

Three Superiors Received By Soloists And Girls' Trio

Solos and small choral groups were featured at the choral contests held recently at Davidson college. A number of these groups were from A.H.S.

With 25 schools competing, 21 superior ratings were given, and Albemarle received three of these. Only three superiors were given to groups and AHS received one of these . . . the Girls' Trio.

J. C. Boone, and Arce Rose Rich received superiors in the solo division. Those receiving excellent ratings were Elaine Lowder and Ted Bureson.

Other groups and solos competing were the junior and senior Boys' Quartets and the Girls' Ensembles, Larry Tucker, Sue Rogers, Billy Lowder and George Lowder.

Mr. Fry was well pleased by the grades that the groups made. The Mixed Chorus and the Ninth Grade Choir will go to Boyden high in Salisbury on March 13 to sing with the larger groups.

Triangle Debaters Have Been Chosen

The contestants have been chosen to represent AHS in triangular debates on March 27.

Jimmy Griffin and Georgia Beaver are on the affirmative team, while Claud Grigg and Ann Ivey are the negative.

The topic of the debate is "Resolved: that the Atlantic Pact Nations Should Form a Federal Union."

Albemarle is in a triangle with Lexington and Harding high. The affirmative teams will debate at their home school with Lexington's negative team coming to Albemarle. Albemarle's negative team is going to Harding high, and Harding high's negative team is going to Lexington.

Mrs. A. S. Lynn is the coach for the affirmative team of AHS and Mrs. Paul B. Fry is the coach for the negative team of AHS.

Juliet Is Here, But Where Is Romeo?

"Romeo, Romeo, where fore art thou?"

Could this be the cry of a newborn baby girl? You would hardly think so, yet it could be the cry of Barbara Juliet Deese. Since contrary to all the rumors before hand, she was not born a twin. Instead she came into the world quite suddenly one afternoon (March 2, 1953 to be specific) bringing with her little or no clothing and a loud, lusty cry. She weighed five pounds and one ounce at the time.

This future addition to A. H. S. is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Deese. Mrs. Deese is a former French teacher at A. H. S.

Huckabee In Contest Finals

Bill Huckabee was chosen as one of the five finalists in the Angier-Duke scholarship competition, and has gone to Duke for final interviews today and tomorrow.

He will attend several luncheons and banquets. From the 30 boys that are competing at Duke, six will be chosen for the $3,000 scholarships.

Robert Shaver, Martha Harris, Carolyn Williams, and Bill had regional interviews in February. These four seniors were among the top 25 in their region of the contest.
