

Cheerers Sport New Uniforms

If you have ever come to any of the Albemarle High School football games, no doubt you have noticed eight "dabs" of blue and white turning and dancing around on the field. Of course they are the eight Albemarle cheerleaders. To get pep and to support the Bulldogs are the aims of these girls.

The girls have new uniforms this year, given to them by the Albemarle Jaycettes. They are made up of blue and white paneled skirts lined in white flannel. The sweaters are white turtle-neck with the "A" monogram in the center of the sweater. The girls are dolled up in blue and white saddle oxfords.

After the Kannapolis game, the cheerleaders sponsored a dance for all who wanted to come. With the proceeds, they bought a microphone, amplifiers, and had a platform built to use to direct yells at the football games.

This group of boys will meet Monroe Rebels at Monroe tonight. The Albemarle team is unbeaten, while Monroe has won over Mooresville 7-6 and Winecoff 27-0, but lost to China Grove 12-6 and to Concord 13-12.

Mouth Pieces Are Given To Players By Local Dentist

Dr. M. B. Richardson has fitted each of the 37 football players with a rubber mouth piece designed by the University of North Carolina.

Each player had to have an impression of his mouth made. The boys went to Dr. Richardson's office, a few each day, until all of them had had an impression made. The boys helped him make the mouth pieces by coming to the home economics room of the high school for two nights. The first night they painted the impressions with a liquid rubber and put them in the ovens to cure. The curing required 24 hours. The team returned to the school the next night to trim the mouth pieces and then they were ready for use.

The Bulldogs have used the mouth pieces in recent games and report they are very satisfactory.

Parents, never give the boy all the allowance you can afford. Keep back some to bail him out.

Bullpups Shine As Spiders Fall

The Bullpups were led on offense by Drip Kimrey, Roger Smith, Joe Miller, and Wood Durham.

The strong defense was led by Wayne Spivey and Don Montgomery.
