

To My Valentine

To Pete Chance,
You're my heart of hearts,
I'm lucky—my dear.
I hope luck holds out.
Long after this year.
From Loretta Holt

To Junior Dennis,
To my Valentine
On Valentine's Day,
I hope more good times
Are coming our way.
From Kay Haire

To Stanly Lawhorn,
We're too young for love,
Someone told me so;
But if you ask me,
We're old enough to know.
From Rita Morris

To Charlie James,
On the subject of hearts
Here's just a brief line.
I've gotten up nerve,
To say you're divine.
From Elaine Mills

To Eddie Fenters,
Not too long ago
You weren't even mine,
But now I can say,
You're my Valentine.
From Brenda Frick

To Aaron Lowder,
I know what I'm getting
For my Valentine.
The blessed assurance
That I'm yours and you're mine.
From Martha Harward

To Lanny Mauldin,
You're just my type
As cute as can be.
Just you for me
Suits me perfectly.
From Betty Lou Burris

To Joe Richards,
Since I have met you
The stars up above
Have whispered one word
And that word is "Love."
From Opal Eudy

To Wade Hearne,
You've stolen my heart
To a certain degree.
Now don't you forget,
You belong to me.
From Carol Lowder

To Lonnie Morton,
It's not just this year
That you've been on my mind.
Forever and ever,
You're my Valentine.
From Patty Mann

To Don Earnhardt,
Although you're not here
I want you to know.
You'll stay in my heart
Wherever you go.
From Amie Tucker

To Joe Kluttz,
I'm getting a Valentine
And sending it today,
Let's hope that you and I
Will never be far away.
From Joyce Turner

To Jim Stiller,
I know what I'll do
To try to make you say,
That you'll be mine,
On Valentine's Day.
From Judy Efrid

To Donnie Smith,
You're such a cute boy
With everything too.
If we had our choice,
We think we'd choose you.
From Secret Admirers

WHO'S WHO

JOAN RENGER

Wondering who writes the interesting articles about A.H.S. for the Stanly News and Press? Well, it's Joan Renger, this month's Who's Who, a gal who's always full of pep and chatter and is outstanding in everything she undertakes.

Joan not only writes for the News and Press, but is also a reporter on the Full Moon Staff. She is Assistant Business Manager of the Crossroads, which proves her outstanding ability in journalism.

Being a very talented girl in music, Joan is a member of the Modern Music Masters and has been in the Mixed Chorus for three years. She is a member of the Girls' Ensemble and sings in the choir at the First Lutheran Church, of which she is a member.

In recognition of her outstanding abilities, Joan was one of the first tapped into the National Honor Society last spring. This year she serves as secretary of the society.

While working on the Junior Senior Prom last year, Joan's classmates found her to be quite an artist, a very hard worker, and deserving of all the honors she received.

The Booster's Club, Black Masque Club, Tri-Hi-Y meetings and many other extra activities keep the outstanding senior very busy, but not too busy to prevent her from doing things well.

Taking a great interest in music, Joan spends a lot of her spare time listening to records and playing the piano. Perry Como and Jane Froman are listed as tops in her favorite recording artists.

As for food, this gal likes everything just so there's plenty of it! Her ideal boy is tall, dark, and handsome—plus a good personality.

Joan is undecided which college she will attend next year, but is considering the University

JOHN DAVID MOOSE

When you think of John David Moose you probably think of a speedy wingback cutting off-tackle on a reverse to pull the Bulldogs out of a hole. But John David is not just a football player. The four years he has spent in high school he has been one of the leaders of his class.

When in the ninth grade, Moose was the unanimous choice of his classmates to be their first president. Again this year they chose him for their president.

Although sports take up a lot of his time John David is still a fine student. He is a member of Mixed Chorus and is an active member of several clubs.

This was really Moose's year in football. He was elected co-captain of the team. At the end of the season he was selected for the all-conference team. A climax came to his high school career when he was given a well-deserved invitation to the annual Shrine Bowl game. Playing a defensive halfback, Moose played a great game, making many tackles and breaking up several passes.

Football isn't Moose's only sport; he is a guard on the basketball team and plays outfield on the baseball team.

Any night when Moose isn't playing ball or studying, you will find him at the show with the gang, especially if Marlon Brando is playing.

It might sound funny but Moose's favorite food is fresh corn and green beans.

John David hasn't decided which college yet, but you can be sure the college that gets him will have a fine athlete, a good student, and a great leader.

of Pennsylvania for her nurse's training. With her winning personality and numerous abilities, she is sure to be a success wherever she goes.

Tea To Be Given Term Honor Roll

The National Honor Society will be hosts and hostesses this afternoon from 1:15 to 2:45 at the annual Honor Roll tea. The tea is being given for all the students in A.H.S. who made the first semester honor roll.

Refreshments of punch, cookies, nuts, and candy will be served to the students invited.

The guests will be greeted in the very attractively decorated home economics room in which the Valentine theme is effectively carried out.

A total of 180 students received invitations for this occasion.

Bible Club Holds Automobile Party

An auto party was held by the members of the Bible Club at the First Presbyterian Church, January 15, at 7:30.

The theme of automobiles was skillfully carried out in colorful pictures and booths which provided the decorations.

Games were played and a skit involving cars was put on in pantomime by the Social Committee. After recreation, refreshments consisting of do-nuts, representing tires, and coca-colas, representing gas, were served to forty members present for the occasion.

At the close of the party the new officers of the club were announced and installed for the remainder of the school term.

Prom Committee Has Been Chosen

Members of the junior class have chosen their prom committee, which is already meeting every Tuesday in order to make plans for the prom.

The following students are members of the committee: Peggy Furr, Zalotta Harris, Dotty Walker, Joan Melton, Susie Culp, Kay Cauthen, Sandra Poplin, Barbara Holt, Bettie Hall, Maxine Harwood, Betty Boone, Joyce Turner, Carolyn Helms, Wade Smith, Luther Kimery, Edshay Brunson, George Lowder, Joe Kluttz, Jimmy Almond, Mickey Green, Mickey Harwood, Franchot Palmer, Gene Burris, Allen Bennett, Billy Fitzgerald, and Charles Smith.

Edward Fitzgerald is the chairman of the orchestra committee. The members are Patricia Thompson, Vickie Culp, Bobby Baucom, and Aaron Lowder. The orchestra committee has already chosen the orchestra, the Kampus Kats from Lenoir Rhyne College. They are an eleven-piece orchestra with a soloist.
