - 442-7390

328 Arlington St. - 442-3617

BEKINS

Harrison Moving
And Storage

Local & Long Distance
446-6969 (Collect)