

CLUBS HAVE PARTIES

Section B of the Black Mask Dramatic Club, sponsored by Mr. McFadyen, was entertained at a party Friday evening, November 1, at the Central Methodist Church.

After an exciting treasure hunt, the guests were served sandwiches, orangeade and peanuts.

- - - -

On Friday, October 24, the Jane McKimmon Home Economics Club met in room 53, where members were entertained at a Halloween party. A color scheme of orange and black was carried out in the decorations. Upon their arrival, guests were initiated. Then followed games and contests. Refreshments consisting of hot chocolate, doughnuts, candy, peanuts and apples were served.

- - - -

The French Club, under the direction of Miss Laws, held its meeting on Wednesday, November 13, in room 49. After a short business session all members accepted an invitation to the dining-room of the Home Economics department. Each found at his place a favor on which his name was written in French. A sweet course with hot chocolate was served.

- - - -

MANY ATTEND MONROE-ALBEMARLE GAME

Those attending the Monroe game were: Louise Lorch, Doris Roberts, Adele Thackston, Geraldine Rogers, Wilhelmina Efird, Rebecca Auten, Virginia Boger, James Brown, Laura Maie Shaver, Joel Doby, Richard Cashatt, Henry Efird, W. C. Correll, Ellen Moose, Frances Reeves and Betty Sue McColl, Max Copley, Woodrow Almond, Odell Townsend, James Copple, Miss Caughman, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Grigg, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel and Mr. Hatley.

- - - -

TEACHERS AND GRADE REPRESENTATIVES ENTERTAINED

On Friday evening, November 8, Mrs. Lloyd Skidmore entertained all teachers and grade representatives in the cafeteria of the grammar school. Mrs. J. H. Morrow, president of the P. T. A., presided over the group who elected Mrs. S. L. Gullede chairman of the membership committee. Mrs. Watt Efird read the list of prominent speakers who will appear on programs during the school year. The hostess, assisted by several teachers, then served Russian tea and wafers.