

WHO'S WHO

JANE MORROW

Mention wavy, reddish gold hair, twinkling blue eyes, gay musical laughs, attractive, becoming clothes, and poise to any A. H. S. student, and immediately he will think of our school pianist, Jane Morrow (an honest-to-goodness living dream-girl, fellows).

For eleven years, Jane has studied piano, so naturally with her talent, she is ambitious to be a musician. Reading and painting are her hobbies.

For dislikes she lists spinach, "who-done-it" movies, mathematics, litterbugs, and connotated people. Football (heroes?), originality, peppy people, dancing, traveling, Gary Cooper, Katherine Hepburn, music, French pastries, ("Umm, I could eat those things from now on!" Jane laughs) are her likes.

After graduation this spring, Jane plans to enter Salem college, where she will major in music.

NED BETTS

The maestro of A. H. S., that's Ned Betts—a threat to Benny Goodman if there ever was one! Having music in his bones, he plays the clarinet, saxophone, and trumpet. Dependable, witty, good-natured, happy-go-lucky, Ned is just a good all-round fellow.

He is secretary and treasurer of the Photography club, member of the Glee club and a tenor in the Methodist choir.

Among his many likes are Artie Shaw, Lionel Barrymore, pickles ("They're just the tops," he says), science, sleeping and swimming (his favorite sports!), photography and raising chickens. He has no dislikes, but says, "People are at their best when asleep."

He plans to graduate next year. Though he is not sure about college, Ned will probably follow music as a profession.

AMATEUR CANTO HELD DURING NOON

sical "training day" programs for noon hour entertainment. Judging from the enthusiastic attendance, the students evidently welcome these programs as "brighteners" for gloomy days.

"Won't you have a fork?"
"No, thanks, I never use forks. They leak so bad they ain't no use."

A man walked into a pool room and said: "I'll give a dollar to the laziest man in here."

A man lying on a billiard table said: "Be me over, buddy, and stick it in my pocket."—"The Pamlicoan, Washington, N. C."

"Three's a crowd and there were three."
He, the lamp, and lovely she; Two is company, and no doubt, That is why the lamp went out."
—Hi-Rocket.

"Even his best friend wouldn't tell him, so he flunked his exam."—Exchange.

He squeezed her in the dark and kissed her,
And for a moment bliss was his.
"Excuse me, but I thought it was my sister!"
She smiled and cooed, "It is!"

SOCIETY NOTES

Miss King Is Bride Of Leslie Feldman

Of interest to the high school is the recent marriage of Miss Leah Rose King, popular member of the graduating class, to Leslie Feldman on Sunday, March 5, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi William Greenberg of Charlotte. Mr. and Mrs. Feldman are living on South street in the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Gwendolyn Long Wed To Roy Morgan

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Gwendolyn Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Long, to Mr. Roy Morgan on Saturday, February 18, in Cherterfield, S. C. Mrs. Morgan was a member of the senior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are living at the home of the former's parents.

Weiner Roast Given By Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club entertained at a weiner roast on Morrow Mountain, February 27.

Bill Mann and Bailey Gulede were in charge of the program which consisted of stories, songs, and "hall tales". Ted Bremer won the "hall tale" contest.

Weiners and soft drinks were served to the members.

Black Masque Club Entertains Cast

Members of the Black Masque dramatic club entertained at a party February 27, in the cafeteria. The cast of "Growing Pains" were guests.

Entertainment consisted of games and dancing, including a little apple contest. Punch, cookies, and nuts were served to the club members and their guests.

EXCERPTS FROM SOPHS' DIARIES

Got another unexcused tardy today. Didn't tell Mr. G. this: I walked sorta slow thinking "Laffy" would catch up with me. (He didn't!) . . .

No lesson up. I did have good intentions, but when the gang comes by, it's so nice to ride around. . . . Especially with Furr driving. Taught him a little more Korean tonight.

Had a biology test on lungs. Walked out everything I did on my P. J.'s in sewing this morning.

That lunch bell sounded sweeter to me than Benny Goodman's swing does to jitterbugs.

Had fun jumping ropes at lunch. John Sals turns a mean rope. Talked to the one and only—no mention was made of the carnival or show. Heck! Haven't given up all hopes yet.

Tried to sleep through afternoon classes. It must be Spring fever. Phillips', as usual, after school. Peggy, Skimp and East sitting back relaxing.

Have about decided to take up nursing. Think I'd better if "Buck" keeps getting hungrier.

Went to game with Bob tonight. He had on one of those new-fangled shirts that hang out. Past my deadline when I got home. Thought I'd slip in—y'ou should have heard that dog barking.

My eyes are slowly but surely closing. (That end clock strikes eleven or twelve?) (The end of a perfect day???)
