Fourteen Seniors Enter Competition

Fourteen AHS senior girls have enrolled in the General Mills "Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow" by taking the Science Research test December 3.

Only senior girls who had previously studied home economics were eligible to enter the "Search". Every participant received a copy of "Betty Crocker's Homemaker Profiler and Guide to Homemaking."

The girl who has the highest score from Albemarle High will receive a Betty Crocker "Homemaker of Tomorrow" award pin and will be entered in the state competition.

The state winner will receive a $1,500 Betty Crocker scholarship to be applied toward study in any accredited institution and an expense paid educational tour of Washington, D. C., Colonial Williamsburg, and New York City for one week during the spring.

The second place state winner will be awarded a $500 scholarship.

From all of the state winners, the Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be chosen and honored with a $5,000 scholarship.

The fourteen local contestants were given the objective-type test on December 3. In thirty-five minutes, they had to answer the 150 questions dealing with home economics and general information. The results will be announced by General Mills within the near future.

Miss Michael administered the test which was taken by the following girls: Pat Starnes, Brenda Frick, Martha Barbee, Nancy Swaringen, Joyce Burris, Martha Huckabee, Carolyn Butler, Carolyn Nicholds, Yvonne Chandler, Lynda Jordan, Kay Swindell, Pat Smith, Glenda Keever, and Marcia Moses.

The senior from AHS last year who made the highest score was Jo Ellen Brooks.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa,
There is very little for which I pine;
To be a Morehead Scholar would suit me fine.
Tommy Murrell

A radio station would be my greatest joy;
To have of my own—not just a toy.
Woody Durham

I'd like a peppermint candy cane in my stocking;
Then at my door everyone would come knocking.
Craig Caudle

There is something I need real soon;
Some new problems to put in Full Moon.
Mr. Braswell

Lots of new clothes to add to my collection;
Would make this Christmas seem like perfection.
Ann Bell

You could give me Christmas joy;
If you placed under my tree a real cute boy.
Sue Stone

To find Keith instead of his letter;
Nothing would suit me any better.
Glenda Sue Honey

There is one thing for which I croon;
Just place a "Jungle" in my living room.
Barbara Smith

Some new water skis would maké me ready;
For a summer of fun—me and my steady.
Jimmy Stonestreet

Anything which does not concern French or school
Would remind me of a summer at the pool.
Mrs. Deese

You could really make Christmas happy for me
If you would put a gift from Edward under my tree.
Emma Lynn Morton

Solution To Quiz

After much searching one man was found who said he would settle the problem between the three brothers. He gave them one camel to add to the seventeen, making a total of eighteen. Then the first brother got one-half or nine camels, the second brother, one-third or six camels, and the third brother, one-ninth or two camels. This only came to a total of seventeen camels, so the donor took his camel back.
