

WHO'S WHO

SUE COBLE

"Five feet two, eyes of blue, Sweet Sue." Yes, that's Sue Coble, blond, neat, studious, sincere, and dependable. Her school record? She has been an honor student since she entered the first grade!

Among her likes are Gene Stratton Porter, tennis, typing, everything to eat, Deanna Durbin and Mickey Rooney. Sue hastily adds, "I like bass singers, too, and tubas!"

A dramatic enthusiast, Sue has acted in many plays, including the senior comedy. Also, she has been a member of the Dramatic club five years and the Summer Theatre, one year.

After graduation, she plans to continue with a secretarial career, at which she already has a head start.

WHAT A GIRL!

- Margaret Ridenhour's hair
- Virginia Crowell's eyes
- Menefee Bennett's disposition
- Martha Efrd's complexion
- Peggy Efrd's personality
- Pauline Beaver's figure
- Mary K. East's talent
- Jane Morrow's clothes

JACK WILLIAMS

Jack Williams, better known as "Crack," is one of the most outstanding athletes in high school, having been on the varsity football team two years, the baseball team three years, and the basketball team, of which he was co-captain during the past season, three years.

Naturally his main interest and activities are centered around his favorite sports, but as a member of the Boys' Glee club and the Presbyterian young people's choir, Jack has an interest in music.

"Crack" likes good sports, Rudyard Kipling, banana pudding, pineapples, fishing, Spencer Tracy, Ann Sheridan, and blondes; doesn't like "nosey" people, spinach, asparagus, and Hitler.

After graduation, "Crack" plans to enter aeronautics.

WHAT A MAN!

- Warren Perry's hair
- Buddy Roberts's eyes
- Bill Mann's voice
- "Sid" Gullidge's personality
- "Hod" Shankle's disposition
- Jack Williams's athletic ability
- James Greene's scholastic ability
- C. B. Efrd's talent

Newspaper Gets Excellent Rating

In the National Scholastic Press association contest, conducted by the School of Journalism at the University of Minnesota, the Full Moon received a first-class, excellent rating. A superior rating was awarded for a total score of 600 or above, and the score of the Full Moon was 650.

The publication was judged in the class of monthly papers, printed commercially, and belonging to a public high school with an enrollment between 500 and 899. Twelve papers rated first class in this group. There were 1,038 papers to be rated and the Full Moon was one of the 400 to receive the honor rating.

Clyde A. Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction, said in the April issue of the North Carolina Public School Bulletin, "The Full Moon, newspaper published by Albemarle High school, is a well-balanced publication and conveys to the reader a very good impression of many phases of the high-school program."

Black Masque Dramatic Club — Section Three

PERSONALITY?

The creative writing class has been trying to improve their personalities by writing their impressions of each other and reading them to the class. Although many threaten to sue for malicious slander, they have got results.

Masqueraders Tap Ten New Members

Ten students who had done outstanding work in dramatics were tapped into the Masqueraders, honorary dramatic society, in a special chapel program May 10. Following the tapping ceremony, Mrs. Ruth V. Everett, state dramatic representative-at-large, gave a talk about her experiences in directing plays.

Those tapped were Jeanne Hurt, Pauline Beaver, Lee Copple, Lydia Bowers, Virginia Stone, Bonnie McCubbins, Ila Lee Knotts, Peggy Efrd, Josephine Whitley, and Hoyle Whitley. Work in such phases of dramatic activity as make-up, costuming, properties, sound effects, prompting, publicity, stage management, and acting had been done by those recognized. The students received this recognition by unanimous vote of the active society members.

Charter members of the organization were officers of the Black Masque Dramatic club and committee chairmen. They are Mary Katherine East, Menefee Bennett, Leroy Plyler, Lyna Mae Easley, Sue Coble, Marie Deese, Douglas Cranford, Frank Deese, Rachel Burris, Lorene Melton, and Wade Underwood.

Black Masque Dramatic Club — Section Two

'Genny' Steals Show

An announced event stole the shown on Field day when Gilbert Russell brought his pet burro, "Genny," along to take it all in and march in the parade.

Mr. Gibson somehow became attracted to the little animal, who, in turn, eyed the principal mischievously. Finally it was too much. Mr. Gibson borrowed "Genny" and climbed gallantly on. Waving an imaginary ten-gallon hat and yelling "Hi Ho Silver," he was off! And your reporter means off, because "Genny" seemed to have other ideas about this gay escapade. She struck out across the athletic field as R. C. Hatley did in his younger days on Duke's basketball court! "Pahdner" Gibson held on for dear life, like a regular western bronco buster, but to no avail. The lone ranger of A. H. S. "bit the dust."

P. S. Where, oh, where was the photographer?

Hi-Y Club Elects Hatley President

Thomas Hatley has been chosen by the Hi-Y club to head the organization for next year. Thomas succeeds Sidney Gullidge in this capacity. Other officers chosen by the group are Lee Copple, vice president; Lamar Camp, secretary; Hoyle Whitley, treasurer; and Ray Lefler, chaplain.

For two consecutive years Thomas Hatley, active in many student affairs, has served as president of his class, and, during the past year, as treasurer of the Hi-Y club. He is also a member of the National Honor society and of the Student council.

Black Masque Dramatic Club — Section One

IMPRESSIONS OF STUDENTS

Nickname	Pastime	Hangout	Known by	Weakness	Ambition
1. "Wowo"	getting into trouble	at Carolyn's house	thoughtfulness	Bailey G.	to go to Europe
2. "Kat"	singing	choir practice	sweetness	"Hod" S.	to be an opera singer
3. "Peg"	dating	Badin lake	her looks	Wade A.	to be a cafe proprietress
4. "Haney"	flirting with Rachel	on the square	playing cowboy	Rachel B.	to learn to cook "fried lice"
5. "Joey dear"	drawing cowboys	Western Union	that country accent	Badin	to graduate (and how!)
6. "Bill"	driving	Badin	freckles	Kathryn Hardister	to be a T-model Ford mechanic
7. "Squeezer"	reading	home	height	"Candy"	to be a beauty operator
8. "Weiner"	rolling up her hair	chemistry lab.	her hair	"Crack" W.	to be a professional
9. "Dink"	riding a bicycle	anywhere Jack is	friendliness	Jack L.	to get a secretarial job
10. "Speerow"	laying out of school	drug store	his shirts	Maria E.	to be an engineer

(See Page Ten for Answers)

Palmer Furniture Company Inc.

Furniture Dealers and Funeral Directors

— Ambulance Service —

Phone 117 Albemarle, N. C.

STANLY

Thursday and Friday

June 1st and 2nd

"The Duke of West Point"

with Louis Hayward, Tom Brown, Richard

Carlson, Joan Fontaine

and Alan Curtis

PARAMOUNT NEWS

STANLY THEATRE