

CAMPUS CHATTER

Well, there's plenty of news, because we haven't gossiped since Christmas, and many things have happened since then.... Most of the girls were so good before Christmas that when their dispositions changed afterwards, the change was so noticeable that many love affairs were thrown on the rocks... We hear that Boger girl gets letters from Carolina in code form. If you've ever seen his writing, you'll know what I mean!....The Wilcox lass didn't mind doing her vocational work during Christmas vacation. Some nurses will fall in love with their patients!....There's a girl in high school who realizes it's leap year. Someone told us that she had a date with him the night when her grocery truck driver had to work....How're you doin', Linnie? At least he's a good dancer. And is this leap year!!...Too bad for some of the Senior girls that last year's handsomest senior boy fell for a northern girl who was visiting here....A certain fellow insists that his girl likes the mountains....I have an idea she's two-timing you, Robert. What do you think?...Who is Orge's girl? It seems to be a mystery...And is this Fishburne boy writing to the Efirid girl? It wasn't told to us - we only heard!....There are several girls who have something in common up here. I guess everyone likes truck-drivers....We hear quite a bit of singing around the high school such as "Looking for the Laundry", to the tune of "The Postman Passes My Door". We know two girls who'll be singing "Looking for the Groceries"....What happened between Ralph and "Will"? It's all a mystery to us!...Be seeing you next issue. It you learn anything new, just send it to
