

Teacher of Month

because of his ever-ready smile, sense of cleanliness, and his sense of co-operation, we have chosen E. C. Hailey, J.A.H.S., as teacher of the month.

In the years that Mr. Hailey has graced our school with his presence, he has never missed a chance to serve A.H.S. For years, Mr. C. has served as chairman of the clean-up committee, chairman of building and grounds, chairman of janitorial workers of A.H.S., an invaluable member of the maintenance corps, and president of the Broomsters club.

Only 5'9" in stature, it is amazing that he has so much vitality. He is most familiar when dashing through the halls, quickly and efficiently doing his duties. Because of the nature of his work at A.H.S., and because it requires much of his time, Mr. Hailey has very few outside interests and activities. He can, however, be seen almost every Saturday on the streets of metropolitan Albemarle, doing his shopping, and on Saturday nights, he can be found at the fish fry, enjoying his favorite pastime of eating and singing.

Another quality that has made E. C. Hailey, J.A.H.S., the shining success that he is today, is his keen sense of business matters. It is said that he drives a hard bargain, "parring for the best, striving for the cream". As Mr.

J C. Morris, S.T.A.H.S., once said, "E. C. Hailey, J.A.H.S., in my opinion, is the type of man that has made Albemarle High famous. His sense of fairness, his pioneer spirit, and his business ability make him envied by all, a man among men!"

Since his graduation from Kingville Tech, Mr. Hailey, J.A. H.S., has been a faithful and earnest member of the faculty. Because of his services, we take this opportunity to thank him sincerely, and wish him luck in his campaign for President of the Honorable North Carolina Order of Janitorial and Hall Workers.

Classified Ads

WANTED—A man—apply to Virginia Brown.

WANTED—Any second-hand clothes—Ann Dry.

LOST—A laugh that won't quit; if found, please return to Ann Swaringen.

STOLEN—Roy Holt's lover, Catherine Atkins. Thief's punishment will be library work for the rest of his life.

WANTED—A "superior" mixed chorus—apply to Paul B. Fry.

WANTED—A box of cigars for "Lib" and Angela; they're tired of smoking cigarettes.

NEEDED—A new watch so's I can be on time for my dates!—Janet Deese.

Arrangements For Senior Banquet Promise Rare Treat

With the school year coming to a close, the members of the 49-50 senior class are well in the middle of making plans for their graduating activities.

From the well-planned and beautifully executed Jr.-Sr., prom the seniors will be rushed quickly to the senior banquet.

This year the banquet will be held in the chic new penthouse club atop the newly decorated Hotel Albemarle. The tentative menu has been selected as: caviar hors d'oeuvres, filet mignon, accessories, coffee, champagne, baked Alaska, demitasse.

Following all the presentations and speeches, the group will move to the beautifully appointed "Starlight" roof for a dance which will be concluded around 2:00 o'clock, after which a light breakfast will be served.

After the dance is concluded, a fleet of Cadillac limousines will transport the seniors and chaperones home.

Just Imagine

Gene Laughter with a key chain, Dwight C. engaged in an argument.

Paula Howard grinning, Kathryn Groves with short hair, Mr. Fry singing.

Mrs. Fry with a fern, Don Woolly telling a joke, Tommy Lilly not knowing his French.

Martha Moore making A's, Bill Grigg with Jane Smith, "Chicken" Palmer dating in Concord.

Mildred Kelly dating Charlie Ross, Carolyn Williams neat as a pin, Miss Matheson 5'5".

Barbara Brown making A's on algebra.

Lewis Kluttz blushing, Jo Ann Atkins with black hair, Claud Grigg with freckles.

Miss Stanton with a brogue, Skip McManus in love.

A Left-Handed Monkey Wrench Given Away
With Each Purchase of 500 Feet of Wire
LOWDER HARDWARE CO.

Don't Trust Your Piggy Bank...
Use Our Building Plans
ALBEMARLE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

LATEST MODEL EASY CHAIRS
2,000 Volts A. C. - D. C.
— Just the Thing for Your Big House —
SOSSAMON FURNITURE CO.

Don't Use a Match to Light Your Fires
— USE A FIRESTONE —
CITY SERVICE

If She Doesn't Like
Those Stiff Whiskers,
Why Not Try Her
Sister?
CITY
BARBER SHOP

Fighting The Battle
Of the Bulge?
Buy Our Gossard Corsets
To Reduce the Odds
... and Ends!
EFIRD'S
Department Store

FREE!
To the First 100
Customers
The Second Tuesday of Next Week,
One Set of White
Side-wall Tires
Aubrey H. Efird Company

If Your Dogs
Are Barking,
Get Max's
Shoes
MAX'S SHOE STORE

Need a Little Dough?
— see —
BURRELL BAKERY

When COAL Weather Comes,
WOOD You Trade With Us?
Sibley Manufacturing Company