

THE GIRLS OF SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAIN THE BOYS

The girls of the Senior Class entertained the boys of the class and the teachers at a George Washington party Monday night, February 23 at the home of Creelman Rowland. The house was attractively decorated with hatchets and flags appropriate for the occasion. Hearts dice was played at seven tables. This was followed by progressive conversation. The most entertaining feature of the evening was a mock wedding, in which Miss Brabham and Mr. Teeter were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The other participants in the wedding were as follows: Bride's father, Raymond Snyder; best man, Arthur Patterson; minister, Ernest Wheat'ey; dames of honor, Miss Rigby, Miss Wessinger; maid of honor, Mrs. Cubbage, Pauline Ingram; bride's maids, Essie Lowder, Ora Mae Hill, Doletta Bost; groomsmen, George Snuggs, Delmar Turner, Mr. Cubbage, Jack Skidmore; ring bearer, Louise Parker; flower girl, Edith Widenhouse.

Just prior to the ceremony Mr. Bumgarner sang, "The Fight Is On," in his usual charming manner, accompanied on the piano by Martha Austin. The bridal party entered to the strains of "Charley, My Boy." "Doodle Doo-Doo" was jazzily played during the ceremony. The impressive ring ceremony was used with Rev. Ernest Wheatley, officiating.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream, topped with cherries, and hatchet cakes were served. Miniature hatchets were given as favors.—E. Widenhouse.

DECLAMER'S CONTESTS TO BE HELD SOON

(Roy Whitley.)

This year we have received a number of letters from the different colleges of the state inviting us to send a representative to each one to participate in the annual declamation contest.

At Lenoir-Rhyne College the contest will be held on March 27. This date coincides with the triangular debate.

Last year the writer was the representative at that college. A good time was given him, and it was a pleasure to him to be there.

The contest will be held some time in April at Wake Forest. The exact date is not known by the writer. We did not have a representative at that college last year.

It is not known as yet who will be the representative this year. A call for them will probably be issued at an early date.

A Story.

Six-year-old Mary awoke at 2 o'clock in the morning.

"Tell me a story, mamma," she pleaded.

"Hush, dear," said the mother, "daddy will be in soon and tell us both one."

Humoring the Patient.

Doctor—"Your master is decidedly better, Thompson, but very irritable. He mustn't be thwarted.

Thompson—"He expressed a desire to wring my neck, sir."

Doctor—"Well—ah—humor him."
