AHS Models To Adorn Coliseum

A fashion show sponsored by Sak's Fifth Avenue will be presented at the AHS Coliseum tonight at 8:00 o'clock by members of Mrs. Winecoff's home economics classes. The latest fashions from Paris will be presented.

The main feature of the night, the gown Mamie Eisenhower wore to the inauguration, will be modeled by the glamorous Miss Pattie Allan. Saks have made 50 duplicates of this dress and have reduced them to the low price of $2,500.

French bathing suits will be modeled by Mrs. Johnny Gas-kin. On her hand you will be privileged to see her engagement ring, the famous Hope diamond.

Underwear by Barringer and Almond, cocktail dresses by Law-hon and Lynn, sports clothes by Pope and Mills will be presented by some Powers models such as Misses Sue Whitley, Miss Kay Thomas, and Miss Lula Thomas.

Door prizes will be given and the person holding ticket 10987-57963 will get the jackpot prize, a box of Cracker Jack.

FOR SALE: One Yankee accent.
