BULLDOG BARKS

It was first and ten for the Bulldogs in the opening minutes of the game with Spencer. The ball came spinning back from center to Blackwell, who on a reverse through the line, picked up four yards before he was stopped cold by the Spencer fullback. The play was through, and so was Lafayette. He slowly rose from the ground, shook his head as if bewildered, and after looking all about him in confusion, he called signals at the time, hesitated about asking for a sub because there were no sub backs, to the Legion expedition to Kennam. Several more plays were run, and Blackwell, confused and a bit on the dopey side, had to be taken from the game to be replaced by an unexperienced back. Upon reaching the sidelines, Lafayette was quickly put through the usual history lesson by the coach.

Who discovered America?" asked DeLotto.

Columbus," Lafayette quickly replied.

"When?"

"In 1492."

The coach heaved a sigh of relief over the fact that his varsity back was all right.

Several minutes had elapsed and the ball was being pushed into Spencer's territory by the Bulldogs. It was one of those moments that football fans live for. But not Lafayette. Slowly turning to the coach he asked, "Coach, do you really think Roosevelt will run for a third term?"

"In 1492," the coach a bit shocked, turned and yelled, "Is there a doctor in the crowd?"

Congratulations to Lexington high and Coach Tom Young for the grand team they have this season. Barring all accidents a war with Germany, and the draft, they should be able to cop the conference pennant again this year in a breeze. The boys have weight, speed, and ability, the three factors that determine the success of any football team. Their blocking is deadly and the punting of Bill Myers, captain and quarterback, should carry them through an unfeared season.

Their greatest asset will not be found in a gold jersey and silver helmet doing duty on the field. It consists of the largest and best organized cheering section to be found in the conference. Their yelling is timely, and they really "whoop" it up when something occurs that might mean an Indian touchdown.

A little colored boy dressed in a regulation uniform with white armbands marking his dark countenance in a row of battlescars, is always on hand to represent the fate of the previous Indian victim. He joggles about, always near the opponent's bench or dressing room, moaning the bluff that it's really dangerous to play a Lexington team. He adds a world of color to the games and never fails to bring a roar from the crowd.

All in all, Lexington can't be beat as a town for high school football.

Midgets Beaten By Barium Eleven

A. H. S. Bullpups lost their first game of the season 25-6, Monday, to a mighty Barium eleven.

The Bullpups did not show the potent power they had in the first two games they played. The team as a whole looked sluggish throughout the first three quarters. In the final quarter, they put on a drive that netted a touchdown. Barium scored on passes and plunges.

Bob Furr stood out in the backfield, playing his usual hard, head-up football. John Kennedy played a good game at defensive tackle.

Albemarle 44-Kannapolis 0
The Albemarle High Bullpups won their first game of the season by walking over the Kannapolis Midgets 44-0.

The Bullpups showed they had plenty of power in their blocking, running, and tackling. This began to show after the first period, when the Bullpups racked up two touchdowns in the second quarter after making one in the first.

The last period showed but one score, but it was one of the most valuable plays of the game. "Bud" Foreman intercepted a pass and ran through the Kannapolis team 32 yards for a touchdown.

Scoring touchdowns: Owen Skidmore 2, Foreman 2, Smith 3.

Albemarle 25-Concord 0
The A. H. S. Bullpups rocked up their second win of the season this year by licking Concord 25-0. The Bullpups, sparked by Bob Furr, "Bud" Foreman and Charlie Hester Smith scored four touchdowns in the first three quarters.

O Skidmore went over for the score on an end sweep and made the extra point on a center plunge. In the second quarter Jim Peavie went over for another touchdown on another sweep.

In the last half Long and Gudgeon rocked up two more tallies the hard way by center plunges and off tackle touchdowns.

Bulldogs Pull Upset; Beat Children's Home

Albemarle High Bulldogs pulled a South Piedmont conference upset last Friday to defeat a favored Children's Home team by the score of 18-7. Albemarle pushed over two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to take the victory.

Morton recovered a Children's Home fumble early in the first period on the visitor's 24-yard line to set up a scoring play, Peavey passing to Mann on the goal line for the score. Little missed the placement.

In the third period Children's Home went ahead despite a 15-yard penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct that moved the visitors from the three to the 18-yard line on fourth down. However, Hart passed to Poole for the touchdown on the next play and Jones skirted end for the conversion.

In the fourth quarter, Blackwell made a first down on the 39, and Swanner took the ball on a fake to pass to Little for a score.

A few moments later Children's Home lost the ball on their own 35 by passing on fourth down in a desperate attempt to score. Morgan dashed 32 yards and was in the clear, but stepped out of bounds on the 7-yard strip. Morgan scored over on his third attempt for the final score.

Spencer 6, Albemarle 0
Albemarle high lost its second game of the season on October 4 when Spencer scored revenge for a 1939 defeat by shutting out the Bulldogs 6 to 0.

Spencer's score came in the fourth quarter when Marvin Cress, ace of the Spencer offensive, broke loose on a 55-yard jaunt that put the ball in Spencer's position.

Albemarle's only scoring threat came in the fourth quarter when Blackwell and Morgan sparked the ball all the way to the Spencer four-yard line before the ball changed hands.

ed their third consecutive win of the season on October 11, by crushing the Albemarle Bulldogs by the score of 39 to 0.

After the first five minutes of play, during which their running attack failed to net yardage, the Indians took to the air in a series of passes that spilled disaster for the Bulldogs.

Myres and Carlton stood out in the Lexington lineup, while Foreman and Knotts did yeoman service for the Bulldogs.

Albemarle 20, Badin 0
Two passes, Blackwell to Auten, and an intercepted Badin pass by Morgan accounted for the 20 to 0 win over the Badin Watts on the Albemarle field, September 27.

The Albemarle line gave a good account of itself, while Blackwell, Morgan, and Wallace, the latter used mostly for blocking purposes, were the work horses for the backfield.

McDaniel played outstandingly in the Badin line, while H. Morgan had almost complete charge of the backfield activities for the Watts.
