Members Of Mixed Chorus Are Making Plans For Year

If you should see students with their arms full of boxes, don't get alarmed; it's just Mixed Chorus members selling Christmas cards. The Mixed Chorus is planning to undertake a number of projects this year and the card sale is one of them.

25 Are Initiated Into Bible Club

New members were initiated into the Bible Club at their first meeting, held in the old gym on Saturday evening.

Twenty-five students underwent the rites, making a total membership so far of sixty-one.

Different people were in charge of the program, which was as follows: Gene Burris gave a test on the constitution; each new member was required to dig a marble out of a pan of flour with his teeth; and Amorelle Tucker gave a quiz on the names of different magazines. The Girls' Trio sang "Have You Talked to the Man Upstairs" and "I'm In His Care."

The Bible Club was one year old at this meeting, so Johnnie Russell had a surprise for the old members as well as the new — a birthday cake with one candle and soft drinks for refreshments. Miss Abrahamsen ended the program by giving a short talk on "Why Did You Join the Bible Club?"

Officers of the Bible Club for the year are: Johnnie Russell, president; Jo Ellen Brooks, vice president; Jo Stallings, secretary; Patricia Thompson, treasurer; and Hazel Lawhon, general representative.
