ALBEMARLE DEBATORS VICTORIOUS OVER CONCORD AT THOMASVILLE

Dramatic Dept. to Sponsor Festival

Six Plays to Be Given; Most Outstanding Actor and Best Play to Be Chosen by Vote.

By Mary Katherine East.
Beginning Friday, April 22, the Black Mask Dramatic Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Scarborough, will present a series of six plays in the first Albemarle High School Dramatic Festival. Students will attend chapel at activity periods successively from April 22 to April 29 to see the six one-act comedies.

The plays presented will be "Quiet, Please," "Mrs. Harper's Bazaar," "Someone for Bunny," "Thanks Awfully," "Yes, No, No," and "Knight-Lite." At the conclusion of the student-directed festival, the high school students and faculty will vote for the person which they considered the best actor and the play they considered best-all-around. The student voted the best actor, and each member of the cast of the play voted best will receive a prize. Only a nickel, to cover expenses, will be charged students to see all six plays. The festival is a humorous and entertaining, the type high school students enjoy.

This festival is being sponsored by a member of the Dramatic club and dramatic art class a chance to give in a public presentation. It is being looked forward to as one of the most enjoyable events of the year.

Seniors Choose Class Mascots

Virginia Helms and James Gullede Selected; Class Colors, Motto, and Flower Also Chosen.

In a class meeting held March 29, the seniors chose their mascot, motto, flower, and colors. The mascots selected are James Gullede, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Gullede, and Virginia Helms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bruce Lewis, of Meba, Oxford, Virginia. These will serve at graduation exercises for the class of 1938.

The motto chosen is "Build for character, not for fame." The class flower is red rose; the colors are blue and white.

Speakers To Go To Chapel Hill

Mary Katherine East, Estelle Jordan, Mary Lee Cantrell, Lee Copple Form Squad.

In the triangular debates held Friday, April 1, with Albemarle, Concord and Thomasville participating, both the affirmative and negative teams of Albemarle emerged victorious. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation."

The affirmative composed of Mary Katherine East and Estelle Jordan won over Concord at Thomasville, while Mary Lee Cantrell and Lee Copple of the negative were victorious over Thomasville at Concord.

The debaters will go to Chapel Hill to compete in the state finals to be held April 21, 22. This is the second consecutive year the Albemarle team, coached by A. B. Gibson, have won and been eligible to enter the finals. Last year Lee Copple, Mary Katherine East, and Estelle Jordan were three of the speakers composing the team that competed in the semi-finals at Chapel Hill.

Mr. Gibson regards the debaters as the best of the Albemarle has produced and thinks they will make a creditable showing in the finals.
