Students Watch The Inauguration

The Firestone Company of Albemarle installed a T.V. set in the A.H.S. auditorium on January 20, so that the students could see the inauguration.

Some of the students wanted to see the inauguration so badly, that they planned to stay out of school to watch it. Mr. Cashwell decided to see if any of the local companies would install a T.V. set, and the Firestone Company did.

If students had the teacher's permission, they were excused to to go to the auditorium any time to watch T.V. Television stayed on from 11:00 o'clock to 3:00 o'clock.

Prom Committee Selected; Juniors Busy Raising Money

Plans for the Junior-Senior Prom are underway with the selection of the decoration committee, who will plan the theme and decorations. Their plans will be presented to the junior class, and if approved, preparation for the prom will begin.

The decoration committee is headed by chairman Margaret Brunson and co-chairman Jimmy Millican. The committee is composed of Kathryn Groves, Sylvia Whitley, Larry Tucker, Larry Hartsell, Bobbie Eudy, Larry Yow, Ottie Lynn, Lydia Hall, Larry Talbert, and Ralph Setzler.

Miss Misenheimer, class sponsor, says that the class has several projects under way to raise money for the prom. The most recent is selling peanuts, candy, and drinks at the basketball games. Also they are selling stationery and all-occasion cards and have been selling pennants.

Student Teacher To Practice Here

The students of Miss Misenheimer's English classes will find a new teacher in the room starting some time this month. They won't be losing Miss Misenheimer, only gaining another teacher.

Hugh Whitley, a senior at Catawba College, will practice teaching under Miss Misenheimer. He has been observing the class during the past weeks and now will do his practice teaching under her for two weeks. He will teach literature.

If some people lived up to their ideals they would be stooping.
