

P. T. A. Has Reception Honoring Teachers

The Parent Teachers Association of the Albemarle high school, Central Elementary school, West Albemarle school, entertained the new teachers at a reception held at the American Legion hut, Thursday night, September 19.

Miss Helen Ross and Mr. W. De Lotto of Albemarle High School; Miss Margaret E. Hall of the West Albemarle school, and Miss Helen Cunningham, Public School Music teacher.

The receiving line was made up of Mr. Grigg, the principals of the city schools, the trustees and the honor guests.

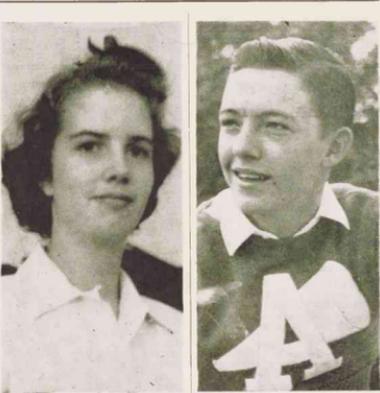

The party was invited to call between the hours of 8 and 10.

Punch and cakes were served.

Miss Freeman presided over the punch bowl assisted by Betty Ivy, Ann Henning, Betty Jean Wolfe, Helen Wentz, Josephine Heaver and "Ninky" Sanders.

Music during the evening was furnished by Mr. Fry.

WHO'S WHO

ELLEN HEARNE

Here she is, folks, where she has deserved to be for a long time. Yes, blond hair and a neverfading friendly smile spells Ellen Hearne.

Being outstanding in journalism and being editor of "The Full Moon" makes Ellen a well-known and popular member of the senior class. Last year "Hearne" was the assistant business manager of the "A H Script". She has proved to be very worthwhile in all her school career.

Ellen's childhood ambition was to travel around the world and to see everything. Today there is a change in ambition which persuades her better knowledge to choose the position of a buyer for a large department store.

Swimming and football are her favorite sports, while reading and loafing are her pet pastimes. She is a booster of popular music and "In my estimation," says Ellen, "I'll Never Smile Again" can't be beat.

Glenn Miller is tops among orchestra leaders and Walter Pidgeon, Bette Davis and Laurence Olivier are her high raters on the screen.

Ellen plans to go to the twelfth grade and is yet undecided as to which school she will attend after graduation.

DEWARD LEFLER

Vim, Vigor and Vitality. Honor Society president and head cheerleader. That, summed up, is Deward, commonly called "Jeward".

He likes girls, picture shows and sports. His dislikes are spinach and English.

In the reading line, he favors "Les Miserables" and "Gone With the Wind".

His choice of movie stars points to Errol Flynn and Hedy Lamar.

Like most other boys he loves cake, his favorite being fruit cake. Going to the show and loafing are two of his favorite pastimes.

Deward has an old Model A Ford of which he is very proud.

His favorite song is "Mood Indigo".

He used to like to hunt, but last Christmas while he was loading a gun, it went off and shot him in the left leg. He had to walk on crutches for weeks.

Deward's favorite expression is "Great Day!".

After graduating he plans to attend N. C. State college. There he will major in aeronautical engineering, but no matter what field he enters, we know he will succeed.

If We Only Could

Studying out loud several weeks ago turned out to be sort of silly for three girls: Doris, Mabel and Jerry.

Doris was reading Science orally and at the same time Jerry Deese was studying Biology in the same room and in the same manner. She was saying something about shield hings, straight wings, scale wings, half wings, nerve wings, etc.

A little later, Mabel, who wasn't getting much out of her history with all this going on, started reading out loud also. All of a sudden, Doris, who was going to say, "Let's stop up our ears," absently-minded said, "Jerry, let's just close up our wings so we can't hear each other talk."

FILMS TO ARRIVE BY TRUCK

Educational films, selected by the Science classes, are arriving by truck instead of by mail this year. This will allow more time for showing the pictures.

Seven New Teachers

College, is teaching eighth and ninth English and dramatics. Among her hobbies, which are horseback riding, swimming, knitting, and music, knitting is her hobby, although she is to begin a collection of phonograph records as a new hobby. Bette Davis, Norma Shearer, Errol Flynn, and Bill Powell are her movie favorites.

Mr. M. J. De Lotto, the new coach of A. H. S., is the next on our list. He teaches physical education, one of course his favorite sport is football. He also enjoys fishing.

He dislikes boys that think they know how to play football and can't. So you boys who are going out for football, take heed. His ambition is to have 200 boys playing football in A. H. S. So come on you boys and back us up! Chickens and athletics are his hobbies, and he has no favorite movie.

Now for the last (but certainly not least) of the group, Mr. H. C. McFadyen. Before he came here Albemarle High School has been given a bath! Yes, we mean it literally, too. While working on enjoying our summer vacation, janitors were hard at work scrubbing walls, mopping the building floor, washing windows and cleaning up in general.

The physics laboratories have been repainted and all woodwork, desks and chairs have been polished.

According to Haley, the biggest and most needed improvement made about the building was the installation of a fan on the southeast side of the campus for the burning of trash. This minimizes the possibility of a fire from flying sparks and prevents ashes and trash from scattering over the grounds.

Yes, we're starting off this year with a clean school!

to take the position of principal, he was principal of the Wicasset School. Among his many likes, he places ships first. When asked about his hobby he replied, "When you've got a baby, you don't have time for a hobby. But if I did have time, I would build ship models." He is going to get a picture of a ship, probably for his office to replace the one that now occupies the space on the wall in front of his desk.

He likes to watch football, play tennis, and swim. He likes airplanes, Dick Tracy, reading, music, teaching school, Gary Cooper, Dennis Durbin, "Fastiuth" and Easy—in fact, he likes most anything.

He dislikes "Bob" Taylor and Richard Greene.

It gets his goat for the phone to ring, six persons to come in and ask for seven different things, the express man to come with a package, someone come in for change, another person ask for the auditorium, all at the same time. But in spite of all that, he likes his job very much.

Well, that's all. What do you think of them now? They're all right!

DR. NARE SPEAKS

"Look ahead" was Dr. Dwight Ware's advice to Wicasset students of the A. H. S. Friday morning in assembly.

Ware advised students to come down to earth after the excitement of the ball games and also the summer. He asked them to forget the past and look into the future.

Efrid-Vester

Miss Annabel Vester, former ninth grade English teacher of Albemarle high school, became the bride of Crayon C. Efrid on Saturday morning, September 14. The wedding took place in Gibson Memorial Methodist church at Spring Hope, the home town of Miss Vester.

Mr. and Mrs. Efrid are building a new home in West Albemarle.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Jane Page Powell and John Tudor has been recently announced. The wedding will take place sometime in the fall.

Miss Powell is a former teacher of Albemarle high school and Mr. Tudor is connected with the Stantley News and Press.

FORMER TEACHERS HERE

Misses Rachel Nye and Jane Page Powell attended the last games of the Little World Series. Miss Powell was visiting Mrs. Wella Rogers and Miss Nye, Miss Willie Elbert.

Miss Nye also visited the high school while she was here.

MOST EMBARRASSING!

One day while Miss Hooker was keeping some students after school for talking in walked a nice looking young boy and asked, "Will you help me with some newspaper reports?" She reached in her desk for some paper, and guess what came out? A man's shirt collar. Did those students get a laugh and was she embarrassed? (Incidentally, Mr. Gehring occupied that room last year.)
