ATHLETES OF THE MONTH

BILL HUCKABEE

The Full Moon salutes two more very fine athletes this month. They are Bill Huckabee and Tub Bowers. These boys have been a great help in making the 1952-53 football season a success.

Huckabee, commonly called Huck, is a 6 foot 2 inch center. Bill was one of the mainstays in the Bulldog forward wall. Time after time Huck came through to bring the opposing ball carrier to the turf. Huckabee not only starred from the line backer positions, but he was one of the best offensive players too. He leaves his position at center and as a signal caller. Whoever fills his position will have a hard time topping his record.

Bill is not only a fine football player, but he is outstanding in basketball and baseball. He plays forward on the basketball team and does a very fine job. He served as a utility man on the baseball team, where he showed his ability.

We don't know where Bill is going to school next year, but wherever he goes, they will get a very fine athlete. Here's wishing these boys a successful future. Remember, always buy Camels. Huckabee does.

TUB BOWERS

After a rapid observation one could see why we would select Tub as one of the most outstanding students in AHS.

During his five years' stay in high school one could find Tub on the athletic field working his way to the top of a fine football career. When the final record was tabulated on Tub's excellent extra point kicking, we found that he missed only four conversions, but there were three blocked and three fumbled kicks that Tub could not help.

Just to show you how important Bowers has been to our team, we would like to take you back to year before last when the Bulldogs defeated Harding with a score of 14-12. Last year the kicking edged out Concord 7-6, while this year the score with Asheboro ended with a victory of 21-19. With these conversions you can see that Bowers is a fine fellow to have around.

Women, work, and swimming seem to be the idea for a pastime with our Tub.

Bowers not only is outstanding in school, but he takes an active part in the Boy Scouts.

If you are looking for two swell, all around fellows, we recommend Huckabee and Bowers.

* * *

We would like to congratulate Coach Webb and his coaching staff for the fine work this season in football, not only in making a winning team, but also on the fine material which has put several of the boys on all conference and other honor teams.

* * *

This season found several of the Bulldogs playing their last football game for AHS. To Huckabee, Bowers, Bruton, Gibson, Snuggs, Traywick, Lawhon, and R. Smith, as you hang up the old equipment for the last time, thanks for a real job done well.

GIBSON AND SNUGGS MAKE TRIP

Each year Martin Walker, Inc., sponsors a well-rounded program for the most outstanding players of high school football in the state.

This year the local football squad selected James Gibson and Gene Snuggs to make the trip to the Chapel Hill-Raleigh area.

The program in Chapel Hill included a visit to the Morehead Planetarium and the Carolina-Duke football game. Following the football game the guests went to the Reynolds Colosseum in Raleigh to see the Globe Trotters play the Baltimore Whirlwinds.

During the half time of the basketball game, there was an exhibition of Ping Pong playing by the champions of the world and also other events, including a trapeze act.

After the basketball game the guests spent the night at State College and next morning ended the program with a tour of State College.

Merry Christmas everybody, from Jim Gib, and Charlie Mc.
