McFadyen Receives Gift

Faculty Honors McFadyen

Henry C. McFadyen, who has recently tendered his resignation after nine years as principal of AHS, was honored at a banquet given at Hotel Albemarle Monday night, April 24.

Mr. Wilson, acting for the members of the faculty, presented the honor guest with a leather briefcase and an electric razor as a token of appreciation for the service he has given AHS. Mr. McFadyen received a rose bou-tonniere and his wife was presented a gardenia corsage and a brass vase filled with cacti.

In receiving these gifts Mr. McFadyen thanked the faculty for their co-operation in the past.

In addition to the honor guests, Mr. McFadyen and the high school faculty, those present were Mr. Claud Grigg, Mrs. Paul Helms, Mrs. J. B. Morris, Miss Ramelle Rummage and husbands of several of the faculty members.

TEACHER Of The Month

MRS. PEIFFER

The pretty, blue-eyed English teacher with blondish-brown hair and a sparkling personality is our favorite faculty member this month because she is working so hard to make the senior play a success. Of course, it's Mrs. (Theresa-with-the-thrilling-voice) Peiffer.

Sponsoring the Dramatics club, even with A.H.S.'s "talented" students, takes a lot of work, but Mrs. Peiffer also teaches five English classes daily and is active in working with the sophomore class.

Activities outside of school include being a member of the Woman's club and a Sunday school teacher and a choir member at the Reformed church in Landis, the home town which claims her on week-ends. For hobbies, she likes to sing, play the piano, dance, and play bridge.

Students like a lot of things about Mrs. Peiffer, too. They like the way she can get and hold the attention in her classes, the way she can be lenient and yet strict, and the way she makes English seem so easy simply by the way she teaches.

Mrs. Peiffer went to school at Catawba college, taught for a while in Anson county and in Rowan county, taught at A.H.S. for two years; and, after time out for one year of marriage, she and her husband came here, where they have been teaching for five years.

Even though our dramatics coach likes steak, most all sweets, and good hot breads, all the boys will tell you, by a long and loud whistle, how nice she looks in her favorite sports and dress clothes.

Here's the best to Mrs. Pfeiffer, our Teacher-of-the-Month.
