

RECEPTION GIVEN NEW TEACHERS

On Thursday evening, September 26, at the Legion Hut, the Parent-Teacher's Association entertained at a reception for the teachers of the Albemarle City Schools.

Parents and teachers were met by Mrs. J. H. Morrow, who introduced them to the receiving line composed of officers of the P. T. A., members of the school board and their wives, and the new high school teachers, Misses Rose Laws, Gladys Watson, Martha Lockhart, Gladys Hicks and Messers Hatley and McFadyen.

During the evening, Frances Reeves and Betty Sue McColl, and Mr. Paul Fry rendered a musical program.

Refreshments were served to over three hundred who attended.

* * *

MANY ATTEND GAMES

Those that attended the Salisbury-Albemarle game in Salisbury, on Saturday, September 28, were: Louise Lorch, Adele Thackston, Banks Holt, Ellen Moose, Elizabeth Lyerly, Clara Griffin, Dora Gene Martin, Jeff Sikes, Geraldine Rogers, Kathryn Palmer, Henry Brown Efird, Frances Henning, Martha Morrow, Kathleen Rogers, Virginia Long, Edna Efird, Charles Castevens, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel, Mr. McFadyen and Mr. Kelly.

The following people attended the Concord-Albemarle game in Concord on Friday, October 4: Wilhelmina Efird, Geraldine Rogers, Rebecca Auten, Louise Lorch, Adele Thackston, Clara Griffin, Helen Cooper, Pauline Hatley, Hattie Neal Mauldin, Kathlyn Morton, Gladys Efird, Peggy Efird, Frances Henning, Ruth Thackston, Ann Parker, Frances Horton, Frances R. McColl, Laura Maie Shaver, Jeff Sikes, Richard Cashatt, Miss Laws, Mr. Fry, Mr. Grigg and Mr. Hatley.

* * *

The former Advisor of the Full Moon, Mrs. Otis Hedrick, née Miss Ethel Merritt, is now teaching English in the Lexington High School.

* * *