Spiders Defeat Bulldogs 7 to 0

In a fast and well-played game the Concord Spiders proved to be too much for the Albemarle Bulldogs, Friday night at Concord, when they defeated Albemarle high by the score of 7-0.

The only touchdown of the game came in the latter part of the second period. The running attack, led by Walters, Barrier, and Allen, netted 60 yards and a touchdown. Walters carried the ball point was made by a line plunge. "Buck" Mabry, Albemarle half-back in the second period, made a 60-yard run by slipping out of the hands of Concord tacklers and by doing some good side-stepping. The ball was brought back because the whistle had blown before he had slipped out of several tacklers' arms.

The second period showed a different picture. Albemarle's passing attack started clicking and accounted for great gains. Albemarle's defense was much better in the second half. A Concord drive was stopped by the Bulldogs on their own two-yard line. A passing attack led by Mabry, Blackwell, Williams and Furr placed them on Concord's 12-yard line, but a fighting Concord team would let them advance no farther. Concord made nine first downs, to Albemarle's seven. All seven of Albemarle's first downs came in the last quarter. Walters, Barrier and Allen, each making good runs, were the outstanding players for Concord. Blackwell, Mabry and Williams, in the backfield, and Paul Mann in the line were the outstanding players for Albemarle.

First Period. Concord kicked off to Concord and the ball was returned from the 25-yard line to the 35-yard line. After making small gains, Allen punted to Albemarle's 10-yard line. Mabry returned the ball 23 yards to the 33-yard line. The remainder of the quarter was a punting duel between Williams, of Albemarle, and Allen, of Concord. The ball was Albemarle's possession as the quarter ended.

Second Period. Williams punted off Paul Mann, Albemarle tackle, was down fast and hit the Concord safety man hard before he could gain any ground. The Concord backs picked up one first down before the ball went to Albemarle on downs. After making small gains, Williams about eight yards, Concord backs on reverses and spinners marched 59 yards for a touchdown. A line plunge was good for an extra point. Concord kicked off to Albemarle and Williams returned it to his 35-yard line. The half ended after Albemarle had picked up four yards on a reverse and lateral.

Third Period. Concord kicked off to Albemarle's eight-yard line. Williams returned it to his 25-yard line. Being unable to gain ground, Albemarle punted to Concord's 45-yard line. Concord made one first down before exchanging the ball on their own two-yard line. Concord then started an drive that netted three first downs and a stand on Albemarle's two-yard line. Albemarle's line then held their ground and took possession of the ball on their two-yard line. Williams passed from his end zone to Bill Furr, left end, for 23 yards at the quarter ended.

Fourth Period. Albemarle took up where they left off and made two first downs before punting. Paul Mann, Albemarle tackle, was down fast and stopped Blackwelder before he could make any gain. Concord then punted to stand on Albemarle's line. Albemarle took possession of the ball on the 20-yard line. Passes from Allen and Blackwell set a good running game Albemarle three first downs. Williams then punted and the ball was returned to the Concord 20-yard line. Walters punted to the Albemarle 45-yard line. With one and one-half minutes to play, Williams passed to Blackwell for 15 yards and a first down. Two one plays and a penalty against Concord gave Albemarle another first down. Blackwell passed to Mabry for an eight-yard gain, which placed Albemarle on Concord's 12-yard line.

Although fighting hard the Bulldogs were unable to get through the Concord line. The half went to Concord on downs. The game ended with the ball in Concord's possession.

Bulldogs Triumph Over Watts, 7 to 0

On September 17 at the Efiré park the Albemarle Bulldogs won the first grid game of the season when they defeated the Badin Watts by the score of 7-0. The only score of the game came when Blackwell caught a short pass and raced 40 yards to the Badin 12-yard line. "Ikey" Williams carried the ball over, and Mabry's placement kick was good for the extra point. Austin, who showed up well by his running, kicking, and passing, was the most outstanding player from Badin.

Volley Ball Courts Are Opened

Students who desire recreation and who are not out for any sports have the opportunity of participating in various exercises during the lunch period, under the supervision of Coach Canipe. Volley ball courts, for both boys and girls, have been made at the rear of the school building. Enough equipment is available for boys and girls to have a substantial game. The courts are not on the high school quad, boys may play with the football all year.

Cheer Leaders Selected

Because of their pep and initiative the following members of the Boosters' club have been appointed as cheer leaders: Inez Osborne, who is president of the Boosters' club; Peggy Efrid, Bill and Jo Hornbuckle, Frances Henning and Douglas Cranford.

Sidney Gullidge was supposed to be selling brushes in a salesmanship practice in English club. Carl Furr, prospective cheer leader, asked "What colors do you have?" Sidney's ready response was, "All colors—soft, hard, and medium."
