

Albemarle Bulldogs Defeat Wadesboro 65-0 in Opener

First Game Played Under Lights Here; Morgan and Peavy Stars.

In the first game ever played here at night, the Albemarle High School Bulldogs defeated the Wadesboro team 65 to 0. About 1,500 fans witnessed the game under the recently installed lights on the athletic field.

First Quarter. Wadesboro kicked off to the Bulls and nothing happened until Glenn Ellis received a Wadesboro fumble later. Then the fireworks really started. Morgan and Peavy carried the ball along with a pass to Mann. Peavy went over the end and Jim Little blacked it, making the score Albemarle 7, Wadesboro, 0. On the kickoff John Little made a beautiful kick the ball going over the goal line. The ball was brought back to the 20 and a punt was partially blocked and went for a short distance only. Again Morgan and Peavy worked the ball and Peavy carried it on over. Little missed the placement, the Bulls' offense started to move and team entered the game for Albemarle and Swanner kicked off to the Bulls and Swanner kicked off to the Bulls and Swanner kicked off to the Bulls and Swanner kicked off to the Bulls.

Second Quarter. Wadesboro as Helms and Boger stood out in the line. Peavy then brought a Wadesboro punt back for 90 yards, Peavy carried the ball as the Wadesboro team was being battered to death. Then Peavy carried a pass to Gaskin for 13 yards. Morgan got the ball to the goal line and Peavy carried it on over. Tommy Rabe's placement was good. Score was 20 to 0 in favor of Albemarle. Wadesboro tried to pass but they were knocked down or intercepted by the Bulldogs. Gaddy, Lowe, and Stanback stood out as the best Wadesboro backfield. At the end of the first half Albemarle had 35, Wadesboro, 0.

Third Quarter. Albemarle kicked off to Wadesboro, Wadesboro fumbled, and the Bulldogs' offense started to move. Peavy carried the ball 7 yards and Wadesboro was penalized 5 yards. Then Peavy carried the ball over the line and John Little blacked the extra point. Score, Albemarle, 35; Wadesboro, 0. Little kicked off and a few minutes later Peavy carried the ball and Jimmy Peavy scored on a touchdown. Little missed the point. Score, Albemarle, 35; Wadesboro, 0. Little kicked off again and immediately a Wadesboro punt was partially blocked as Lowe tried to kick it. Swanner grabbed the ball and ran 32 yards to punt dirt. The extra point was missed by Little. Score, Albemarle, 65; Wadesboro, 0. Little kicked again to Lowe. Lowe's pass was intercepted by

B-Team Sees Action In First Two Games

The B-team helped the Varsity in the Wadesboro game by adding two touchdowns to the run-away score. The Bulldogs put upon Wadesboro, Sherrill Cranford and Mack McNulty scored the touchdowns for the B-team. Coach DeLotto hopes to use them in other Varsity contests.

Sam Barrier who has been added to the coaching staff is in charge of the B-team. There will be twenty-two boys on the squad.

Schedule. September 29, Jackson Training School, there, Oct. 14, Hamlet, there. October 14, Hamlet, there. October 21, Hamlet, there. Center, Jerry Earnhardt; guards, Ted Parr, Bill Hartsell, Hinky Turner; tackles, Mackin, Ken Ritchie, P. L. Burris, E. W. Riden; ends, Lowder, L. C. Miller, Charpoint, Paul Cooper, Jimmie Gene Hatley, Buck McNulty, John Denning, Dan Talbert, Sherrill Cranford, Red Morgan.

Midgets Are Ready

The Midget team of this year is composed of all new material with the exception of the veteran Jimmy Knotts. Jimmy Sifford and Frank Little saw action last year, but they were out of action this year. The first string as it looks now consists of Sifford and Little, ends; Noah and Wilhoit, tackles; Knotts and Whiteley, marks; Jordan, center; Hubbard, Poplin or Harrington, Walker and Gibson, backs; Wade Harris, a tarty reporter, will fit into one of the backfield positions in the near future. Dorton, Clayton, Clark, Smith, Allen, Andrew, Whitely, Rogers, Efrd, Lamar will be plenty of action before the season ends.

Games scheduled so far have tentative dates: two games with Kannapolis, Barium Springs, Concord, and possibly Salisbury. One game with each team is to be played at home and one away.

Thompson in Wadesboro territory and taken back 20 yards. Again Morgan played the line for a score. Little kicked the point. Score, Albemarle, 46; Wadesboro, 0. Swanner kicked to Stanback. Stanback tried to start Wadesboro by passes, but this failed as Swanner intercepted the pass and Peavy started and Morris started another drive as the quarter ended. Score, Albemarle, 46; Wadesboro, 0.

Fourth Quarter. Albemarle carried from the 9 yard line as Peavy drove over the line and Rabe missed the point. Score, Albemarle, 52; Wadesboro, 0. Swanner kicked off to Lowe. Lowe completed a pass to Stanback, who carried it for 20 yards when Wadesboro fumbled and little Ted Penny Furr, brother of the great Bill, uncovered the ball. At this point there were only two players on the field with numbers on their backs. McNulty carried the ball over and Rabe kicked the point. Score, Albemarle, 59; Wadesboro, 0.

Uncle Sam's Boys Quite Versatile

It was evident at the Albemarle-Wadesboro game that Uncle Sam's men can do more than "tote" a gun. At the half of the game, they not only paraded with the band and led cheers, but they also gave an exhibition of basketball on the field. Some of the "army boys" could really handle a football and had probably played in high school or college. The others were just clowning and provided much entertainment for the crowd.

Two outstanding changes in A. H. S. are that report cards will be issued every six weeks instead of every nine weeks and that the eleventh graders are occupying the balcony and the tenth graders have been brought downstairs.

Albemarle Bulldogs Defeat Troy Trojans by Score 38-0

Bulldogs Win Their Second Game of Year.

Peavy, Morgan, Thompson Stars for Albemarle; Hatfield Stands Out for Troy.

In a game played on a rainy night and a slippery field, the Albemarle Bulldogs defeated Troy Trojans to the tune of 38 to 0. The Bulldogs scored in every period before 700 fans.

Troy kicked off to Albemarle to start the game; and before the Troy gods tried their hands on the ball, Albemarle had scored. Morgan, Thompson and Peavy plowed the Troy line straight down the field before giving the ball up with Jimmy Peavy carrying it over. John Little blacked the extra point, making the score 7 to 0 in favor of Albemarle.

John Little kicked off to Troy and the ball rolled out of bounds. Peavy returned the punt 50 yards before being stopped. Max Thompson carried the ball in high school, caught a pass and picked up 20 yards before he was halted down by the Troy backfield. Peavy backed the line for a gain and Hootchie Morgan carried the pigskin over for the second Albemarle touch-down. John Little's attempt for the extra point was low and wide, and the Troy kicker at this point of the game was 13 to 0.

John Little kicked off again to Troy for Albemarle, and Hatfield caught the ball. After Troy completed a pass, the quarter ended, and Albemarle led the Montgomery county lads 13 to 0.

Second Quarter. As the second quarter started, Coach "Pappy" Hodges's lads began to pass the ball, but the attack broke down and the Troy lads were forced to punt.

Morgan kicked the ball back at Troy and immediately Troy kicked it back. On the first play from scrimmage Jimmy Peavy broke loose from his own 25 and raced through the entire Troy team for a 75 yard touchdown. This was the longest run of the night, and Peavy really showed he could pick a touchdown. Coach DeLotto sent in a complete new team to relieve his first team. The boys were muddy, wet, and tired when they left the field, and they received a well deserved hand from the cheering section when they reached the bench.

Swanner kicked off to Hatfield, the only real standout on the Troy team for the night. Hatfield started throwing passes again, but they bogged down. Coach DeLotto ended 19 to 0 in Albemarle's favor.

Third Quarter. Albemarle kicked off to Troy to start the second half. Little again kicked to Troy's best backfield man, Hatfield, and twisted out a return. However, Troy again bogged down and Hatfield was forced to fledge. Then Swanner, Boger, and Thompson dented the line. Brooks passed to Thompson, and Thompson broke loose on the next play for a 25-yard jaunt as the Bulls' offense started towards the tacklers. John Little passed to Thompson, an extra point making the score Albemarle 26 to Troy 0. The Bulldogs kicked off to Troy as the quarter ended, 25 to 0, in the Bulldogs' favor.

Fourth Quarter. Troy was forced to punt, and several plays later, on a drive down the field, Hootchie Morgan stepped over the goal line for 6 more points. The Troy extra point was wide. The score was 32 to 0 in favor of Albemarle as substitutes came in for Albemarle. Swanner kicked off to Hatfield, who tried once again to spark the Trojans to pay off their debt to the Bulldogs. However, he was not able to do so. Troy, deep in its own territory, tried to pass out. One of the passes was intercepted by Morgan, who drove 43 yards for the final ball game. The extra point was missed, and the final score was 38 to 0 in the Bulldogs' favor over the Troy Trojans.

On the last play of the game Hatfield, Troy's outstanding player, was injured, having to be moved with help. Peavy, Morgan, Ellis, Thompson, and Brooks starred in the Albemarle backfield, while Knotts, Lowe, Boger and Mann showed up as leaders in the line. Hatfield was the only Troy stand out.
