

School News

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

On November 4, the second section of the Black Mask Dramatic Club presented in chapel the one-act farce, "Silence Please". A fur coat and a month's dish washing were the stakes in a bet of silence between Linnie East and James Fry. Mildred Little and Margaret Smith capably acted the part of the astonished visitors who walked in unexpectedly. The play, directed by Mr. McFadyen, is the first of a series of four or five to be presented by the group throughout the year.

* * * *

Section three of the tenth grade, Mr. Hatley's home room, gave a program in the auditorium during chapel period Friday, November 8. The entertainment consisted of a stunt and an old-fashioned wedding with appropriate music and costumes.

* * * *

A program on Mark Twain was presented by Mr. Fry's section one of the ninth grade in chapel on Friday, November 15. The program was dedicated to Samuel L. Clemens, better known as Mark Twain, since the centennial of his birth was celebrated on November 1. A sketch of Mark Twain's life was given over the radio by Anne Parker. Hilda Foreman gave a reading from Mark Twain entitled "The Jumping Frog of Colaveras County". The program ended with a stage dramatization of "How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed the Fence."

* * * *

The celebration of Book Week was begun in high school on Monday, November 18, with a dramatized reading of "Alice in Bookland", presented in the auditorium by Miss Menius's freshman section of the Dramatic Club. The program related Alice's adventures in the magical land of fiction, where she met the following characters: Red Riding Hood, Virginia Drowell; Witch, Virginia Stone; Cinderella, Jane Morrow; Huck Finn, Jack Dowless; Robinson Crusoe, Bill Furr; Ivanhoe, Bobbie Morrow; Uncas, James Greene; D'Artagnan, Kenneth Brooks; Old Fashioned Girl, Leah Rose King; Romola, Ila Lee Knotts; Beatrix Esmond, Sunshine Underwood; Hamlet, Jack Castevens; The Narrator, Ann Winecoff; Alice, Peggy Efird.

* * * * *