

Experiences Told By AHS Athletes

Question: What sport events did you enjoy most as an athlete in your high school days?

Skipper Gantt: "Beating Belmont our junior year, because it ended a perfect season."

Donnie Smith: "Beating Kannapolis in football."

Larry Chance: "Playing baseball, and the time Kannapolis barely beat us 6 to 5 in extra innings."

Charles James: "All the football games, especially Kannapolis and Lexington."

Marvin Clark: "Beating Monroe in basketball this year."

Dickie Cashwell: "Our football rivalry with Kannapolis."

Roger Saunders: "Beating Concord in football this past year to win the conference."

Roger Freeman: "The last Lexington game at Salisbury even though we got beat."

Lendell Smith: "This past season when we beat Monroe."

Elliott Gaddy: "All the basketball games."

John David Moose: "All the football games, especially Belmont and the Lexington games."

Awards Day Honors Deserving Students

The annual Awards Day presentations were made at assembly last Friday.

Various school and civic organizations gave medals along with cash awards to deserving A.H.S. students.

The $100 cash award presented by the Civitan club for good citizenship was given to Elliott Gaddy, who also won the Good Citizenship medal given by the school. The D.A.R. Good Citizen award was presented to Barbara Holt, while Amorelle Tucker was the recipient of the $100 savings bond given by the National Honor Society.

The World Peace prizes were given to Peggy Furr, Iris Hunsucker, and Patricia Thompson. The TB essay prizes were won by Peggy Smith, Libby Hatley, and Patricia Starnes.

The girls selected to go to Girls' State were Joyce Turner and Patricia Thompson, while Wade Smith, Edshay Brunson, Joe Kluttz, and Jimmy Almond were chosen to attend Boys' State. Johnnie Russell and Eugene Burris will attend Wildacres.

Dickie Cashwell was presented a plaque recognizing him as a Morehead Scholarship winner, and Frances Litaker and Joan Renger were given the valedictorian and salutatorian awards.

The best athlete awards were won by Harvie Ann Smith and John David Moose, while the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship awards went to Louise Cooper and Bobby Peck.

Awards went to debating team members, Eugene Burris, Pat Allan, Vivian Smith, and Dickie Cashwell, while Charlotte Pope and Donnie Smith took the dramatics awards.

The music award in chorus was given to Edward Hatley, and the band award to Frances Ross. Judy Scaggs was presented the majorette award.

The science award went to Bill Beeker and Bill Fisher won the history award.

It was also announced that senior class has received over $60,000 in scholarships this year.

Smith Sets New Broad Jump Mark

The A.H.S. Track Team scored 5 points in the South Piedmont Conference Track Meet which was held in Davidson, May 13.

Wade Smith won first place in the broad jump by jumping 20 feet, 8½ inches. This mark sets a new conference record.

This was the fourth track meet of the season for the A.H.S. trackmen. Other track meets held this year were with Lexington, Kannapolis, and Mooresville.

There was a senior named Ray whose excuses were printed each day.
