

SPORTS

CLYDE McDOWELL, Editor

Bulldogs Lose to Children's Home

The Bulldogs of A. H. S. journeyed to Winston-Salem Friday night to tangle with the Methodists of Children's Home and will off of best after two very exciting games. The boys lost 26-21 with Williams 6. For the Methodists, Gibson and Suggs were high with 8 and 6 points. The Albemarle girls dropped the game to the Methodists girls 33-11.

Bulldogs Split Bill With Yellowjackets

The Albemarle Bulldogs split a double-header with the Salisbury Yellowjackets here January 11. The Bulldog "B" team downed the Junior Varsity from Salisbury 22-16, while the Yellowjackets came back in the second game and defeated the Bulldogs 21-7 in a hard-fought battle.

The "B" team's attack was led by Williams and Gulleuge, who scored 8 points each. The high scorers for Salisbury's Junior Varsity were Nusman with 7 points and Cozzen with 4 points.

Although the Bulldogs showed a good defense, they were unable to match the Yellowjacket offense. Paul Mann with 4 points and P. Williams with 2 points were the high scorers for Albemarle. High scorers for Salisbury were Manning with 7 points and Monroe with 6.

Bulldog Star Gets Honorable Mention In State Grid Roll

In an annual pick of the All-State Football team conducted by the Charlotte News, Paul ("Ikey") Williams was given honorable mention as a back. Williams, a good passer, punter, runner, and one of the best blockers in the state, was fullback and co-captain of the Bulldogs during the past season.

Compliments of . . .
Cabarrus Bank and Trust Co.

Compliments of . . .
Albemarle Bldg. & Loan Ass'n
Hotel Albemarle Building

Football Players Awarded Letters

On period January 10 during the championship Coach Canipe presented 15 boys with football letters. These boys, Douglas Cranford and Bailey Gulleuge, received letters for their service as managers.

After Coach Canipe presented the letters, he said, in praise of the players, "Although the boys lost a majority of the ten games played, they showed a real fighting spirit throughout the season. Those boys scored 95 points as compared to 105 points scored by opponents. That's a difference of only 13 points in scores, which shows that the boys had many close games. The boys, when behind, usually fought harder and looked better than at any other time."

Besides the school requirement of passing at least three subjects, of passing at least three quarters in at least 20 quarters before he was awarded a letter. The boys receiving letters were Carl Parker, "Ikey" Williams, "Buck" Barry, Bill Mann, Sherman Lowder, Roy Lester, Wade Denning, Max Morton, Ted Wallace, Lafayette Blackwell, Riley McSwain, Paul Mann, Bill Parr, "Ed" Swanner, and Charles Cateveas.

Bulldog Cagers Win Over Watts

In the opening basketball games of the season the Albemarle Bulldogs defeated the Basin Watts in a double-header played on the court here before about 500 spectators January 7. The girls won 29-18, while the boys defeated the Watts 30-24.

The Albemarle girls showed a powerful defense and ability to shoot well. Shankle, with 12 points, and Edith Mauldin, with 12 points, were high scorers for Albemarle, while Leonard, with 8 points, was high scorer for Basin.

In the boys' game, the Bulldogs were unable to get an early start. At the half Albemarle was trailing 16-4, but in the second half they came back strong to take a thrilling victory. Paul Mann, with 9 points, and Bill Mann, with 7 points, were high scorers for Albemarle. Blair, with 14 points, and Austin, with 5, were high scorers for Basin.

Compliments of . . .

Teacher: "How would you punctuate this sentence: The wind blew a ten-dollar bill around the corner."
Student: "I would make a dash after the bill."

Compliments of . . .
G. M. DRY & SON

— The Best Buy Test —
"Perfection" and "Cream Crust" . . .
"Perfection" CAKES
"On Sale At Your Grocers"
SMITH'S BAKERY

Netters To Open Season In February

Getting to Coach Boys' Team.
Tennis practice will start Monday, February 7, with Mr. Gehring in charge for 1938. It is believed that there will be more out this year than ever before. Those who were on the team last year are and returning this spring are Bill Mann, Max Russell, Carl Helms, Paul Long, Oron Rogers, and Bill Fulton.

One match has already been arranged with Hargrave Military Academy, the games to be played at Albemarle. Thomas Loftin, former A. H. S. tennis star, plays on Hargrave's team again this year.

Other teams which Albemarle will probably play are Concord, Wingate Junior College, Pfeiffer Junior College, Spencer, Salisbury, and Basin.

Favorite Expressions Of Girls' Basketball Squad

1. Miss Holt—"Make those shots good. Keep your eye on the ring. Forwards, listen to Mr. Hatley!"
2. Mr. Hatley—"I can tell you, but I can't show you. Remember as long as you've got the ball, the other side get it." Carl
3. Hazel Mauldin—"I'll do it next time."
4. Frans Hatley—"Oh, my goodness!"
5. Virginia Long—"My legs got twisted. My bones hurt."
6. Rachel Shankle—"Don't hit the 'backboard,' (backboard)."
7. Lucille Green—"I can't ring that real."
8. Keith Carpenter—" (Never speaks) Blast a tank, blank."
9. Grace Cranford—"I'll give you one of my pills."
10. Mabel Watson—" (Giggles) "Aw, heck."
11. Margaret Hutchins—"Shucks."
12. Emma Rose Brooks—"Open up there."
13. Virginia Gilliam—"I've been waiting a week. I should be 14."
14. Frances Henning—"This floor's too slicky."
15. Ramele Burleson—"When I get my new shoes, I'll run."
16. Ann Henning—"I'll never be able to shoot as long as I live."
17. Virginia Saffit—" (Water boy) and business manager—"Where in the world is Bailey? Miss Holt said don't drink too much H<sub>2</sub>O."
18. Edith Mauldin—"All right, guards, bring it on down to house. They ain't nobody home but me, 'Shank' and 'Ginnie.'"

Answers To Questions

1. 52,426.
2. 2,179,276.
3. "Esse quam videri" which means "to be rather than to seem."
4. On Kill Devil Hill, off Roanoke Island, December 17, 1865.
5. At Durham, N. C.
6. Thru Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and Andrew Johnson.
7. It has more cotton mills than any other state.
8. There have been found 289 species and subspecies.
9. A bibliography is a list of authorities on a subject.
10. Necessary.

Compliments of . . .

Albemarle Drug Company
"The Friendly Drug Store"

Compliments of . . .

"DAFFYNTIONS"
Definitions of words which an English teacher received:
Puppet: Very small dog.
Grudge: A place where auto are kept.
Acquie: A group of church singers.
Paradox: Two ducks.
Touper: Indian shoddy.
Letter: A batch of puppies.
Pence: Trouser.
Nerts: Doctor's assistants.
Sardines: Crap's children.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT
Believe it or not, a man was killed by a dead horse.
This incident occurred about twenty-five years ago in St. Louis, Kentucky. When several people attempted to remove a dead horse from a wagon, one of the men's legs of the horse flew back and struck a man in the stomach, killing him instantly.
—Blondell Lowder.

11-1 Gives Farce

A most entertaining and enjoyable chapel program was presented by the members of Miss Laws' home-room December 17. An amusing farce, "Fish Care," was given by the following: Mary Martha Morrow and Jean Hurt. Catherine East, Douglas Cranford, and Bill Mann were the judges. Following the play a short monologue, "Naming the Twins," was given by Marjorie Tucker.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

One of our senior girls is said to be married? (Sh— it's a secret!)
Paul Long doesn't prefer blondes any more?
Jack and Hilda are on the rocks again?
Warren is learning to skate?
Ralph H. can't make up his mind?
Riley Mc. prefers the blonde type?
Bruce Saunders is in school again?
Mabel T. has a black eye? (Are you married, Mabel?)
James Fry gave Lynnise E. a Christmas present?
Sherman's girl already has his new "A"?

Answer to Senior Impressions

- Girls.
1. Ernestine Morton.
  2. Marjorie Tucker.
  3. Frances Horton.
  4. Emma Rose Brooks.
  5. Margaret Hutchins.
- Boys.
1. Jack Rivers.
  2. Olyn Lowder.
  3. Charles Hopkins.
  4. William Fry.
  5. Joe Harward.

BALTIMORE Beauty Shop

Located Over Stearns Jewelry Store
PHONE 18
For Prettier Christmas Hair Get Your Permanent NOW!

Compliments of . . .

Albemarle Drug Company
"The Friendly Drug Store"

Compliments of . . .

Morrow Brothers & Heath Co.
INCORPORATED
Heavy and Shelf Hardware, Building Materials
Groceries, Seeds, Feeds, Fertilizers
— BUYERS OF —
Cotton, Cotton Seed and Other Farm Products

*REMEMBER— You Always Save at Belk's

BELK'S DEPARTMENT STORE
ALBEMARLE, N. C.

IF ANYONE HAS...

Been married
Borrowed a stamp
Made a speech
Robbed a bank
Sold a bet
Lost a dog
Found a dog

Committed suicide
Broken his neck
Gone shing
Shot a cat
Been away
Come back
Taken a vacation

Been in a fight
Got licked
Broken a shoestring
Made a bet
It's NEWS... Send it to us at once!
—HI LIFE, Newton High

A freshman does not know that he does not know that he does not know that he does not know that he knows, knows that he knows, knows that he knows everybody else to be the knows.—Selected.

Joe: "Mom, you said to have your eyes and dad didn't you?"
Mother: "Yes, darling."
Joe: "Well, you'd better him how cause he has Frank's teeth."
—HI LIFE, Newton High

BONERS
When the whole strudel men were knocked off of compact (impacted) I reckoned this book. He was of English descent).
Kiplink wrote the Book ("Recessional").

Compliments of . . .

EIFIRD'S Department Store
ALBEMARLE, N. C.

Compliments of . . .

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK