

Local Clubs Honor Two Senior Boys

Bill Beeker and Edward Hatley, two outstanding members of the senior class, were the student representatives to the Rotary and Lions Clubs for the month of January.

Bill Beeker, the Student Rotarian, is one of the most active boys of the senior class. He serves on the Full Moon Staff and last year he placed second in the district contest of the World Peace Essay and also in the National Oratorical Contest. Bill is a member of the National Honor Society and the Modern Music Masters Society.

Edward Hatley, besides being an officer of the Modern Music Masters Society, serves as sports editor for both the Full Moon and the Crossroads. Ed is president of the Mixed Chorus and has been a member of this organization for three years. Besides being very active in church work he has been a member of Hi-Y for four years and takes part in Hi-Y basketball.

Both boys are ranked high scholastically and are regarded very highly by both teachers and pupils.

A chest X-ray can detect early tuberculosis.

Clinics Attracting Band Students

Four Albemarle High School band students, Yoder Whitley, Bill Fisher, Jean Starr, and Frances Ross, were accepted to play in the Gastonia All-State Band Clinic January 28 through 29.

Being invited to the Gastonia clinic is quite an honor for band students from central North Carolina for the clinic has high standards for the students that attend. They must be capable of playing a range of music from John Phillip Sousa marches to the difficult classical number in the V and VI grades of music.

The Eastern All-States Clinic will attract A.H.S. band students to Chapel Hill February 4 through 5. This is the first year that Albemarle has been asked to participate in this clinic.

Bill Fisher, Robert Smith, Neal Efrd, Wayland McKenzie, and Gary Whitley have also attended the clinic at Wadesboro.

James And Smith To Play In East-West All-Star Game

Charlie James and Donnie Smith, two of Albemarle's most outstanding football players, have received another honor in being selected to play in the East-West All-Star Game in Greensboro the middle of August.

Donnie, who has been the Bulldog's starting fullback for the last three seasons, made the Greensboro Daily News All-State Football Team several months ago and has been known as one of the state's finer backs. Donnie also plays basketball and baseball and is one of the best all-round athletes in A.H.S.

Charlie has played center for the Bulldogs for several seasons. Charlie also made all-state, being chosen on the Charlotte Observer's team. Beside this, Charlie played in the Shrine Bowl in Charlotte and played a very fine game as a defense linebacker. Charlie is an outstanding student as well as an outstanding football player.

Both boys will report to Greensboro in August for a week's practice prior to the game.

Last year Coach Webb coached the West to a 44 to 0 victory over the East. Jimmy Page and Jimmy Millican played for the West last year.
