

CAMPUS CHATTER

Well, the old gossipier is back again learning all he can about the "run-arounders". Although school has been in session only a few weeks, there are plenty of tales to be told.

That Smith-McColl affair is still serious, judging from the mail...The Lorch-Curlee team is also going strong...by the way, aren't the freshmen green this year? They seem to get worse and worse...We have plenty of new teachers....and which one of our senior girls is "that way" about Mr. McFadyen?....We hear that Palmer girl in the junior class had a good time October 3, 1935 A. D. She seems to be very popular with a certain blonde senior, too! What senior boy receives punishment by not having his car when he desires?...Better be careful, James Brown, all your girls will be snatched away.....Looks like the Boger-Winget case isn't going to land on the rocks any time soon....Where does Franklin get all of his sex appeal? It seems that all the junior lassies fell for him at once. Too bad they're all such good friends. How do you do it, Franklin?What's being said about the Moose-Fields case? I hear she did a little "two-timing" and then got sorry for it. She had him going for a while, but it looks as if he has her going now. "Turn about is fair play".....What senior boy has good-year tires on his Plymouth?....I know two people who would make a good-looking couple - our football coach and that new, good-looking, tall, blonde teacher....and which teacher changed the most during the summer?.....How are the circles and squares getting along, Adele?...A certain senior girl blushes every time she hears a motorcycle....I wonder whom our football star, who made a feature run in the Salisbury football game, has on his mind for an "S.P." Be careful, blue-eyed gal!..... What is this that Becky is crocheting?...I understand that Paul Franklin is thrilled because of the fact that he is seated at a certain table in physics!

Well, I suppose I'll sign off, since I've written enough gossip for the beginning of the school year.

So long until next issue,

Ye Olde Gossiper
