

HERE AND THERE

"BLUEBERRY HILL" IS THE FAVORITE popular song of the students of Albemarle high, according to a survey taken by the Student Council recently.

"Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" seems to be the favorite old song, chosen for the hymn.

The classes chose the following songs: Seniors: Popular—"Blueberry Hill"; old song—"Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair"; hymn—"Follow the Glean."

Juniors: Popular—"Nobody's Baby"; old song—"He a-t-t-i-f-u-l F-r-e-a-m-e-r"; hymn—"Onward, Christian Soldiers."

Sophomores: Popular—"Blueberry Hill"; old song—"Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair"; hymn—"Fairest Lord Jesus."

Freshman: Popular—"Call of the Canyon"; old song—"Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair"; hymn—"Fairest Lord Jesus."

"GET THAT BOY! Don't let him run away!"

"You! Come here a minute. You've got just what I need. I'm looking for a hand right here and see the part of Mr. Harris."

"Why, that's perfect! Do you see it? It would look so like to have been me!"

"I tell you, lady. I like the part, and I'd like to be in the play, but there's one drawback. You see, you go to Harding High in Charlotte and I don't know how I can get over here to be in it."

And so you see why Miss Fitzgibbon, when she was asked after she found that the boy whom she had heard talking in the halls and in the gymnasium, was in the new play, "June Mad," had just come over with the Harding football team.

OVERHEARD: Tommy S.: "Miss Watson, have you read all those books we're supposed to report on?"

"Why, that's well, yes, of course." Tommy S.: "Well, tell me about it so I can report on it."

AS IT IMPATIENCE to play Monroe or an assigned editorial that caused Larry E., Fred A., Rudy, Lloyd S., and Jimmy P., to play hockey from journalism class? They did not succeed, however, because Mr. McFadyen scouted the boys, and one by one they marched into the class.

NEW JACKETS AND WATCHES are proudly being worn by the Marine Legion boys.

On the back of the green jackets, Worlds Champions 1940, in gold letters, catches the eye of everyone.

Sam Andrew, seeing that John Jones had walked up and said, "John, you had better not let Miss Watson see that. If you let her, she will try to put an apostrophe on it."

BAM! CRASH! SLAM! echoed throughout the Home Ec. school.

"Oh, my goodness! I'll have to get out of here!"

Diya Foreman, a member of the Home Ec. club had just dropped all the silver that he had washed in the sink, and she would have to wash it all over again.

"OH, HELP! Here I go again!" "Is somebody doing anything happen to me?"

"Who does anything murdered?"

"It's just some of the boys and girls yelling as they are continuously falling at the skating rink, including students, including Barbara, a "Knocker," "Sister," and Larry" think it would have been too awful a thing to take pillow talk.

Eleventh Grade Leads School On Honor Roll List

One hundred and ten students made honor roll for the first quarter's work, the office has announced, the eleventh grade leading with forty.

The list is as follows: Eight one: Jeanne Palmer, Mildred Reap; Eight three: Doris Tucker; Eight four: Raymond Morton, Ralph Mann; Eight five: Betty Mae Hatley; Eight six: Louise Austin; Patsy Ingraham; Eight seven: Carolyn Biles, Everette Ford; Nine two: J. P. Early, Madie Lee Edral, Jack Jordan, E. W. Ridenhour; Nine three: Craig Dury, Martin Deese; Nine four: Leola Poplin, Blanche Still; Nine five: Marie Harlocke, Novella Lambert, Hazel McDowell, Lois Morgan; Nine six: Highest honor: Martha Ivy; Highest honor: Frances Mann, Rose Kathryn Morton, Ticksa Senter.

Ten one: Highest honor: Eulalia Tucker; honor: Bill Hartzell, Betty Ivey, Mary Jackson Leifer, Emma Lee Morton, Eunice Smith, Carolyn Stoner; Ten two: Highest honor: Betty Jo Glover; honor: Sarah Jean Austin, Marcela Whitley; Ten three: Highest honor: Allie Ray Boyce; honor: Lois Underwood, Opal Talbert, P. L. Burris, Arvilla Jones, Rosa Parker, Jewell Poplin, Reed Gaskin, Evelyn Horton, Opal Talbert, P. L. Burris, Brown Carpenter, Gerald Mann, Juanita Lawrence.

Eleven one: Highest honor: Alfred Morton, Pochantas Meigs; honor: Hubert Taylor, Rachel Currier, Marjorie Taylor, P. L. Burris, Ann Henning, Hilda Hunchcutt, Margaret Moore, Anne Reap, Madie Lee Edral, Jack Jordan, E. W. Ridenhour; Eleven two: Highest honor: Margaret Nisbet, Corneila Yeager; honor: L. Ruby Lewis, Eileen Caldwell, Barbara Crowell, Nell Edrad Penning, Eileen Dyer, Mary Emily Edred, Ernestine Gaddy, Lucille Palmer, Helen Russell, Florence Spilude; Eleven three: Sam Anderson, James Aiton, W. F. Crowell, Ruth King; Eleven four: Elizabeth Haire, Ruth Hill, L. H. Hitchcock, L. Ruby Lewis, Eileen Caldwell, Ranselle Lowder, Evelyn Merritt, Gatha Sells, Odessa Talbert, Alice Smith, Hartzell Whitley.

Twelve one: Highest honor: Ethel Ray Dyer, Willie Frances Edral, Ted Wallace, Sunshine Underwood; honor: Josephine Beaver, Clegg Fry, Deward Leifer, Bailey Gulleidge, Lloyd Skidmore, Lena Chandler, Betty Van Rineer, Laura Frances Peck, Dorothy Rhinehart, Edna Bell, Hilda Smith, Louise Sho, Catherine Whitley, Margaret Dees, Dorothy Parker.

"Taming of the Shrew" to Be Given

Famous Actors Will Give Play In Auditorium

Miss Maxine Michaels, Miss Joan Dolan, and Mr. Robert Baines, who will appear with the Avon Players, famous Shakespearean company, at the high school auditorium on Tuesday, November 26, at 8:00 P. M.

Mr. Robert Baines, one of the famous actors who will appear with the Avon Players, famous Shakespearean company, at the high school auditorium on Tuesday, November 26, at 8:00 P. M.

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Selman, veteran of the legitimate stage, the Avon Players, famous Shakespearean company, will present "The Taming of the Shrew," in the auditorium Tuesday night at 8:00 P. M. These players will perhaps be remembered by many for their presentation of "The Merchant of Venice," given here several years ago.

Miss Maxine Michaels, Miss Joan Dolan and Mr. Robert Baines, featured members of the troupe, are presenting the leading roles.

Miss Michaels has for several years been leading lady with the Minnetonka Stock Company players from St. Paul, Minnesota.

Miss Dolan appears with the Avon Players this season after an engagement in New York with the "Scars" and "Actors," and has had wide dramatic experience.

Mr. Baines returns to the company after a season with several large radio networks, on which he has been featured as leading man in different productions.

Because of the excellent reputation these players have gained through their productions, all A. H. S. English teachers have announced that some form of credit will be given to students attending the play.

The play will be presented under the auspices of the Boosters club, who will receive any profit which goes to the school. Admission is 25 cents for children, 50 cents for adults, and 60 cents for reserved seats.

Leading the school in the project sponsored by the combined auxiliary classes of A. H. S. to raise money for the purchase of a flag for the auditorium are the honor rooms of Misses Laura, McKenzie, Eillette and Mrs. Troxler, with 100 per cent each.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Troxler and Miss McKenzie, the campaign has been very successful. Almost every student has contributed four cents toward the total sum.

Tryouts for Debate To Be Held In Dec.

High school debaters this year will argue the subject: "Resolved that the United States should adopt a policy of requiring one year of military training of all able-bodied men before they reach the age of 23."

The high school debating union of North Carolina is sponsored by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The finals will be held in Chapel Hill in the spring. Local tryouts will be held in chapel some time before Christmas to select the debaters to represent Albemarle high school in the debating contest. The regular debate will be held in February.

Twelve students have already expressed their desire to try out and are now studying and working on the debate with the help of Miss Hege.

Miss Hege requests that all those interested in trying out for the debate see her in room 86.

Dick Foreman On Shrine All-Star Team

Dick Foreman, AHS Bulldogs center, has been named on the North Carolina all-star team to play in the Shrine game at Charlotte on December 1 to mark the first time that an Albemarle player has received this honor.

Dick is one of the two centers that has been selected on the Shrine team. This Shrine game is an annual affair and it played in Memorial stadium in Charlotte. AHS has had players considered for the honor team in previous years, but never before has one actually been named on the team. Dick will report to Charlotte a week before the game, along with the other honor players, so that the coaches may whip the teams in shape.

Announcement of the selection of players made Sunday, Gaskin, all sports fans of Albemarle as well as AHS are proud of the record made by Dick.

To Buy Flag

Leading the school in the project sponsored by the combined auxiliary classes of A. H. S. to raise money for the purchase of a flag for the auditorium are the honor rooms of Misses Laura, McKenzie, Eillette and Mrs. Troxler, with 100 per cent each.

Part-Time Jobs Open To Many Students

With the holiday season fast approaching, there is going to be a demand for part-time workers, according to Mr. Morris, the co-ordinator for the vocational program of the high school.

Each person who is interested in working should secure a social security number. If a person is under 18, a work permit will be required.

Swing Your Partner! Promenade to the Right! And Treat Everybody Just Alike!

It was colossal folks!—even in spite of the rain. The splatter, splatter—drip, drip—No, the splatter wasn't leaking. It was just the water dripping off the sides of the walls, where the tired and jostled dancers had propped themselves.

"Swing yer pardner and treat every lady alike"—and there he was swinging the girl in the opposite direction except in the right one. Who? Sure, I said it was Mr. Matney.

But behind me, Hilda Smith, Louise Sho, Catherine Whitley, Margaret Dees, Dorothy Parker, the so-called, their inside "flutter mills" put their "legging muscles" to something far better than kneecaps.

So says many of the lookers-on—"The queer thing about 'splinter kicking' (square dancing) is the fact that when you once get stopped, you're hot and still heating."

Forlorn looks disappeared many faces, but two particular ones were definite above all the rest: Jane Priestler, mourning because Ted wasn't there, and Dot, bubbling over with Parker temper because Worth (Radin) had to work that night.

Lost . . . Rembert's pardner—Found . . . His gal away from the other side of the circle (P. S. Some guy suggested a cow bell for the honky-tonk . . . Ezra Ogleby, the herky-leaky (a somewhat) bend stood wondering who everyone was.

the so-called, their inside "flutter mills" put their "legging muscles" to something far better than kneecaps.

So says many of the lookers-on—"The queer thing about 'splinter kicking' (square dancing) is the fact that when you once get stopped, you're hot and still heating."

Forlorn looks disappeared many faces, but two particular ones were definite above all the rest: Jane Priestler, mourning because Ted wasn't there, and Dot, bubbling over with Parker temper because Worth (Radin) had to work that night.

Lost . . . Rembert's pardner—Found . . . His gal away from the other side of the circle (P. S. Some guy suggested a cow bell for the honky-tonk . . . Ezra Ogleby, the herky-leaky (a somewhat) bend stood wondering who everyone was.

Lost . . . Rembert's pardner—Found . . . His gal away from the other side of the circle (P. S. Some guy suggested a cow bell for the honky-tonk . . . Ezra Ogleby, the herky-leaky (a somewhat) bend stood wondering who everyone was.

Lost . . . Rembert's pardner—Found . . . His gal away from the other side of the circle (P. S. Some guy suggested a cow bell for the honky-tonk . . . Ezra Ogleby, the herky-leaky (a somewhat) bend stood wondering who everyone was.

Lost . . . Rembert's pardner—Found . . . His gal away from the other side of the circle (P. S. Some guy suggested a cow bell for the honky-tonk . . . Ezra Ogleby, the herky-leaky (a somewhat) bend stood wondering who everyone was.

the Albemarle youth—Hugh Snuggs—standing on the stage so "Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

Perfect, so says we of all who attended, in spite of the sweat of the brows, and a careful observation of the Army about midnight revealed the fact that the Feet for Mr. Fry's mixed chorus class to use in contests which they enter and in programs which they give.

News Briefs

Thanksgiving holidays will be November 25 through December 1.

The P.T.A. square dance netted $60, which will be used to buy robes for the choruses.

A three-act comedy, "June Mad," will be presented at 8 P. M., December 1, by the drama club.

Jana Jean Austin, Gene Helms, James Turner, Charles Lowder and Annette Steele have been chosen for the leading roles.

An order has been set off for 125 silver rings and four pins.